OWNERSHIP

WILLIAM O. DeWITT JR.
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD / GENERAL PARTNER

William O. DeWitt Jr. was born Aug. 31, 1941, and grew up in St. Louis as the son of former baseball executive and team owner William O. DeWitt and Margaret H. DeWitt. He led the organization of the Cardinals' ownership group, which purchased the team on March 21, 1996. As the principal owner of the Cardinals, DeWitt serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer of Gateway Group Inc., the Managing Corporate General Partner of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P. He oversees all financial, baseball and league matters for the team and is a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council.

DeWitt is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School and holds a 1963 B.A. degree in economics from Yale University and a 1965 M.B.A. degree from Harvard Business School.

DeWitt has been involved in baseball since his childhood and has held past investment interests in the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He also has served as a board member for the Cincinnati Bengals and the Cincinnati Stingers hockey team. His father owned the St. Louis Browns from 1949-51, when Bill Jr. served as the team's batboy. His uniform, which was worn by midget Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch-hitting appearance on Aug. 19, 1951, is on loan to the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

DeWitt is President of the investment firm RD Investment Group, Inc. He also is Co-Chairman of Restaurant Management Inc. and a board member of Sena Weller Rohs Williams Inc., U.S. Playing Card Co. and Conair Group Inc.

He has had investment interests in CEA Corp. (parent of Cincinnati Equitable Insurance Co.), Charter Cable Systems Inc., Cincinnati Riverfront Coliseum, Coca-Cola Bottling Investment Group Inc. (co-chairman), Future Now Corporation (publicly traded on NASDAQ), Middle States Coca-Cola Bottling Group Inc. (vice-chairman), Midwest Employers Casualty Co., Mississippi Valley Investment Co. (bank holding company), Republic Broadcasting Corp., and Spectrum 7 Energy Corp. (vice-chairman).

His numerous civic activities include: Ohio Co-Chair Bush for President, President of the William O. and Margaret H. DeWitt Foundation, Semple Foundation Board Member, Yale University Development Board Member, Regional Chairman for the Yale Campaign, Cincinnati Art Museum Board Member, Taft Museum Board Member, Cabinet Member for Cincinnati Fine Arts Fund, United Way of Cincinnati, Multiple Sclerosis Society, Salvation Army Board Member, past President of the Fund for Independent Schools (minority scholarship program), current president of the Commonwealth Club and Co-Chair of the 2001 Presidential Inaugural Committee.

In 1998, DeWitt was appointed to the National Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors.

DeWitt is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis. They have four grown children: Katie, Bill, Andrew and Margot, and five grandchildren. DeWitt's sister, Donna "DeDe" DeWitt Lambert, is also an investor in the team.

FREDERICK O. HANSER
CHAIRMAN

Frederick O. Hanser was a principal organizer of the Cardinals' ownership group, which purchased the team on March 21, 1996. Hanser is President and Director of Gateway Group Inc., the Managing Corporate General Partner of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P., and Chairman of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P. He oversees the daily operations of the team on behalf of the ownership group as well as the activities of the holding companies and other subsidiaries.

Hanser, a St. Louis attorney, has been a partner in the St. Louis law firm of Armstrong, Teasdale L.L.P. since 1978, specializing in banking and corporate and estate taxation. He was a lawyer for the firm of Fordyce and Mayne from 1966-78. He has been involved in numerous venture capital and closely held businesses, including Mississippi Valley Bancshares Inc., the holding company for Southwest Bank.

Hanser, a life-long St. Louis resident and Cardinals fan, was born April 13, 1942. He is the son of Mrs. Olive D. Mullen and the late S. Albert Hanser, M.D. He is the great-grandson of former Cardinals investor Adolph M. Diez, whose involvement with the Cardinals spanned 30 years, from 1917 to 1947.

Hanser received a B.A. degree in economics from Yale University in 1963 and earned a J.D. degree from the Washington University School of Law in 1966.

Some of his current and past business and civic activities include the Mississippi Valley Bancshares Inc. Board of Directors and Executive Committee (holding company for Southwest Bank), Board of Directors and Executive Committee of the St. Louis Regional Chamber and Growth Association, Board of Directors of St. Louis Children's Hospital, the Greater St. Louis Area Boy Scouts, the Backstoppers, St. Louis Country Day School and the Easter Seal Society.

Hanser and his wife, Kathy, have two grown children, Tim and Kara, and two grandsons.

ANDREW N. BAUR
SECRETARY-TREASURER

Andrew N. Baur was a principal organizer of the Cardinals' ownership group that purchased the team on March 21, 1996. Mr. Baur is the Secretary-Treasurer and a Director of Gateway Group Inc., the Managing Corporate General Partner of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P., and is Secretary-Treasurer of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P. Baur is a native St. Louisan and life-long Cardinals fan.

Baur is currently chairman and CEO of Southwest Bank and its holding company, Mississippi Valley Bancshares Inc. Baur led a group that purchased Southwest Bank in October 1984.

His past career posts include: Chairman and CEO of the County Bank of St. Louis, and President and Chief Operating Officer of County Tower Corp., the holding company for County Bank (1978-84); President and Chairman, Commerce Bank of St. Louis (1974-78); Mercantile Trust Co., N.A., which he entered as a commercial banking officer and left as Vice President in charge of the Loan Division (1970-74); and employment by the First National Bank of Atlanta (1967-70), where he started as a management trainee and was elected an officer in 1969.

Baur received an A.B. degree in 1966 from Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Va., and an M.B.A. from Georgia State University in 1970.

Baur is a member of the Board of Directors for Rawlings Sporting Goods Co., the MUNY (Municipal Theater Association) and is Chairman of the National Kidney Foundation. He is the former chairman of St. Luke's Hospital, the St. Louis Regional Commerce & Growth Association, the Arts & Education Council of Greater St. Louis and KETC. Baur also serves as a Commissioner Emeritis of Tower Grove Park.

Baur is the son of the late Andrew H. Baur and the former Florence Noland. He was born in St. Louis on April 25, 1944, and attended Country Day School. He has three grown children, Andrew, Todd and McKay and two granddaughters and one grandson.

MANAGEMENT

MARK C. LAMPING
PRESIDENT

Mark Lamping was named president of the St. Louis Cardinals on Sept. 1, 1994. In addition to the club's 1996, 2000 and 2001 Central Division championships, in 1999, the Cardinals were honored by United Sports Fans of America as Major League Baseball's Fan-Friendly Team for their superior efforts to make a day at the ballpark more affordable and enjoyable.

In February 1994, Lamping was appointed commissioner of the Continental Basketball Association. Prior to that Lamping served as Anheuser-Busch's group director of sports marketing for five years. In that position, he managed the company's TV and radio sports production division while coordinating all domestic and international sports marketing activities for Anheuser-Busch's beer brands, including sponsorship agreements for the Olympics, the World Cup and all major professional sports, including Major League Baseball, the National Football League, the National Hockey League and the National Basketball Association.

Lamping, 44, joined Anheuser-Busch in 1981. He initially worked as a financial analyst in the company's corporate planning division before serving as a district manager in southern Illinois and central Iowa. He also served as the senior brand manager for new products and director of sales operations.

His civic activities include St. Louis Sports Commission Board of Directors; Board of Directors, St. Louis University Business School; and SSM Health Care Central Region Board.

Lamping also is involved in a variety of charitable organizations, including Board of Directors, Roman Catholic Orphan Board; Board of Directors of the Cardinals Community Fund; Chairperson of the Make-A-Wish Foundation Golf Classic in 1997, 1998 and 1999; Chairman of the Old Newsboys Day for children's charities; Chairman of the St. Louis Archdiocese Catholic Charities 2000 and 2001 Christmas Appeal and served as a chairperson for Pope John Paul's 1999 visit to St. Louis.

In 1998, Lamping was honored as Man of the Year by the St. Louis chapter of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Resources and received the James O'Flynn Award from St. Patrick's Center in recognition of his work to help the homeless in the St. Louis area. In addition, Lamping was the recipient of the Catholic Youth council 2000 Community Achievement Award and the 2001 Marianist Youth Medal in recognition of his support of youth throughout the St. Louis area. Big Brothers and Big Sisters of St. Louis honored Lamping with their 2001 Legacy award. Lamping has been inducted into the Vianney High School Hall of Fame and was named 2000 Alumnus of the Year for outstanding achievement by Rockhurst University.

A St. Louis native, Lamping holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Rockhurst College in Kansas City and a master's degree in business administration from Saint Louis University. He lives in St. Louis County with his wife, Cheryl, and their children, Brian, Lauren and Timothy.

WALT JOCKETTY
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL MANAGER

Walt Jocketty was named the Cardinals' vice president/general manager on Oct. 14, 1994, and in November 2000 was promoted to his current position of Senior Vice President, signing a four-year contract extension through the year 2004. He is entering his 28th season in professional baseball.

Jocketty, 51, was named Executive of the Year by Baseball America and The Sporting News in November of 2000 after his key acquisitions helped the Cardinals to their second National League Central Division Championship and their 17th postseason appearance. In a busy offseason prior to the 2000 campaign, Jocketty became the first general manager in baseball history to trade for a 20-game winner and a 40-homer man in the same off-season with the trades for Darryl Kile and Jim Edmonds. He enhanced the team's prospects for 2002 with the free agent signings of reliever Jason Isringhausen and first baseman Tino Martinez during the past off-season. Two years ago, Jocketty bolstered the lineup by trading for 2001 Gold Glove second baseman Fernando Vina in addition to all-star outfielder and 2000-2001 Gold Glove winner Edmonds. He also signed free agent catcher Mike Matheny who was a 2000 Rawlings Gold Glove award winner. Jocketty's trading deadline deals for Will Clark, Mike Timlin, and Jason Christiansen were keys to the team's success down the stretch and into the 2000 postseason.

Throughout the 2000 season Jocketty orchastrated long-term deals with shortstop Edgar Renteria, Edmonds and Vina to help insure the long-term success of the team. To bolster the team for the 2001 season, Jocketty traded for pitchers Dustin Hermanson and Steve Kline in December and added Woody Williams last August.

Jocketty was instrumental in bringing Manager Tony La Russa to St. Louis as well as nearly a dozen new faces to the Cardinals' roster before the 1996 season. Those changes helped the club return to the postseason that year after an eight-season drought. In July 1997, he engineered a deal that brought slugger Mark McGwire to St. Louis and then put together a contract that kept McGwire in a Cardinals uniform through 2001.

Jocketty has helped build the Cardinals' future through the June amateur draft, helping to land young stars like Albert Pujols, Rick Ankiel, J.D. Drew and Matt Morris. In the last three June drafts, he has continued to build the team's reserve of young talent by signing first-round picks Justin Pope (pitcher, 2001), Shaun Boyd (outfielder, 2000) and righthanded pitchers Chance Caple and Nick Stocks (1999).

Before coming to the Cardinals, Jocketty was the Assistant General Manager/Player Personnel for the Colorado Rockies, whom he joined in 1993. Prior to that, he served 10 seasons as the Director of Baseball Administration for the Oakland A's. He served a total of 14 years with Oakland, starting in March 1980, when he was hired by Charles O. Finley as Director of Minor League Operations and Scouting. Jocketty was instrumental in overhauling the A's minor league system and helped turn the club into one of the 1980s' most dominant franchises by producing such standouts as McGwire, Jose Canseco and Walt Weiss.

While with Oakland, Jocketty played a key role in establishing the Arizona Rookie League and the Dominican Summer League. He previously served on Major League Baseball's Operations Committee, which is responsible for negotiations between the Professional Baseball Association and Major League Baseball. He has served as a board member of the Epworth Children's Home in St. Louis.

Jocketty is a native of Minneapolis, Minn., where he earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Minnesota in 1974. He and his wife, Sue, have two children, Ashley and Joey, and make their home in St. Louis County.

MANAGEMENT

JERRY WALKER
VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL

As vice president of player personnel, Walker assists general manager Walt Jocketty with personnel decisions involving the major league club and oversees the Cardinals' player development and scouting activities. He was promoted to his current position on Feb. 1, 1997, after serving as director of major league player personnel since he joined the organization in November 1994.

After concluding his playing career in 1964, Walker managed five years at the minor league level for the New York Yankees. He scouted for the Yankees from 1973 until the middle of the 1981 season, when he was named the Yankees' major league pitching coach. He also served as the Houston Astros' major league pitching coach from 1983-1986.

Walker returned to the scouting ranks in 1987, joining the Detroit Tigers as a special assignment scout. He was appointed the Tigers' general manager in September 1991 and was responsible for overseeing all major and minor league operations. In April 1994, he joined the Toronto Blue Jays as a special assignment scout.

A former pitcher, Walker's major league career spanned eight seasons with Baltimore (1957-60), Kansas City (1961-62) and Cleveland (1963-64). He became the youngest pitcher to ever start an All-Star Game in 1959, when at age 20, he drew the assignment for the American League in the second game played that summer (on Aug. 3).

Walker, 63, a native of Ada, Okla., and his wife, Janis, have two married daughters and five grandchildren.

BOB GEBHARD
VICE PRESIDENT, SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Gebhard is in his third full season with the Cardinals after joining the organization in September 1999. He was promoted in January of 2001 to his current vice president position. In this post Gebhard works closely with Senior Vice President and General Manager Walt Jocketty on the club's day-to-day major league operations including player evaluations and contract negotiations.

The former vice president and general manager of Colorado, Gebhard built the Rockies from the ground up. He spent eight years with the team — from the November 1991 expansion draft until he resigned in August 1999 — and helped the club reach the postseason in just its third season. Before joining the Rockies, Gebhard was a member of the Minnesota Twins front office, serving as director of major league personnel in 1987 and as vice president of player personnel from 1988-1991. He worked for the Montreal Expos from 1974-86, serving as director of minor league operations, as minor league field director and as a major league coach.

Gebhard's playing career spanned 11 seasons and included big-league duty with the Twins and Expos. A righthanded pitcher, he was originally drafted by Minnesota in the 15th round of the first-ever amateur draft in 1965.

Gebhard and his wife, Nancy, have three children, daughters Angie and Jenny, and son Casey. They reside in Littleton, Colo.

MIKE JORGENSEN
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENTERAL MANAGER

Mike Jorgensen was promoted to his new post on September 22, 2001 after serving 10 seasons as the Cardinals' Director of Player Development.

Jorgensen had served as director of player development since February 5, 1992, after working as the Cardinals' minor league hitting instructor/coordinator since 1990. Upon retiring as a player after the 1985 season he was hired as an instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system. Midway through the 1986 season, he was named manager at St. Petersburg to fill a vacancy and led the team to an 88-48 finish, the best mark in the Florida State League. He also managed the Triple-A Louisville Redbirds from 1987 to 1989. Jorgensen made his big-league managerial debut following the dismissal of Cardinals skipper Joe Torre on June 16, 1995, and guided the team to a 41-55 mark. While managing the field operations, Jorgensen also remained in his post as director of player development and returned to player development full time following the 1995 season.

Jorgensen was a lefthanded-hitting first baseman-outfielder during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons. He was selected by the New York Mets in the June 1966 free-agent draft and made his big-league debut in 1968, appearing in eight games. He was traded to Montreal at the start of the 1972 season, his first of five full seasons with the Expos. He went on to play for Oakland, Texas, the Mets again, Atlanta and the Cardinals, arriving with pitcher Ken Dayley in a trade for third baseman Ken Oberkfell.

Jorgensen, born August 16, 1948, in Passaic, N.J., and his wife, Brenda, have three children; Brian Michael, Kristen Leigh and Eric James, and one grandchild; Eric (10-12-95). He graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, N.Y., and attended St. John's University.

BING DEVINE
SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT SCOUT

Devine rejoined the Cardinals in October 1999 as a special assignment scout and reports directly to Senior Vice President and General Manager Walt Jocketty. During the regular season, Devine assists in scouting the Cardinals' National League opponents and the organization's minor league system.

As the Cardinals' general manager from 1958-64 and 1968-78, Devine will long be remembered for trades that helped build Redbirds teams that won World Series in 1964 and 1967 and the N.L. pennant in 1968. He acquired Curt Flood, Dick Groat, Bill White, Julian Javier and, his most celebrated deal, Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs. Devine also was president of the St. Louis football Cardinals from 1981-86 and president of the New York Mets from 1965-67. He most recently worked as a scout for the Houston Astros and as a special assignment scout for the Philadelphia Phillies. His career includes stints with the Montreal Expos and San Francisco Giants, as well.

A collegiate basketball star while attending Washington University, Devine served in the United States Navy from 1943-46 after beginning his career in professional sports with the Cardinals in 1939.

JIM LEYLAND
MAJOR LEAGUE SCOUT

Leyland joined the Cardinals staff in 2000 as a major league scout. From his primary base in Pittsburgh, he scouts National League teams that visit PNC Park and travels to Cleveland's Jacobs Field to evaluate A.L. clubs. Leyland reports directly to Walt Jocketty.

Leyland retired as a major league manager following the 1999 season, his 14th as a big-league skipper, with a career 1,069-1,131 record. He managed in Pittsburgh (1986-96), Florida (1997-98) and Colorado, leading the Marlins to a World Series championship in 1997 and the Pirates to three straight Eastern Division titles, beginning in 1990. He was a minor league manager from 1971-81, leading his clubs to five first-place finishes, and a catcher in the Detroit farm system from 1964-70.

Leyland, 57, resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Katie, and their two children, Patrick (10/11/91) and Kellie (6/23/93).

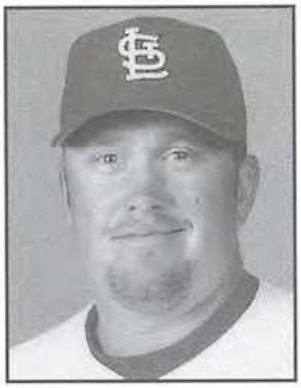
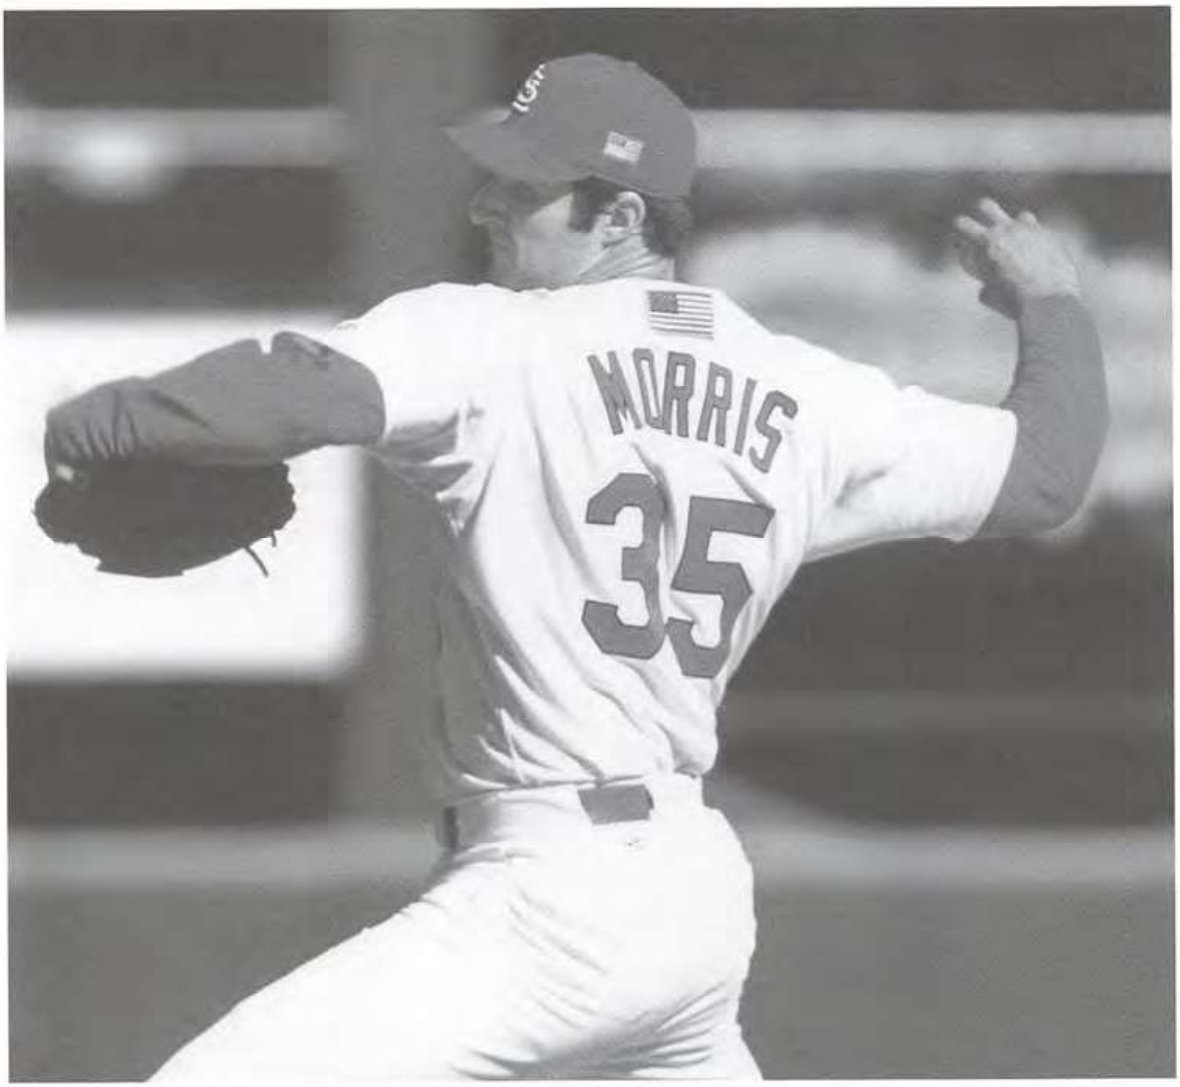
JEFF MURPHY
BULLPEN CATCHER (37)



Murphy begins his sixth season as the Cardinals' bullpen catcher and his 11th year in the organization. A former All-Big Eight performer at the University of Nebraska, Murphy was the Cards' 19th-round pick in the June 1992 amateur draft. He advanced to Class-AA Arkansas before an ankle injury in 1996 finished his career.

Murphy was named to the New York-Penn League's postseason All-Star squad in 1992, his first professional season. He threw out 47 percent of the runners attempting to steal against him. The next year, he led the South Atlantic League's catchers in fielding while posting career highs with seven home runs and 47 runs batted in. After spending the 1994 and '95 seasons at St. Petersburg, he moved to Arkansas in 1996 but appeared in just two games before injuring his ankle. He was named the Cardinals' bullpen catcher during spring training in 1997 after coming to camp as a nonroster invitee.

Born in St. Louis, the 31-year-old Murphy was raised in Las Vegas, and he now resides in St. Charles, Mo. He and his wife, Leah, have a son, Hunter, and a daughter, Sadie.



Twenty-two game winner Matt Morris won a Busch Stadium record 15 games in 2001.

HALL OF FAME ROAD TRIP

The Hall of Fame begins its first-ever national tour, when Baseball As America opens at the American Museum of Natural History (NY) on March 16. The exhibit will run through August 18 and then travel to the Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County from September 21, 2002 through January 5, 2003.

An estimated four to five million people will see the exhibit, which will travel to eight more nationally renowned museums over the next three years, including: Field Museum of Natural History in Chicago, the Cincinnati Museum Center; Florida International Museum in St. Petersburg, FL; National Museum of Natural History, Smithsonian Institution in Washington, DC; and the Missouri Historical Society in St. Louis. Three more cities will be named later this year. Visit the tour Web site, baseballasamerica.org, for complete details.

Just like the Hall of Fame experience in Cooperstown, Baseball As America is a national celebration of America's romance with baseball. It represents the richness of baseball as the American pastime and celebrates enduring American values - freedom, patriotism, opportunity and ingenuity. The exhibition provides a revealing, inspiring, humorous and dramatic perspective on America's Game and so doing, foster a new appreciation for baseball, but of our national character.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS : 1977 – Selected by San Diego in fourth round of June free-agent draft and signed by Padres' scouts Cliff Ditto and Bob Fontaine…led Northwest League shortstops in assists (254), double plays (40) and fielding pct. (.943)…led loop in stolen bases with 30…during the off-season caught the eye of Padres brass with .323 avg. in Arizona Instructional League. 1978 – Became SD regular shortstop after only 68 games in the minor leagues…played in 159 games, leading the league in sacrifice hits with 28 and finishing 4th in stolen bases with 40…was runner-up to Atlanta's Bob Horner for Rookie of the Year honors. 1979 – Led N.L. shortstops with 555 assists…was League's 5th toughest hitter to fan (1 every 17.54 AB). 1980 – Capped a sensational defensive season at shortstop by winning his first Gold Glove after setting a new major league record for assists by a shortstop…set the new mark 9/26 vs LA when he surpassed a mark Pittsburgh's Glenn Wright had established in 1924. Wright's mark was 601 assists and Oz finished the season with 621…also participated in more double plays than any other N.L. shortstop…may have set the stage for his season by handling 16 total chances, including 12 assists, 4/12 vs SF…joined with Gene Richards and Jerry Mumphrey to become the first trio in N.L. history to all steal 50 bases in same season – Smith (57), Richards (61), Mumphrey (52)…led league with 23 sacrifice hits. 1981 – Played in all 110 games, tying for N.L. high…league leader in at-bats with 450…led N.L. shortstops in assists, total chances and fielding pct. 1982 – Was the N.L.'s best shortstop on a percentage basis, won his third straight Gold Glove and led the league in assists for the fourth straight year…984 fielding percentage is a Cardinal season record for a shortstop…not only did he maintain his level of performance on the field, but Ozzie also emerged as a solid hitter after working with Cardinal coaches at spring training on developing his swing to take advantage of Busch's artificial turf…after missing only 13 games in his first four major league seasons, Smith was sidelined for 18 days late in the year due to a hematoma of his right thigh…Smith set a 7-game World Series record for most putouts by a shortstop with 22. In 1982 Smith maintained his level of near perfect performances in the field; his .976 fielding percentage was best in the league…led the National League in chances with 658 and in games played with 110…was named one of St. Louis' Baseball Men of the Year by the local BBWAA Chapter…voted to UPI and Sporting News post-season All-Star team. 1983 – Was the league's best shortstop in terms of putouts and total chances even though for the first time in five years he was edged out of the lead in the assist category, finished behind Houston's Dickie Thon…led the 1983 Cardinals in games played, was second in sacrifice hits and walks and third in doubles, triples, stolen bases and game-winning RBI. 1984 – Was recognized as the National League's premier shortstop on A.P., U.P.I., and The Sporting News post-season teams, and for the second consecutive season was voted the N.L.'s starting shortstop on the All-Star team…did not win this wide acclaim on past reputation either, he earned it on the field, leading the N.L. in fielding pct. (.982), while committing a career low 12 errors…also sparked the Cardinals with his bat and speed, his .314 mark from the right side of the plate was tops in his career and his 11 sacrifices led the team. On the basepaths, Ozzie was one of the league's most successful thieves making good on 35 of 42 stolen base attempts, a success rate of 83…was also one of the most difficult players to strikeout, averaging a strikeout only every 28.5 plate appearances...missed a month of the season when he was hit by a Ed Whitson pitch 7/13 that fractured the ulna bone in his right wrist. Returned from the disabled list 8/20 in grand fashion going 2-for-4 (double, triple)...thrilled opening night crowd with his traditional season opening pre-game backflip, and then closed the evening's festivities with a three-run homer to defeat PIT, 4-1...finished 10th in N.L. stolen bases (35). 1985 – Prior to home opener, 4/15, Cardinals end weeks of trade rumors and speculation by signing Smith to a four year contract extension. Ozzie pays immediate dividend on Redbird investment with 2-for-3 outing in opener and his first home run of season...goes through month of April flawless at shortstop, does not commit first error of season until 5/4...on 6/20, appearing to be a shoe-in for selection to third straight starting assignment at the All-Star Game, Ozzie vows to raise his batting average which stands at .242 before the mid-summer classic. He meets goal by hitting in 19 of next 22 games (22-for-75; .427), raising his average to .290 at the All-Star Break. In the All-Star Game, Smith is the only N.L. player to play the entire game. Six homers on season raises career total to 13, with all 13 coming from the right side of the plate for the switch-hitter...continues to be among the leagues toughest batters to strikeout with only 27 Ks in 615 plate appearances—one every 22.7 times...started 158 games at shortstop...tops N.L. shortstops in putouts, assists, total chances and fielding pct....ties major league record held by Owen Busch and Don Kessinger for most seasons (6) with 500 or more assists 1978, '79, '80, '82, '83, '85...ties Michael Doolan's N.L. record for years leading league in assists (5)...has at least one hit in each of 6 L.C.S. games...hits first left-handed home run in 3,009 professional at-bats off Tom Niedenfuer in ninth inning of Game 5 giving St. Louis a 3-2 win...named Most Valuable Player of National League Championship Series...post-season awards included sixth consecutive Gold Glove Award at short and selection on Sporting News and UPI N.L. All-Star teams. 1986 – Was the Cardinals' most consistent player leading the team's regulars with a career high .280 average and winning his 7th straight Gold Glove for fielding excellence at shortstop...in four plate appearances on 5/1 at SD had a single, double, two walks, stole three bases and scored all three of the Cardinals runs in a 4-3 loss to Padres...had a nine-game hitting streak (11-for-34; .324) from 5/3-14...notched seventh career four-hit game on 6/2 at HOU...set a personal record with 48-game errorless streak from 7/23-9/15...stole his 150th base as a Cardinal, 8/12 at MTL...scored a run in eight straight games from 8/30-9/7...on 9/7 at HOU played his 701st game at shortstop for St. Louis moving into third place on Cards all-time games played by shortstop list behind Dal Maxvill (1054) and Marty Marion (1492)...that day also stole 300th career base...had hit in 9 of last 10 games (15-for-30; .500) from 9/24-10/5...Smith's fine season was recognized in a number of ways...received the fourth highest number of votes in fan balloting for All-Star game and made his fourth straight start...named shortstop on The Sporting News and U.P.I. post-season N.L. All-Star teams...was club leader in average, hits and walks...tied career high in RBI and had career bests in average and walks...was sixth in N.L. in walks and seventh in on-base pct. (.376)...was again toughest batter in league to strikeout (1 in 19.4 AB)...was on-base by hit or walk in 119 of 144 (83) starts...was 31 of 38 (82) in steal attempts, tied for seventh best success rate in N.L....marked fifth straight season with 25 or more steals...led N.L. shortstops for third straight year in fielding pct. (.978) and tied for loop lead in double plays (96). 1987 – In his 10th season of Major League play, Ozzie posted numbers that earned him strong consideration among MVP candidates...finished runner-up in the voting for N.L. MVP and his point total was the highest by a N.L. shortstop since Maury Wills won the MVP Award in 1962...undertook extensive off-season conditioning program that gave him added bulk and endurance...after a slow start caused by a sprained ankle suffered in early April, Ozzie raised his average from .172 to .291 (48-for-143; .336) during the course of 36 games...reached the .300 mark in batting for the first time in his career with a .303 mark...his 75 RBI without hitting a homer were the most by a Cardinal since Milt Stock's 76 RBI without a homer in 1920...the 75 RBI surpassed his previous season high of 54 RBI in 1985 and '86...finished third in the N.L. in hits (182), tied for second in doubles (40), first in sacrifice bunts (12) and was among league leaders in average (.303), stolen bases (43) and walks (89)...his 182 hits and 40 doubles were career bests...the 40 doubles were the most by a St. Louis shortstop since Dick Groat had 43 in 1963...hit his 200th career double on 7/23 at LA...was top vote-getter in fan balloting for the All-Star game with 1,215,183 votes...he was the first Cardinal player to ever receive the top vote honors...made his fifth straight start and seventh appearance in the All-Star contest...Ozzie's 10 errors equalled his career low for fewest errors in a season...his 43 stolen bases were second on the club to Vince Coleman's M.L. high 109...they were also the most for the "Wizard" since he became a Cardinal (had 35 in 1984) and are the most ever by a Cards shortstop...had a career best 9 GWRBI and batted .273 (47-for-172) with runners in scoring position...his 158 games were second to Terry Pendleton's 159...scored 100 runs for the first time in his career with 104 tallies...Ozzie had a better batting average on grass (.317) than he did on artificial turf (.298)...was second on the club with 25 infield hits...had 51 multiple hit games including two 4-hit contests...32 of Ozzie's 75 RBI scored Vince Coleman...scored a run in 12 of 13 games from 5/16-5/30...was named to The Sporting News and UPI National League All-Star teams...was named to The Sporting News Silver Slugger team for the first time in his career...ranked 6th among N.L. base thiefs with a .827 stolen base pct....struck out just once every 16.67 at-bats which was 4th among National Leaguers...was rated best defensive infielder and bunter in the NL in a poll of major league managers...won his eighth straight Gold Glove Award...led National League shortstops in fielding percentage (.987 – career best), games (158), assists (516), total chances (771) and double plays (111)...set major league record for most years with 500 or more assists by a shortstop with 7...his .987 fielding pct. equalled Larry Bowa for highest fielding average (season) in NL history for a shortstop with 150 or more games played...played 33 consecutive errorless games from 8/3-9/7...had a season-high 11 assists on 8/13 vs PHI...reached base safely in 5 of 7 World Series games...had two stolen bases in W.S. MARK McGWIRE

FIRST BASEMAN

FULL NAME: Mark David McGwire

HEIGHT: 6-5 WEIGHT: 250 BATS: Right THROWS: Right

BORN: 10/1/63 at Pomona, California M.L. SERVICE: 15.047

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Oakland Athletics for pitchers T.J. Mathews, Eric Ludwick and Blake Stein, July 31, 1997.

2001 SEASON:

- With his place in the baseball history firmly established, Mark McGwire retired from the game following the 2001 season.
- "Big Mac" left the game as one of baseball's most prolific home run hitters. His 583 career home runs rank fifth on baseball's all-time list, just three behind Frank Robinson (586) and only 17 shy of the 600-homer plateau.
- After off-season surgery on his right knee, Mark struggled to find his groove in 2001, batting a career-low .187 in 97 games played.
- He finished third on the club with 29 home runs in just 299 at-bats.
- McGwire became just the third player in baseball history to end a career of 15 or more years with at least 29 homers. Ted Williams (29) did it in 1960 and Dave Kingman (35) did it in 1986.
- His 29 homers were the third-most in baseball history for a player who appeared in fewer than 100 games. Mark owns the record of 32 HRs in 89 games (2000), followed by Kevin Mitchell's 30 HRs in 95 games in 1994.
- Became just the third player in Major League history to hit at least 20 home runs and post a batting average under .200, after Rob Deer (25 HRs /.179 avg.) in 1991 and Ruben Rivera (23 HRs/.195 avg.) in 1999.
- Hit 22 home runs in his last 58 games. He hit six homers during interleague play.
- Twenty-nine of his 56 hits (52%) were home runs and 21 of 29 homers came after the All-Star break.
- The Cardinals went 20-6 in games in which he homered.
- Six of his last nine hits, and eight of his last 12, were round-trippers.
- Opened the season on the active roster, but soreness in his surgically-repaired right knee forced him to the disabled list on 4/18 (retroactive to 4/16).
- Was activated from the disabled list on 5/28 after missing 36 games (since 4/16). Celebrated by hitting his 556th career home run, his 108th round-tripper at Busch Stadium and his 193rd HR as a Cardinal - tying him with Rogers Hornsby.
- Hit his 194th Cardinal home run on 6/13 at KC, moving into fourth on the club's all-time home run list.
- Had an RBI in five straight games (10 RBIs total), 6/13-18.
- Put the Cards on the board 6/14 at KC with an RBI-double in the seventh inning.
- Had 65th career multi-homer game on 6/15 vs. CWS and matched his career high with four hits.
- Had his 65th career multi-HR on 6/15 vs. CWS and matched his career high with four hits.
- Hit safely in 13 of 15 games (5 HRs/15 RBIs) before an 0-29 skid, 6/24-7/6.
- Led the National League with 11 home runs in the month of July.
- Blasted his 14th career grand slam off Steve Woodard on 7/7 at CLE.
- Hit his ninth homer of the year and his 200th in the N.L. off Detroit's Jeff Weaver on 7/12.
- Moved ahead of Reggie Jackson into sixth place all-time with home run #564 on 7/14 off Detroit's Jose Lima.
- Posted his 66th career multi-homer game on 7/26 at CHI.
- Broke his tie with Harmon Killebrew (573) for fifth place on the all-time HR list with #574 on 8/11at NY, his 20th of the season. Hit HR #575 for GWRBI on 8/12 at NY.
- His single on 8/15 vs. CIN was his first non-HR hit since 7/18 at HOU, a span of 70 at-bats.
- Was 3-for-3 on 8/19 vs. PHI with four RBIs.
- Crushed his 24th HR (#578 career) 9/10 at MIL, a 445-foot, two-run blast that was his first HR at Miller Park.
- Hit HR #25 (#579 career) on 9/20 in his first career at-bat at Pittsburgh's PNC Park.

- Had his 67th career multi-homer game (third in 2001) in 9/26 win at HOU.
- Homered for the second straight game on 9/27 vs. PIT, his first homer at Busch since 8/1.
- Had a season-high five RBIs on 10/4 at MIL, going 2-for-4 with HR #29, the 583rd of his career.

2001 POSTSEASON – Made his sixth and final postseason appearance in the Division Series vs. Arizona...played in four of the five games (three starts) and went just 1-for-11 in the series, with six strikeouts...was lifted for pinch-hitter Kerry Robinson in the ninth inning of the decisive Game 5.

McGWIRE CAREER NOTES

- Ended his career with an average of one home run per 10.61 at-bats, the all-time Major League record. Babe Ruth ranks second at 11.76.
- It took McGwire just one year to go from 400 to 500 homers, and only three years to go from 300 to 500. The previous National Leaguer to hit 500 homers - Mike Schmidt - needed three years to go from 400 to 500 and six years to go from 300 to 500. The latest 500-homer man - Barry Bonds - needed 2-1/2 years to go from 400 to 500 and was a couple of weeks shy of five years from 300 to 500.
- Fred McGriff, Harold Baines, Jose Canseco and Cal Ripken all hit their 300th career homers before McGwire. When Mac reitred they were all at least 100 career home runs behind him.
- Even though he was hurt most of his last two seasons, McGwire hit 254 homers in the final five seasons of his career. Babe Ruth hit 149 in his last five years, while Hank Aaron hit 116 and Willie Mays hit 73.
- McGwire retired having homered in a big-league record 39 ballparks in his career.
- Homered off a record 364 different pitchers in his career.
- He struck out 1,596 times in his career. If you subtract his strikeouts, Big Mac hit .3542 when he made contact. Tony Gwynn ended his career in 2001 with a mark of .3548 when he made contact.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1984 – Selected by the Oakland A's in the first round (10th player overall) of the June amateur draft...played 16 games for Modesto, batting .200 in 55 plate appearances.

1985 – Spent the full year as Modesto's starting third baseman...showed exceptional power...batted .274 in 138 games, and slugged 50 extra-base hits in 489 at-bats (23 doubles, 3 triples and 24 homers)...also had 106 RBIs and 108 strikeouts...earned the California League's Rookie of the Year Award.

1986 – Started the year at Double-A Huntsville but moved up to Tacoma June 6th and then up to Oakland on August 20th...finished his minor league season with a .311 average, 148 hits, 23 home runs and 112 RBIs...picked up his first major league hit on August 24th vs. the Yankees Tommy John...belted his first homer the next day off Walt Terrell at Detroit...never really found his groove with Oakland, batting .189 with 10 hits and three homers in 53 at-bats...fielding was a problem at third as he made six errors and fielded .833.

1987 – Was the consensus American League Rookie of the Year...selected unanimously by the BBWAA, only the second rookie to earn that distinction (after Carlton Fisk in 1972)...his 49 homers led the league and tied for the major league high with the Cubs' Andre Dawson...homer total also set a new major league rookie record...set a new Oakland single-season standard, eclipsing Reggie Jackson's 47 hit in 1969...also topped the major leagues with a .618 slugging percentage, which was an A's record at the time...had at least 12 RBIs in each month of the season and 20 or more in four months...his RBI total was the third best in the AL...finished sixth in the AL MVP voting...had a five-homer spree in Detroit May 8-10th...in a three-game series at Cleveland June 26-28, hit five homers, knocked in seven runs and scored runs in nine consecutive at-bats...named to the AL All-Star team for the game in Oakland...had 33 homers with 68 RBIs at the break...tied major league rookie homer record of 38 August 11th at Seattle with a solo shot off the M's Mike Moore...set the new mark with his 39th homer in Anaheim August 14th, a two-run homer in the 6th inning off the Angels' Don Sutton.

1988 – Finished second on the club to Jose Canseco with 32 homers and 99 RBIs...homer total of 32 was third-best in the loop and RBI total was eighth best...back stiffness caused Mark to miss nine of the A's last 16 games and his chance at 100 RBIs for the second consecutive season...named as the AL's starter at first base in the All-Star Game at Cincinnati...more than a third of his RBIs pulled the A's into a tie or put them ahead. 1988 POSTSEASON – Hit .333 in the ALCS vs. Boston with a homer and three RBIs...recorded one of his greatest career moments when he homered off Jay Howell in the ninth inning of Game 3 in the World Series...the blast gave the A's a 2-1 victory...it was Oakland's only win in the Series and Mark's only hit in 17 at-bats.

1989 – Led the A's and ranked third in the AL with 33 homers...finished second to Parker on the A's and tenth in the league with 95 RBI's...led the league with a homer every 14.8 at-bats and was second with an RBI every 5.2 at-bats...all this despite spending 15 days on the DL in early April with a herniated disc in his back...after returning missed just five games the remainder of the season. 1989 POSTSEASON – Hit safely in seven of the A's nine postseason games...overall hit .343 in the postseason with a homer and four RBIs...amazingly was the only A's regular not to homer in the Series vs. San Francisco.

1990 – Topped the A's in RBI's (108) and games played (156) and led the major leagues in walks with 110...was second on the A's to Rickey Henderson in runs scored with 86...post season numbers were not up to his standards...wound up with five hits...all singles...earned his first Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence at first base...made just 5 errors in 1,429 total chances for a .997 fielding percentage...selected by the fans for the third consecutive season as the AL's All-Star starting first baseman...finished 11th in American League MVP voting. 1990 POSTSEASON – Hit .154 in the ALCS vs. Boston with 2 RBI's...and .214 in the Series with no RBI's.

1991 – Had his consecutive streak of 30 or more homers end at four years...his .201 average was a career low by 30 points...was again among the top fielding first basemen in baseball...made just four errors in 1,297 chances for a .997 fielding percentage...22 homers was the third best total on the club and his 75 RBIs was fourth best...with 93 walks he finished second to Rickey Henderson on the A's and sixth in the league.

1992 – Led the major leagues by averaging one homer every 11.1 at-bats but a muscle strain in August forced him to miss 20 games and cost him a chance to win his second major league homer title...McGwire's 42 homers were second only to the Rangers' Juan Gonzalez who homered on the final day of the season to finish with 43...Mark did lead the AL with a .585 slugging percentage...finished fourth to teammate Eckersley in the AL MVP balloting and was named to The Sporting News and UPI All-Star teams...also named by UPI as the Comeback Player of the Year...finished the year with a .268 average, 67 points above his 1991 figure...led the A's with 104 RBIs as he also topped the club with 29 multi-RBI games...spring training was a good indication of what kind of year McGwire was set for as he led the major leagues in hitting with a .453 Cactus League average...June 10th in Milwaukee a big day in Mark's career as his 22nd home run of the 1992 season off the Brewer's Bosio was the 200th of his career...only four men in baseball history, Kiner, Ruth, Killebrew and Mathews have reached the 200 mark faster than Mark who hit his 200th in his 2,852nd at-bat...that homer also tied his total for 1991...reached the All-Star break with 28 homers and was named to the AL All-Star squad for the sixth consecutive year...it was the fifth straight year he was named a starter by the fans...in the All-Star home run hitting contest belted 12 homers to top everyone and lead the AL All-Stars to an easy win...with 38 homers on August 21st had a six-homer bulge over Gonzalez but strained a rib muscle on the right side of his rib cage that night at Camden Yards and went on the disabled list...when he came back 20 games later had lost the homer lead...with one swing at Chicago 9/21 reached the 40-homer and 100-RBI plateaus...second time he had reached the 40-homer mark and third time for 100 RBIs. 1992 POSTSEASON – In the playoffs vs. Toronto belted a two-run homer off Morris in his first at-bat but then finished the post season 2 for his last 19 with one RBI.

1993 – Appeared in just 27 games due to an injured left heel...made just two pinch-hitting appearances after 5/14...eventually underwent surgery in September to repair the damage...was off to a great start with 28 hits, including 15 extra-base hits, and 24 RBI in his first 25 games before the injury shut him down...originally injured the heel during the A's series in New York 5/3-4...played in another nine games before he went on the DL 5/14...missed the next 100 games before he was activated 9/3...after grounding out in a pinch-hitting role vs. Baltimore at the Coliseum on 9/3 had to miss the A's next 3 games as he served a suspension for his part in the 8/24 rhubarb at Milwaukee...his last 1993 appearance was as a pinch-hitter at Toronto 9/9...underwent surgery on the heel September 24th in Houston as Dr. Donald Baxter corrected a partial tear of fascia in his left heel and also shaved a small bone spur...his season total of nine homers was the second-best figure in major league history for a player with 100 or fewer at-bats...Ted Williams hit 13 in 91 at-bats for Boston in 1953.

1994 – Had his second consecutive injury-shortened season...after off season left heel surgery, came to spring camp healthy but the injuries arrived almost as soon as camp started and persisted through much of his season...a stiff back kept McGwire out of the first three weeks of spring games but not out of the A's opening day lineup for the seventh consecutive year...stress fracture of the left heel was his second significant injury of the year and it landed him on the disabled list from 4/30-6/18 (43 games)...belted one of the most dramatic homers of the year 7/10 at Baltimore off Lee Smith, a two-run shot with the A's down a run in the 9th inning...but just a little more than two weeks later, on 7/26 in Anaheim, he re-injured his left heel...was placed on the disabled list the next day, missed the remainder of the season and eventually underwent surgery for a second time on the heel...Dr. Donald Baxter, who performed the first surgery on McGwire's heel to "release" the medial part of the fascia 9/2493, performed the second surgery to "release" the lateral aspect of the fascia on 8/30...on the year McGwire wound up appearing in 47 games, making 37 starts at first base which tied him with Troy Neel for the most starts on the A's at the position.

1995 – Despite having the schedule shortened to 144 games and missing 33 games because of two separate stints on the disabled list, McGwire hit 39 home runs in just 317 at-bats...became one of just seven players in ML history to hit 30 homers with fewer than 400 at-bats and his 39 HRs are the most ever by a player with fewer than 392 at-bats (Hank Aaron, 40 HRs in 392 at-bats in 1973)...most of the power came against lefthanded pitching as he hit 14 HR off southpaws in just 79 at-bats (1 per 5.6 at-bats)...his average distance of 418 feet per homer was the best in the majors...also topped the A's with 90 RBIs...had more home runs than singles (35)...started the year 4-for-18 but then put together a career-high 18-game hitting streak (23 for 64, .359) from 5/3-21...had his first two-homer game of the season on 6/10 at Boston and followed that up by blasting three the next day to tie his career high (6/27/87 at Cleveland)...the five HR in consecutive games tied a major league record (18 times) which he already shared...he and Ralph Kiner are the only two players who have done it twice...had five multiple HR games for the season...belted his sixth career grand slam vs. California on 6/30 in the bottom of the ninth off Lee Smith to give the A's an 8-5 win...21 of his 39 HR and 31 of his 90 RBI either tied the game or put the A's ahead...was tied with Mo Vaughn for the major league lead with 24 HR and 59 RBI when he was hit in the helmet by a David Cone pitch on 7/8 vs. Toronto...was hit by a pitch 11 times for the season which tied for 4th in the league...was named to his seventh All-Star Game but did not play because of the injury...missed five games following the Cone beaning and returned for three games before suffering a deep bruise in his left foot on 7/17 which landed him on the DL the next day...missed 12 games, was activated 8/2, played in three games, and then went back on the DL with a sore lower back...missed another 21 games before returning 8/26...finished the season by hitting 11 home runs in his last 18 games...included in that span was the 269th of his career on 9/14 vs. Kansas City (Gubicza) which broke Reggie Jackson's Oakland career record...stole second base as a part of a double steal at California on 9/30, his first steal since 8/6/91.

1996 – Hit an Oakland record and major league-leading 52 home runs, becoming the 14th player (21 times) in major league history to hit 50 home runs...the 52 homers tied for 11th most in major league history, were the most in the majors since Foster hit 52 in 1977 and the most in the A.L. since Maris (61) and Mantle (54) in 1961...is the only player to hit 50 HR and play in fewer than 140 games...did it at a major league record rate of one home run every 8.13 at-bats, matching his figure from 1995...in addition to leading the majors in home runs, he also ranked first in slugging percentage (.730) and on-base percentage (.467)...became the 10th player (18 times) to lead the majors in all three categories, the fourth since World War II (Mays in 1965, Yastrzemski in 1967 and Schmidt in 1981)...both figures also set Oakland records and the slugging percentage was 14th best in major league history...batted a team leading .312 which was 60 points above his career average and 23 points above his previous best of .289 in his rookie season of 1987...also had career highs in runs (104) and walks (116), falling two walks short of Bando's single season Oakland record...had his fourth career 100 RBI season (113) and reached the century mark in runs, walks and RBI in the same season for the first time in his career...named to the Silver Slugger Team, the Associated Press All-Star Team and finished seventh in the BBWAA MVP voting...missed the first 18 games with a foot injury before he was activated April 23...reached base via hit, walk or hit by pitch in each of his first 48 games and 62 straight dating back to 9/16/1995, setting an Oakland record...hit his first of two grand slams on 5/1 vs. California (other came on 9/22 at Seattle)...went 24 at-bats without a homer from 5/7-14, his longest homerless streak of the season...began his home run tear on 5/17 at Boston and including that blast, he hit 21 home runs in a 36 game span through 6/27...hit .333 (41 for 123) over that span with seven doubles for a .902 slugging percentage...during the streak he hit the 9000th home run in Athletics history on 5/28 vs. Boston and drove in his 790th career run on 6/16 at Milwaukee to break Sal Bando's Oakland career record...had three doubles in the latter contest, tying an Oakland record...belted his 300th career home run on 6/25 vs. Detroit (Olivares) to become the 73rd player in major league history to reach that plateau...finished June with 14 home runs, one shy of his club record for home runs in a month (May, 1987) and the major league record for home runs in June...was named American League Player of the Month in June, hitting .329 with 25 RBI, six doubles, a .915 slugging percentage, 31 walks, a .513 on-base percentage and 26 runs in 26 games...was named to the American League All-Star Team for the eighth time in his 10-year career on 7/ 2 and celebrated by hitting his 303rd career home run that night in Seattle, breaking Jimmie Foxx's Athletics career record...hit his 30th home run on July 13 at Texas, giving him seven 30-homer seasons, tying Foxx's all-time A's record...recorded his 1000th career hit on 7/22 at Chicago off Tapani, becoming the eighth Oakland player to reach the plateau...homered in four consecutive games from 7/23-26...also homered in three straight twice...he hit the longest home run ever by an opponent at the new Comiskey with a 470 foot blast 7/24...then on the 25th in Toronto he homered into the fifth deck for a 488 foot home run, the longest in the five years that all major league home runs have been measured...he homered at least once in every series during the latter streak for a major league record of 20 consecutive series with a home run...that streak ended when he missed five games with back spasms. 7/27-8/1...hit his 40th home run on 8/12 vs. Minnesota, his third 40 homer season, making him and Foxx the only two Athletics with three 40-homer seasons...hit his 40th in his 294th at bat, breaking Ruth's record for fewest at-bats to 40 homers (316 in 1928)...homered the next day to increase his 162-game total dating back to 6/2/95 to 70...hit his 145th career home run in the Coliseum on 8/18 vs. Baltimore (Yan) breaking Reggie Jackson's Coliseum career home run record...hit his 50th home run in the second game of a doubleheader at Cleveland on 9/14 off Ogea...reached 50 in 390 at-bats, breaking Ruth's record of fewest at-bats to 50 homers (438 in 1921)...hit his final two home runs on 9/22 at Seattle, and both came in the fifth inning to tie a major league record for home runs in an inning (28th player, 30th time)...that gave him 28 home runs on the road, tying the franchise record which he already shared with Canseco...homered at least twice against every team; hit six vs. Boston, Cleveland and Detroit...hit at least .321 each month from May through August, including .356 in May, his highest batting average ever in a full month...average improved to .359 with runners in scoring position, which ranked fourth in the league, and his .373 average off southpaws was seventh-best.

1998 ADDITIONAL MILESTONES & HIGHLIGHTS:

- Became the first Cardinal (and 20th major leaguer since 1901) to hit a grand slam on Opening Day, connecting for a fifth-inning blast off LA's Ramon Martinez on 3/31 at Busch. The slam was the 10th of his career.
- Homered in the season's first four games, tying Willie Mays' 1971 major league record for most consecutive games homered in to start a season.
- Named N.L. Player of the Week for the season's first week after batting .400 (8-for-20) with four homers and 12 RBIs.
- Collected his 1,000th career RBI on a bases-loaded walk 4/11 at SF.

- Became the ninth Cardinal to belt as many as three home runs in one game and the first Redbird to do so at Busch with a 3-for-3 performance 4/14 vs. ARI. Became the ninth major leaguer to have a three-homer game in each league (see chart).
- Hit his first career homer at Montreal's Olympic Stadium, a two-run shot off Trey Moore on 4/21.
- Hit his first career homer at Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium, a two-run homer off Jerry Spradlin on 4/25.
- Hit career homer 400 in the fewest at-bats in major league history (4,?26) on 5/8 at NY, a two-run blast off Rick Reed in the third inning (his first career homer at Shea Stadium). Became the 26th player to reach the 400-homer plateau.
- Crushed what could briefly be called the longest homer ever hit at Busch Stadium, a 527-foot bomb off Milwaukee's Paul Wagner on 5/12. The ball landed in Sec. 389, Row 4, Seat 4, above the left-center field scoreboard.
- Launched the longest estimated home run in Busch Stadium history, a 545-foot moonshot off Florida's Livan Hernandez on 5/16. The ball caromed off the Post-Dispatch sign in dead center field before falling into the shrubbery below.
- Belted three homers on 5/19 at PHI, becoming the 12th player (13th time) to record two three-homer games in one season. The third homer was No. 20 for the season, breaking Ken Griffey Jr.'s record for reaching 20 in a calendar year (May 20, 1997) and tying Mickey Mantle's record for reaching 20 in the fewest games played (41). Also matched a career high with six RBIs.
- Became the first player to hit a home run into Busch Stadium's "Big Mac Land" on 5/22 vs. SF, entitling 47,549 ticket holders to a free Big Mac hamburger at McDonald's restaurants the following day.
- Recorded his third multihomer game of the season by belting Nos. 22 and 23 on 5/23 vs. SF.
- Named N.L. Player of the Week for the week ending 5/24. Batted .423 with eight homers and 15 RBIs in six games.
- Became the first player to hit 25 homers before June 1 and tied a club record for most homers (17) at Busch Stadium with a first-inning solo shot on 5/25 vs. COL.
- Set a Cardinals club record for most home runs (16) in a month on 5/30 at SD, tying Mickey Mantle's 1956 major league record for most home runs in May.
- Established a single-season club record for most homers (18) at Busch Stadium on 6/5 vs. SF, breaking the mark shared by Richie Allen (1970), Ted Simmons (1979), Jack Clark (1987) and Ron Gant (1996). The homer, No. 28 of the season, came in his first at-bat after missing three games with back spasms.
- Reached the 30-homer plateau in the Cardinals' 64th game, sooner than any other player except Babe Ruth (63 games in 1928), on 6/9 at CWS.
- Hit his first homer at Arizona's Bank One Ballpark when he hit his 11th career grand slam, 6/12 against Andy Benes.
- Recorded his first-ever Astrodome homer, 6/17 off Houston's Jose Lima.
- Hit his 33rd homer on 6/18 at HOU (the 11th to reach the Astrodome's upper deck) to break Ken Griffey Jr.'s major league record for most homers before July 1.
- Homered in both of the Cardinals' interleague games at Cleveland, 6/24-25, including a 461-foot homer (No. 35) on 6/25 — the second-longest in Jacobs Field history after his 485-foot blast in April '97 while with Oakland.
- Belted homer No. 37 into the left-field upper deck (472 feet) 6/30 vs. KC, tying Reggie Jackson's 1969 record for most homers before the All-Star break.
- Pounded a dramatic 11th inning, two-run homer into Busch's upper-deck (485 feet) off Houston's Billy Wagner on 7/11, capping a 4-3 win. The homer was his 38th, but his first home run and RBIs of July.
- With a two-homer game 7/12 vs. HOU, reached 40 homers in the fewest at-bats (281) and games (90) in major league history.
- Posted his second two-homer game in less than a week on 7/17 vs. LA, tying Rogers Hornsby's 1922 club record for homers by a righthanded batter (42) while breaking Babe Ruth's and Jimmie Foxx's major league record for most homers before August 1. The first homer traveled an estimated 511 feet.
- Tied Johnny Mize's 1940 club record with his 43rd homer on 7/20 at SD. Also matched a career high with four hits.
- Established a single-season club home run record with No. 44 on 7/26 at COL, ending an 0-for-16 skid at the plate.
- Snapped a 29 at-bat homerless drought and set a single-season club record for most homers at home (26, breaking Mize's 1940 record) with No. 46 on 8/8 vs. the Cubs.
- Hit No. 47 on 8/11 vs. NY, eclipsing Hack Wilson's N.L. record for home runs before Sept. 1 (46 in 1930).
- Drew his 27th intentional walk on 8/12 vs. NY, breaking Stan Musial's 1958 club record for intentional walks in a season.
- On 8/19 at CHI, less than an hour after Sammy Sosa hit his 48th homer to take over the N.L. lead in the fifth inning, McGwire tied the game with his 48th homer in the eighth, then hit a game-winning shot (No. 49) in the 10th to reclaim the lead.

- Hit No. 50 in the first game of an 8/20 doubleheader at NY, becoming the first player to hit at least 50 homers in three successive seasons and the oldest player to hit 50 (34 years, 324 days, compared with Mize's previous mark of 34 years, 256 days). Tied major league records for fewest at-bats (390, which he set in 1996) and games played by team (125, set by Ruth in '21 and matched by Maris in '61) to reach 50 homers.
- Hit No. 51 in the second game of an 8/20 doubleheader at NY, setting a club record for most homers (24) hit on the road in one season.
- Hit No. 52 on 8/22 at PIT, setting major league records for most homers before Sept. 1 and most homers in three consecutive seasons (162), an N.L. record for home runs by a first baseman (breaking Mize's 1947 mark), and a club record for most homers in two consecutive seasons (76).
- Hit No. 53 and walked twice on 8/23 at PIT, breaking Jack Clark's 1987 club record of 136 walks in one season. Also broke his own major league record for most homers by a righthanded batter in consecutive seasons with his 111th since the start of play in 1997 (110 in 1996-97).
- Became the first N.L. player since Ralph Kiner in 1949 and only the third National Leaguer to hit as many as 54 homers in one season, blasting a 509-foot smash off the hitter's backdrop on 8/26 vs. FLA.

HOME RUNS BY POSITION

First Base	66
Pinch Hitter	7
Designated Hitter	6
Third Base	2

- Hit Nos. 56 and 57 on 9/1 at FLA. The second homer breaks Hack Wilson's 1930 N.L. record for most home runs in one season and Ruth's major league record for homers in consecutive seasons (114 in 1927-28).
- Smashed Nos. 58 and 59 in a 9/2 win at FLA, his second-straight two-homer game. The second homer enables him to surpass Jimmie Foxx, Hank Greenberg and his own 1997 total for most homers by a righthanded batter, and Greenberg's major league record for most homers by a first baseman.
- Belted a two-run, first-inning home run off Cincinnati lefty Dennis Reyes on 9/5 at Busch, reaching 60 homers in the team's 142nd game — in 12 fewer games than Ruth (154) and 17 fewer than Maris (159).
- Tied Maris' mark of 61 homers with a first-inning solo homer off the Stadium Club against Cubs righthander Mike Morgan on 9/7. Hits 61 in 19 fewer games than Maris (144-163).
- Connected for historic No. 62 at 8:18 p.m. Central Time on Tuesday, 9/8 vs. CHI. With nobody on, two outs and the Cards trailing, 2-0, in the fourth inning, McGwire lined the first pitch from Cubs righthander Steve Trachsel an estimated 341 feet over the left-field wall — his shortest homer of the year. The ball cleared the wall 15 feet to the right of the foul pole and was retrieved under the stands by grounds crew worker Tim Fomeris. The home run came in the Cardinals' 145th game and McGwire's 451st at-bat. The game was delayed 11 minutes by the ensuing celebration.
- Drew walk No. 152 on 9/12 at HOU, breaking Barry Bonds' 1996 N.L. record.
- Poked his 63rd homer (450th career) and his only pinch homer of '98 (sixth career) in the ninth inning of the first game of a 9/15 doubleheader vs. PIT.
- Pounded his 65th homer in the first inning 9/20 at MIL and had another apparent homer ruled a double due to fan interference. Tied Ruth's 1927 major league record for most homers on the road (32) and broke George Foster's 1977 N.L. mark.
- Kept pace with Sosa on 9/25 by belting his 66th HR, off Montreal's Shayne Bennett at Busch, just 45 minutes after Sosa hit No. 66 at HOU.
- Regained the homer lead with Nos. 67 and 68 on 9/26 vs. MON. No. 67 was his 35th homer at Busch, breaking Ted Kluszewski's 1954 N.L. record for most homers at home.
- In the 9/27 season finale vs. MON, singled in the first inning, hit a solo homer (No. 69) off Mike Thurman in the third, walked in the fifth and blasted No. 70 off Carl Pavano in the seventh — a three-run shot to left in his final at-bat of the year.

1999 – Hit 65 home runs to lead all major leaguers for the fourth straight season...finished two homers in front of Chicago's Sammy Sosa, the only other major leaguer to reach 50 homers, and became the first player since Dale Murphy (in 1984 and '85) to lead the N.L. in home runs for two consecutive seasons...homered in six of his last seven games to conclude the season with 522 career home runs, 10th on baseball's all-time list...led the National League with 147 RBIs, matching a career high established in 1998. Became the first Cardinal to top the league in RBIs since Joe Torre drove in an N.L.-high 137 runs in 1971...hit his 60th homer of the season on 9/26 at CIN, joining Sosa as the only other player to hit 60 or more home runs in consecutive seasons...the home run was McGwire's 400th of the 1990s, making him only the third player to hit as many as 400 in one decade, after Babe Ruth (467 in the 1920s) and Jimmie Foxx (415 in the 1930s)...finished the decade with 405...with a home run in the first game of an 8/22 DH at NY, extended his record for consecutive 50-homer seasons to four...also joined Ruth as the only other player to hit 50 or more homers in four different seasons...concluded the year with an average of 61 homers over the last four seasons, an all-time high...set major league records for home runs over a two-season (135), three-season (193), four-season (245) and five-season (284) span...joined the exclusive 500 career home run club on 8/5 vs. SD, clouting a pair of homers off Andy Ashby: No. 500 was a 451-foot solo blast to center field; No. 501 was a 479-foot solo drive — his longest of 1999 — to left-center...became only the second player, after Harmon Killebrew, to have a multihomer game while reaching 500 homers...reached 500 homers in the fewest at-bats, 5,487, in history...also became the first player to hit his 400th and 500th career homers in back-to-back seasons...hit his 494th career homer as a first baseman on 9/1 vs. FLA, breaking Lou Gehrig's all-time record for first-sackers...finished the season with 507 career homers while in the lineup as a first baseman...posted his 62nd career multihomer game (ninth of the season) on 9/19 vs. HOU, tying Hank Aaron for third on the all-time list...became the first player in big-league history (min. 100 RBIs) to have more RBIs (147) than hits (145) in one season. (Seattle's Jay Buhner came close in 1995 with 121 RBIs and 126 hits.)...hit his 13th career grand slam on 9/17 vs. HOU...the blast was the first of three consecutive home runs the Cardinals hit during a nine-run fourth inning...became the 15th player to hit at least 100 home runs in both the American and National leagues when he connected for a grand slam off Greg Maddux on 5/4 at ATL...tripled on 8/2 vs. SD (off Trevor Hoffman), ending his record span of 4,618 at-bats without a triple, dating to 6/20/88...clubbed a pair of three-run homers on 7/16 vs. CWS to equal a career high with six RBIs...became just the third player (after Willie Stargell, twice, and Mike Piazza) to hit a ball out of Dodger Stadium with a 484-foot blast over the left-center field pavilion on 5/22.

ADDITIONAL 1999 MILESTONES & HIGHLIGHTS:

- Homered on Opening Day for the second straight season, connecting off the Brewers' David Weathers on 4/5.
- Hit his 55th career homer at Busch Stadium on 5/12 vs. PHI, tying George Hendrick for third on the all-time Busch Stadium home run list.
- Blasted a 427-foot homer into Big Mac Land on 5/27 off the Giants' Mark Gardner; it marked the second straight year he homered into Big Mac Land, both off Gardner.
- Scored his 1,000th career run with a solo homer off Russ Ortiz on 7/10 at SF.
- Hit his first career homer at Atlanta's Turner Field on 5/4, his first regular-season homer at Dodger Stadium on 5/22 and his first at Cincinnati's Cinergy Field on 7/22, increasing the number of ballparks he's homered in to 34.
- Voted the starting first baseman on the N.L. All-Star team for the second consecutive season, his 11th career All-Star selection and fifth in a row.
- Staged an eye-popping extravaganza during the Home Run Derby festivities before the All-Star Game; clubbed 13 first-round homers, eclipsing Cal Ripken's one-round record from 1991. McGwire's home runs traveled a combined 5,692 feet, including a 488-foot blast high over Fenway Park's Green Monster to conclude the first round.
- Averaged one home run every 6.3 at-bats (37 HR/232 ABs) following the All-Star break.
- Homered in four straight games, 7/30-8/2, a club high he shared with Craig Paquette.
- Set an N.L. record and tied a major league mark for most home runs (16) in July. Earned N.L. Player of the Month honors with a .295 average, 16 homers and 30 RBIs.
- Tied Sosa for the N.L. home run lead with his 61st homer on 9/27 at CIN. Took the lead on 9/29 vs. SD by homering in both games of a doubleheader (Nos. 62 and 63). It was McGwire's first time on top since 8/18, when he led 48 homers to 47.
- Blasted his final home run, No. 65, in a rain-shortened season finale on 10/3 vs. CHI — his first homer on a 3-0 count as a Cardinal.
- Increased his Busch Stadium career totals to 88 homers and 191 RBIs in 182 games (one homer every 6.9 at-bats).
- Finished second on the team in games played with 153. Leads the team over the last two seasons with 308 games.
- Despite another record-setting performance, finished fifth in N.L. Most Valuable Player voting and was left off the postseason All-Star and Silver Slugger teams.
- In an announcement at the World Series, was named to baseball's All-Century Team, joining Cal Ripken Jr., Roger Clemens and Ken Griffey Jr. as the only active players to receive such honors.
- Selected as St. Louis Baseball Man of the Year for second straight season by St. Louis BBWAA Chapter; was also named to Cardinals All Half-Century team that was selected by St. Louis BBWAA.
- On 11/18, he and the Cardinals agreed to exercise his mutually held option for the 2001 season.

2000 – After spending the previous two seasons in a constant spotlight, back and knee injuries limited the game's most celebrated slugger to less than a half season of play as a regular...he started just 70 games at first base, the last coming on 7/6 vs. CIN...early season back spasms kept him out of the lineup for nine of the team's first 15 games, including the season opener...was batting .303 with 30 HRs and 69 RBIs at the time of his final first base start on 7/6...left that game after three innings when right knee discomfort would not allow him to continue...at the time of his knee injury, Mark was leading the majors in walks with 75 (11 intentional) and his combined on-base (.483 - 2nd in NL) + slugging pct. (.749 - 1st) was tops in the majors at 1.232.

29 points ahead of the Rockies' Todd Helton (1.203)...he was also leading the N.L. in both AB/HR ratio (7.3) and AB/RBI ratio (3.2)...was voted starting N.L. first baseman for the All-Star game, his eighth start and 12th selection overall, but was forced to miss the Mid-Summer Classic due to knee injury and was replaced on the roster by teammate Edgar Renteria...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 7/13, retroactive to 7/7, due to patella tendinitis in his right knee...he would remain on the DL until 9/8, and he never returned as a regular as injury limited him to just one at-bat a game...returned to action on 9/8 at MIL, appearing in each of the three games of that weekend series as the team's starting 2B...he never took his place in the field once he completed his first inning at-bats...made a total of five "starts" on that roadtip, four as a second baseman, one in left field and one as a shortstop...homered (#31) on 9/11 at PIT for the first time since 7/1 with a drive to dead CF...hit his seventh career pinch-HR (#32) in 9/15 win over CHI with a go-ahead solo blast in the 8th inning of 3-2 win...it was his 32nd and final HR of the season...batted .333 (5-for-15) with two HRs, three HBPs and one walk (intentional) following his return from the DL...he surpassed the 30 HR mark for the 11th time in his career, doing so for the fifth straight season...finished the year ranked 7th on baseball's all-time HR list (554), just nine back of Reggie Jackson (6th- 563)...passed Jimmie Foxx (10th-534), Mickey Mantle (9th-536) and Mike Schmidt (8th-548) on baseball's all-time HR list during the 2000 season...became the majors' first player to hit 30 HRs prior to the All-Star break in four different seasons when he homered on 7/1 vs. HOU...became Busch Stadium all-time HR leader (105) on 6/30, passing Ray Lankford...had a season best 10-game hitting streak (.343, 5 HRs) snapped on 6/27 at CIN...homered for a third-straight game on 6/24 vs. LA, belting career HR #550 while taking over the majors HR lead with 28 and tying Lankford (103) for the Busch Stadium all-time mark...joined Mike Piazza on 6/12 as the only visiting players to have HRed twice into the loge level at San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium...homered in record 37th ballpark on 6/11 at DET, passing Fred McGriff on all-time list...also tied Jim Bottomley (181) for fifth on the Cardinals all-time HR list...had pair of singles on 6/10 at DET & stole his12th career base (1st since 8/20/98)...cracked HR #21 on 5/31 at ARI giving Cards an NL-record 100 HRs in 52 games...that HR ended his longest (20 AB's) dry spell of the season...hit his 20th HR in his 35th game played and became the fastest to 20 HR, bettering both his own (1998) and Mickey Mantle's (1956) prior mark of 41 games...Mark's 32 homers for the year set a new standard for a player with fewer than 100 games played in a season...Kevin Mitchell (30 HR's in 95 games in 1994) was the prior record holder...posted fifth career three-HR game on 5/18 at PHI, his 64th career multi-HR game...he finished the game with a career-high seven RBIs...had a pair of HRs on 5/14 vs. LA, the second traveling an estimated 487 feet...pounded a 473-foot HR (#11) to the red seats on 5/5 at CIN, the longest HR on record at Cinergy/Riverfront Stadium...underwent surgery, performed by Dr. George Paletta, following the playoffs and had the diseased portion of his right patella tendon removed. 2000 POSTSEASON – Although limited to pinch-hitting duty, still made his presence known...belted a pinch-HR off Mike Remlinger in Game 2 of Division Seres versus ATL...was 0-for-2 with a walk in NLCS versus NY Mets...he appeared in six of the Cardinals eight postseason games.

MISC: Graduated from Damien High School (Laverne, Calif.) in 1981...attended the University of Southern California for three years...holds the Pac-10 Conference record for most homers in a single season (32)...named The Sporting News' 1984 College Player of the Year; also a member of its All-America team...played for the 1984 U.S. Olympic team...he is the only player to have had his Team USA uniform number (41) retired...was named to USA Baseball All-Century team which was announced in 1999 and was voted baseball's Player of the Decade by the ESPY's...his brother, Dan, was a quarterback for the Miami Dolphins and Seattle Seahawks; he was Seattle's first pick in the 1991 NFL draft...after the 1998 season, made guest TV appearances on The Late Show with David Letterman, The Today Show, the Rosie O'Donnell Show, Mad About You and The Simpsons (character voice)...founded the Mark McGwire Foundation for Children, through which he contributes $1 million annually to agencies that work with child-abuse victims in St. Louis and Southern California...he and his foundation were the cover subject of a special Christmas issue of USA Today Baseball Weekly in December of 2000...teamed with Starbucks Coffee to contribute $5,000 per homer in 1999 to a literacy program in the city in which he homered...was presented the prestigious Lou Gerhig Award in September, 2000...is single and resides in Long Beach, Calif...has one son, Matthew.

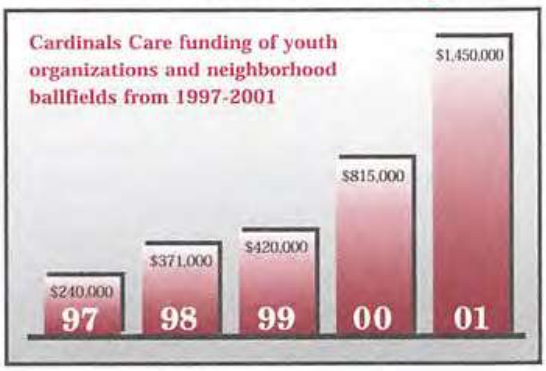
CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The St. Louis Cardinals have a century-long history of serving the community. Few cities enjoy such a positive impact from their ball club as St. Louis. The next few pages celebrate the numerous community outreach programs, including Cardinals Care, the team's community foundation.

Supporting children is the focus of so much of what the Cardinals do in the community. Cardinals players, the front office, management and ownership are committed to making a positive impact on kids in the neighborhoods and communities around us.

A one million dollar check is presented to the Backstoppers by (L-R): Jack Buck, Lou Brock, Cardinals' shareholder David Pratt, Mark McGwire, Stan Musial, Bob Gibson and Ozzie Smith. A limited edition print commissioned by Jack Buck and autographed by each player was sold with Cardinals owner, David Pratt, matching the proceeds. The check for $1 Million was presented to the Backstoppers, whose mission is to support the children and families of police officers and firefighters who lost their lives in the line of duty.

Cardinals Care Grant Recipients



Cardinals Care is the team's community foundation supporting area kids. It is a 501 (c) (3) that was established by the Cardinals ownership group in 1997. Above right, Bud Smith and Placido Polanco present a check to the kids of the North St. Louis children's center, Grace Hill.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In an effort to help revitalize some of St. Louis' neighborhoods, Cardinals Care has initiated the Ballfield Program to give St. Louis youths the chance to play ball on a regulation diamond.

Throughout the year, many Cardinals serve as spokesmen for a variety of causes. Above, Fernando Viña and Mark McGwire promote the Diversity Awareness Partnership.

SAY NO TO DRUGS! STAY IN SCHOOL! PARTICIPATE IN SPORTS! These are the three key messages that more than a quarter-million students have heard from former Redbirds Joe Cunningham and Al Hrabosky and team mascot Fredbird as part of the Cardinals School Program. The traveling, no-cost program entertains students and reminds them of life's important goals.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Throughout the season several Cardinals provide groups of kids with an outing at Busch Stadium. Kids receive tickets to the game, Cardinals dollars to buy dinner, T-shirts and in some cases get to watch batting practice from the field and meet with the Cardinal who sponsored their outing. Every homestand Manager Tony La Russa talks with kids as part of Tony's Troops.

Jim Edmonds, below, signs for members of the Cardinals Crew Kids' Club, the only official fan club for kids, open to everyone 15 and under. Each year members get tickets to Cardinals games, a private members-only autograph party, special merchandise, chances to win memorabilia from the club's featured player and more!

2001 NL Rookie of the Year, Albert Pujols (above) signs autographs at the annual Cardinals Care Winter Warm-Up. At this weekend-long baseball festival, fans and families can get autographs, interact with team management and purchase game-used memorabilia to name just a few of the exciting events surrounding the Warm-Up.

Some excited Boy Scouts take in a game as part of the Cardinals free ticket programs.

ANTHONY (TONY) LA RUSSA JR. (10)
MANAGER

Tony La Russa enters his seventh season at the Cardinals' helm as the career leader in wins (1,827) among active managers and No. 11 on the all-time major league list. Only eight other managers — and just three in the last 50 years — have skippered the Cardinals for more than four seasons. Tony has guided the Cardinals to postseason appearances each of the past two seasons, the first time since 1967-68 that the ballclub has advanced to postseason play in back-to-back years. He guided the team to an N.L.-leading 93 wins and a third N.L. Central title last year, and in 2000 he managed the club to 95 wins, the most in his six seasons at the Redbirds helm. He and Leo Durocher are the only managers in major league history to have 500 or more wins with three different teams.

La Russa was hired by the Cardinals on October 23, 1995, after managing for 17 years in the American League with Oakland and Chicago. In his first N.L. season, La Russa guided the Cardinals to the 1996 Central Division title and was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press.

Regarded by his peers as one of the game's top managers, La Russa's honors include Manager of the Year recognition in four seasons, two N.L. Central Division titles, five A.L. Western Division titles, three A.L. pennants and one World Series championship.

La Russa began his professional managing career in 1978 with Knoxville of the Class- AA Southern League before taking his first major league managing job on August 2, 1979, with the Chicago White Sox.

In seven-plus seasons (1979-86) with the White Sox, La Russa quickly established his managerial acumen. In 1983, he guided Chicago to the A.L. West title and the best record in the major leagues, 99-63. He was rewarded with Manager of the Year accolades from The Sporting News, the Associated Press and the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

In 1984, La Russa's White Sox were tied for first place at the All-Star break before finishing fifth with a 74-88 record. He was relieved of his duties on June 19, 1986, and took over as the Oakland manager on July 7.

In just his second full year with the A's, La Russa managed the club to an A.L. West-record 104 wins, the A.L. pennant and into the 1988 World Series. He again earned Manager of the Year honors from the BBWAA and The Sporting News. For three straight years, 1988-90, the A's led the major leagues in victories, only the 11th time in history that a team had accomplished such a feat. During that span, La Russa's A's became the first team to win three consecutive A.L. pennants since the 1976-78 New York Yankees.

In 1989, La Russa guided the Athletics to their fourth World Championship since the club moved to Oakland, sweeping the Giants in four straight games during the earthquake-interrupted Bay Bridge Series.

On July 14, 1991, LaRussa became the 40th manager in major league history to win 1,000 career games. He earned a third Manager of the Year award in 1992 after steering the A's to their fourth A.L. West title in five years. He is Oakland's all-time leader in games managed (1,471) and victories (798).

The former infielder signed his first pro contract with the Kansas City Athletics on the night he graduated from high school in 1962. He made his major league debut with Kansas City just one year later. La Russa didn't return to the majors again until 1968, this time with the A's of Oakland. He went on to play parts of four seasons in Oakland before concluding his big-league playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs. Overall, his professional career spanned 16 seasons.

LaRussa, the 48th manager in Cardinals history, actually was a member of the organization once previously, when he was a player-coach for the Cardinals' Triple-A New Orleans affiliate in 1977.

A graduate of Florida State University's School of Law in 1978, La Russa passed the bar exam in December 1979, making him one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history. The other four are Monte Ward (New York Giants, Brooklyn and Providence, late 1800s), Hughie Jennings (Detroit, 1907-20, New York Giants, 1924), Miller Huggins (St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees, 1913-29) and Branch Rickey (St. Louis Browns, 1913-15, St. Louis Cardinals, 1919-25). All of La Russa's predecessors are in the Hall of Fame.

La Russa, 57, makes his off-season home in Danville, Calif., with his wife, Elaine, and their two daughters, Bianca Tai (9/14/79) and Devon Kai (8/17/82). La Russa was born 10/4/44 in Tampa, Fla., and graduated from Jefferson High School in Tampa. He also holds a degree in industrial management from The University of South Florida in Tampa. He is the founder and chairperson of Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation (ARF) and is an active member in the Cardinals' community foundation, Cardinals Care.

DAVID (DAVE) EDWIN DUNCAN (18)

PITCHING COACH

Duncan, 56, enters his seventh season as the Cardinals' pitching coach after being appointed to the post on October 23, 1995. In each of his first two seasons, the pitching staff set club records for strikeouts and ranked in the top six in the league in ERA. The Cardinals pitching staff ranked 3rd in ERA last season.

Before joining the Cardinals, Duncan had been Oakland's pitching coach since July 1986, when he joined the A's along with manager Tony La Russa. Under Duncan's guidance, the Oakland staff ranked as one of the best in baseball, leading the American League in ERA from 1988 through 1990. In 1990, the A's had the lowest earned-run average in the majors, becoming just the second A.L. staff to do so since the inception of the DH rule in 1973.

Duncan began his coaching career in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians. In 1982, he was hired as Seattle's pitching coach, and the Mariners responded by leading the A.L. in strikeouts and finishing second in saves and shutouts. He left the Mariners in 1983 to join La Russa and the Chicago White Sox.

A former catcher, Duncan signed with the Kansas City A's in 1963 and made his major league debut in 1964. When the A's moved to Oakland, Duncan moved with them and appeared in both the 1971 and 1972 A.L. Championship Series and the 1972 World Series. Duncan concluded his playing career with two-year stints in both Cleveland (1973-74) and Baltimore (1975-76).

During his playing and coaching career, Duncan has been associated with six Cy Young Award winners. He coached Bob Welch, Dennis Eckersley and LaMarr Hoyt, and caught Vide Blue and Jim Hunter in Oakland, and Jim Palmer in Baltimore when all six pitchers won their awards.

Duncan and his wife, Jeanine, have two sons, Christopher (drafted by the Cardinals as a supplemental first-round pick in the June 1999 amateur draft) and David (drafted by the New York Yankees in June 2001 draft), and make their off-season home in Tucson, Ariz.

MARTIN (MARTY) LEE MASON (38)

BULLPEN COACH

Mason, 44, enters his third season as bullpen coach after working the previous three years as the organization's Triple-A pitching coach. He begins his 17th year as a coach in the system, dating back to his first assignment at St. Petersburg in 1986. After two seasons there, Mason coached at Savannah in 1988, returned to St. Petersburg in 1989, then moved to Arkansas from 1990-96.

A righthanded pitcher originally signed by the New York Yankees in 1980, Mason was acquired by the Cardinals in December 1982 after playing on loan that season for the club's Springfield affiliate. While in the Yankees' system, he led the South Atlantic League with an .846 winning percentage in 1981, when he was 11-2 at Greensboro. At the Cardinals' Springfield affiliate in '83, Mason ranked second in the Midwest League with 54 appearances and third in games finished, with 46. Mason also pitched for Arkansas and St. Petersburg. He retired after four games as a player-coach at St. Petersburg in 1986.

Mason was born April 4, 1958, in Central City, Ky. He attended Central Alabama Academy from 1975 to 1976 and Western Kentucky University from 1977 to 1980. He married the former Lynn Bradford on Feb. 22, 1986. The couple have two daughters, Brandy Leigh and Lindsey. Mason enjoys bass fishing in his spare time.

DAVID (DAVE) LAWRENCE McKAY (39)

FIRST-BASE COACH

McKay, 51, begins his seventh season as the Cardinals' first-base coach and his 17th season on Tony La Russa's coaching staff. McKay was La Russa's first-base coach in Oakland from 1989-95 and handled bullpen and bench coach duties for the A's beginning in 1984. In all, McKay spent 16 years as a player or coach in the Oakland system.

McKay was signed by the Minnesota Twins in 1971 and spent four seasons in the minor leagues. He broke into the majors in a big way, homering off Detroit's Vern Ruhle in his first big-league at-bat on Aug. 22, 1975. McKay also hit safely in 21 of his first 22 major league games.

After the 1976 season, the Twins lost McKay in the expansion draft to Toronto, where McKay was the starting third baseman in the first game in Blue Jays franchise history. After splitting time between Toronto and Syracuse in 1979, McKay signed with the A's in 1980. He played for Oakland through 1982, helping the A's to the 1981 Western Division crown by batting .288 in the second half and belting a home run in the divisional playoff series against Kansas City. He spent the 1983 season in the minor leagues as a player-coach.

McKay earned a physical education degree from Columbia Basin Junior College in Pasco, Wash., and attended Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. Born in Vancouver, B.C., McKay was inducted into the Canadian National Baseball Hall of Fame last June. He and his wife, Lene, who is from Denmark, make their home in Scottsdale, Ariz., with their son, Cody, who is a catcher in the Oakland Athletics organization.

JOSE MANUEL OQUENDO (11)

THIRD-BASE COACH

Oquendo begins his third season as the Cardinals' third-base coach. After joining the club's major league staff in 1999 as bench coach. He was an instructor in the Cardinals' farm system, working as a field instructor in 1997 before managing the Redbirds' New Jersey affiliate to a 34-41 finish in '98.

Oquendo's professional playing career spanned 17 seasons and included big-league duty with the New York Mets (1983-84) and Cardinals (1986-95). Dubbed the "Secret Weapon" during his 10 seasons with the Redbirds, Oquendo established single-season major league records for the highest fielding percentage (.996) and fewest errors by a second baseman (three) in 1990. He also led the league in fielding in 1989 and compiled a .992 fielding average at second base for his career.

Oquendo batted .286 for the Cardinals' 1987 pennant-winning club and hit a career-high .291 in 1989 while playing in a league-high 163 games. In 1988, Oquendo became the first National League player since 1918 to play all nine positions in one season.

MITCHELL OTIS PAGE (12)

HITTING COACH

Page is entering his first full season as the Cardinals major league hitting coach. He joined the team's major league coaching staff following the All-Star break last year after having served for more then two years as the Cardinals' minor league hitting coordinator. He joined the organization in 1998 as the hitting coach at Class-AAA Memphis. Before coming to the Cardinals, Page was the Kansas City Royals' first-base coach for the 1995-97 seasons and Oakland's Triple-A hitting instructor and first-base coach, at Tacoma, for the 1992-94 seasons.

As a player, Page enjoyed an eight-season big-league career with Oakland (1977-83) and Pittsburgh (1984). He was originally drafted by the Pirates in the third round of the June 1973 amateur draft but was sent to Oakland in a nine-player trade in March 1977. That year, he batted .307, hit 21 homers, drove in 75 runs and stole 42 bases — all career-best totals — and was named The Sporting News' A.L. Rookie of the Year.

In 1979, Page was a teammate of rookie Rickey Henderson, who in 2001 surpassed Ty Cobb's all-time record of 2,245 runs scored. On June 27, 1979, while playing against Kansas City, Page stroked a first-inning single off Steve Busby to drive home Henderson from second base with the rookie's first career major league run.

Page was born October 15, 1951, in Compton, Calif., and has one son, Kyle. He resides in Oakland.

JOSEPH (JOE) PAUL PETTINI (24)

BENCH COACH

Pettini begins his first season as the Cardinals bench coach. He served the previous five seasons as the organization's minor league field coordinator. He managed eight seasons in the system, most recently at Class-AAA Louisville, where he guided the Redbirds to the 1995 American Association championship. Overall, he was 475-569 at the helm of the Cardinals' farm affiliates.

The 47-year-old Pettini began his managerial career in 1989 with Hamilton, Ontario. He had stops at St. Petersburg in 1990 (60-74) and at Arkansas for the 1991 to '93 seasons (175-229).

Pettini's playing career began in 1977, when he signed with the Montreal Expos as a nondrafted free agent. In 1980, he was traded to the San Francisco Giants, where he played for four seasons. He was signed by Louisville in 1984 and played with the Redbirds for three seasons.

Pettini was born January 26, 1955, in Wheeling, W.V., and graduated from Brooke High School in Wellsburg, W.V., in 1973. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Mercer University in Macon, Ga. Pettini and his wife Barbara were married on November 11, 1981. The couple have two children: Amy Michele (2-17-83) and Joseph James (6-15-87). Pettini enjoys bass fishing, hunting and golfing.

LOUIS (LOU) CLARK BROCK (20)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Lou Brock, named as a special instructor on December 9, 1994, assists with base-running and outfield instruction during spring training and periodically throughout the season. He served as a base-running consultant for Montreal in 1993, Los Angeles in 1988 and Minnesota in 1987; all three clubs increased their stolen base totals over the previous season.

Brock, 62, is the National League's all-time leader with 938 stolen bases, including an N.L.-record 118 thefts in 1974. He established a major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals (1965-76) and led the league in steals eight times. He was the first player to steal at least 50 bases and hit 20 homers in the same season, posting a 21-homer, 52-steal campaign in 1967. His 3,023 hits rank 21st on the all-time list.

While teammate Bob Gibson served as the pitching linchpin in the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series, Brock was the club's offensive catalyst. He established major league records for highest career batting average (.391) and most stolen bases in a single Series (seven, in both 1967 and 1968).

In 1985, Brock was inducted into the Hall of Fame. His uniform No. 20 is one of 10 that have been retired by the Cardinals. Since the end of his playing career, Brock has been involved in many marketing and promotional ventures. He is the founder and president of Brockworld Products. He also worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984.

ROBERT (BOB) GIBSON (45)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Bob Gibson, who earned distinction as one of baseball's fiercest competitors and most dominating pitchers of all time as a Cardinal from 1959 to 1975, is entering his seventh season as Cardinals special instructor.

Gibson, 66, served as the Cardinals' bullpen coach in 1995. He formerly was a pitching coach under Joe Torre for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84).

A winner of the N.L. Cy Young Award in 1968 and 1970, Gibson also earned league MVP honors in 1968, when he set a major league record for lowest ERA (1.12) for a pitcher with 300 or more innings. That June, he pitched five shutouts, tying an N.L. record for one month.

In World Series competition, few players compared to Gibson. He pitched a record eight consecutive complete games over the course of the 1964, 1967 and 1968 Series, winning seven games. His 35 strikeouts in the 1968 Series still stand as a record, as does his single-game mark of 17 strikeouts, established in the Series opener. He also holds the career mark for most games with 10 or more strikeouts (five).

Gibson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981. His career totals include a team-record 251 victories and 3,117 strikeouts. He fanned more than 200 batters nine times, won nine Gold Gloves and was a nine-time N.L. All-Star. His uniform No. 45 is one of 10 retired by the Cardinals.

Gibson recently authored his autobiography, "Stranger To The Game." He and his wife, Wendy, make their home in Bellevue, Neb.

ALBERT FRED (RED) SCHOENDIENST (2)

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Schoendienst has been involved in professional baseball for the past 60 seasons. He coached in St. Louis from 1961-64 under Manager Johnny Keane and in 1965 began a 12-year stint as Cardinals manager, the longest tenure in club history. He managed the Cardinals to a World Series championship in 1967 and a National League pennant in 1968. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds in 1980 and 1990, and coached for the Oakland A's in 1977 and '78.

As a player, Schoendienst appeared with the Cardinals in 15 seasons, mostly as their second baseman. He played in three World Series: in 1946 with the Cardinals and in 1957 and 1958 with Milwaukee. He was chosen to 10 N.L. All-Star Game squads, and in 1950 cracked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning. He also managed the National League All-Stars to victories in 1968 and 1969.

In 1989, Schoendienst was paid baseball's ultimate honor with his induction into the Hall of Fame. During his career, he collected 2,449 hits, including a league-high 200 in 1957, batted .289, and tied or led the league in fielding at his position seven times. His uniform No. 2 was retired by the Cardinals in 1996.

Schoendienst was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame on November 7, 1987. During his playing days, he also participated with the Budweiser national bowling team.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, Ill., and was married to the late Mary Schoendienst for 53 years (Sept. 20, 1947). They had four children, all of whom are married: Colleen (6/23/51), Cathleen (10/16/52), Eileen (3/19/57) and Kevin (11/3/58).

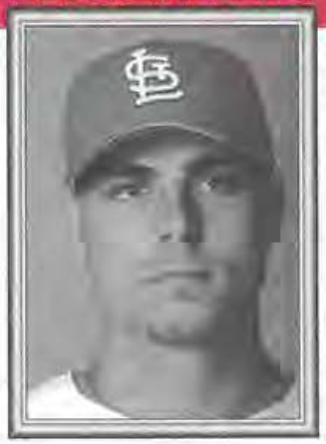
Injury Rehabilitation Assignment

NOTES

PLAYER PROFILE



RICK ANKIEL

PITCHER

66

BORN: 7/19/79 at Fort Pierce, Florida

OPENING DAY AGE: 22 (Turns 23 on July 19) M.L. SERVICE: 1.083

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002.

2001 SEASON:

- Was brought along slowly in spring training as he tried to regain the form he displayed during his rookie campaign.
- He began the season on the big league roster and recorded his lone win in his first start, 4/8 at ARI, when he bested Randy Johnson and the D-Backs in a 9-4 win. He fanned eight in 5.0 IP and helped the Cardinals to a sweep of the 3-game series at Bank One Ballpark.
- After struggling in his final five starts with the Cardinals, Rick was optioned to Memphis (AAA) on 5/11.
- Made just three starts for the Memphis club, walking 17 batters in just 4.1 IP. He made his first start for Memphis on 5/15, walking six while throwing four wild pitches.
- He failed to get past the first inning his final two starts for Memphis and in his third and final start, 5/24 vs. Nashville, he set Pacific Coast League records for wild pitches (5) and walks (6) in a single inning.
- After a three week stay in extended spring training, Rick reported to Johnson City (R) in June and turned his season around by enjoying success both on the mound and at the plate.
- He led the Appalachian League with a 1.33 ERA in 14 starts, fanning a league-leading 158 batters in 87.1 innings pitched while walking only 18. He also made a run at the Appy League home run title, belting 10 round-trippers as a part-time designated hitter.
- He was tabbed the Appalachian League Pitcher of the Year and was also named to the league's postseason All-Star team as both a pitcher and designated hitter.
- He hit a pair of HR's in his first game as a DH on 6/21 vs. Bristol.
- He fanned 21 batters during his first two starts for Johnson City in just 10 innings pitched.
- Fanned 15 batters in 6.0 IP vs. Kingsport on 7/6, striking out nine straight batters at one point.
- Posted his fourth straight double-digit strikeout contest on 7/21 vs. Pulaski, collecting 17 K's in his 7.0 IP.
- Ran his streak of double-digit strikeout games to six in a 4-2 win vs. Martinsville on 7/31, fanning 14.
- He homered in four straight games between 8/1 and 8/8, going 8-for-16 with five HR's and 13 RBIs during that stretch.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1997 - Was the 72nd overall pick in the June amateur draft and signed a minor league contract on 8/28...was a member of the USA Junior National Team, which captured the bronze medal at the International Baseball Association's World Junior Championship...named to the All-Tournament team as a lefthanded starter...tossed a two-hit shutout against South Korea in the quarter-final round, fanning 15 batters and walking just two...finished the tournament with a 3-0 record in five starts, including one complete game, struck out 48 and walked 12 in 29.2 innings; allowed only six earned runs (1.82 ERA), and opponents batted just .189 against him...also played 13 games in the outfield; batted .387 (24-62) with three home runs, 16 RBIs and a .955 fielding average in the tournament.

1998 - Split his first professional season between Class-A Peoria and advanced Class-A Prince William, posting a combined 12-6 record, 2.63 earned-run average and 222 strikeouts in 161 innings...was honored as the Cardinals' Minor League Pitcher of the Year after twice receiving organization Pitcher of the Month honors, in May and June...honored as the Carolina League's Pitcher of the Year and as a postseason league All-Star, named to Howe Sports' Minor League All-Star team and All-Teenager team, and selected to Baseball America's Minor League All-Star team and Class-A All-Star team...also voted by Baseball America as the best pitching prospect in both the Carolina and Midwest leagues, and named No. 18 on the publication's list of top 100 prospects (one of two Class-A minor leaguers to make the top 20)...among all minor league pitchers in 1998, Rick ranked first in strikeouts...among all minor league starting pitchers, he ranked second in strikeouts per nine innings (12.41) and third by limiting opponents to a .191 batting average...led the Carolina League in strikeouts per nine innings (12.93), ranked second in strikeouts (a Prince William-record 181) and opponents' batting average (.205), and finished fourth in ERA (2.79)...started the year with Peoria in the Midwest League after participating in the Cardinals' major league spring camp...in seven starts at Peoria, was a perfect 3-0 with a 2.06 ERA, allowing just 15 hits in 35 innings...won his pro debut on 4/10 vs. Kane County, allowing just one hit in five scoreless innings as the Chiefs prevailed, 8-3...pitched back-to-back hitless starts on 5/1 and 5/6, stretching his hitless innings streak that began 4/26 vs. Burlington to 15.2 IP...on 5/1 vs. Quad City, fanned seven in six hitless innings of a 7-1 win; on 5/6 at Fort Wayne, retired the first 11 batters en route to 6.2 no-hit innings, fanning 10...pitched a minor league-best 17.2 consecutive hitless innings, with the streak ending 5/11 vs. Lansing with a third-inning leadoff single, though he allowed only one other hit in seven innings, winning 7-1...made his Carolina League debut on 5/22, striking out seven in 5.2 IP; lost, 3-0, though he pitched five scoreless innings before surrendering a pair of runs in the sixth...gained his first win with the Cannons on 6/1, allowing just one hit (a fifth-inning single) in seven scoreless innings; struck out 11 as Prince William beat Winston-Salem, 7-0...became the first pitcher in the minors in '98 to strike out 10 or more batters in three-straight games (6/1- 6/11) by fanning 12 in a 6-2 win at Salem on 6/11; struck out seven of the first eight batters he faced and nine of the first 12...recorded his fourth double-digit strikeout game in seven Carolina League starts by striking out 12 batters over seven innings in a 5-4 win over Kinston on 6/21...posted his second streak of three consecutive games with 10 or more Ks (6/21-7/2)...pitched seven scoreless innings, allowing one hit, in a 1-0 win at Lynchburg on 8/4...earned Midwest League Pitcher of the Week honors 5/3-9 for Peoria and Carolina League honors 5/28-6/3 for Prince William.

1999 - Considered by many to be baseball's top pitching prospect, he did nothing in his second professional season to dismiss such high regard...was tabbed Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Year for the second consecutive season; also received Minor League Player of the Year selections from USA Today, Baseball America and Howe Sports, and was named Minor League Pitcher of the Year by USA Today Baseball Weekly...was also named to Topps Class-AA All-Star team...combined for a 13-3 won-loss mark and 2.35 ERA during his minor league stops with Arkansas (AA) and Memphis (AAA); led the Cardinals farm system in victories (tie, with Larry Luebbers), strikeouts (194), strikeouts per nine innings (12.7) and starter's ERA...he was honored as Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Month in both April and May...he and teammate Adam Kennedy were both tabbed for the Future Stars game which took place at Boston's Fenway Park in July...began the season at Arkansas of the Texas League where he was nearly unhittable...in eight starts for the Travelers, Rick was a perfect 6-0 with a league-leading 0.91 ERA...fanned 75 batters in 49.1 IP and walked just 16...was 3-0, 0.46 ERA in three May starts and was brilliant in his five starts at Ray Winder Field, going 4-0, 0.29 ERA (31.0 IP/ 1 ER)...struck out 10 or more in five of his starts for Arkansas, including 12 in a two-hit complete game shutout vs. Shreveport on 4/24...allowed just one hit in 7.0 IP on 5/16 vs. Midland, his final start before promotion to Memphis...batted .400 (4-for-10) with a HR at Arkansas...made his first Triple-A start on 5/21 at Salt Lake, posting a win with 5.1 IP; completed his 16-game stint at Memphis with a 7-3 mark and a 3.16 ERA...he whiffed 14 in 6.0 IP on 6/20 vs. Iowa and fanned 13 in six innings work vs. Tucson on 5/26...made his final start for the Redbirds vs. Oklahoma on 8/16, when he tossed six scoreless innings, allowing just one hit and striking out nine...earned promotion to the majors on 8/23, drawing the starting assignment in the Cards' series opener with MON at Olympic Stadium; allowed three runs in 5.0 IP, taking a no-decision in the 11-7 defeat...his Busch Stadium debut came vs. ATL on 8/29, whenhe had another no-decision, allowing two runs on five hits in six innings pitched; left with game tied 2-2, but the Braves went on to win, 4-3, in 12 innings...struck out nine in 9/8 start at ATL; suffered his first major league loss as well, losing 5-4 to the Braves...made a total of five starts for the Cardinals, going 0-1 with a 3.86 ERA...his final four appearances came in relief...did not allow a run, and only two hits, in 5.0 IP out of the bullpen...struck out six in 2.0 innings of relief vs. SD in nightcap of 9/29 twinbill...was credited with his first professional save in season finale vs. Cubs; worked out of a bases loaded no-out jam to preserve 9-5 win in rain-shortened contest on 10/3...finished the year 0-1 with a 3.27 ERA in nine games (five starts) for the Cardinals...struck out 39 and walked just 14 in his 33.0 IP...held opposing batters to a .215 average, including a .133 mark as a reliever...collected his first major league hit with a single off the Brewers' Scott Karl on 9/14 at Busch Stadium.

2000 - Rookie lefthander posted a fine season in his first full big-league campaign...finished second in National League Rookie of the Year balloting after going 11-7 with a 3.50 ERA and 194 strikeouts in 175.0 innings pitched (31 games)...earned a host of postseason awards, including being named The Sporting News Rookie Pitcher of the Year...was named the Cardinals' Rookie of the Year by the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America...also claimed recognition on the Baseball Digest Rookie All-Star Team...ranked among N.L. leaders in strikeouts (7th-194), strikeouts per nine innings pitched (2nd-10.0), opponents batting average (3rd-.219), ERA (8th-3.50), walks (9th-90) and wild pitches (5th-12)...his 194 strikeouts established a Cardinals rookie record, besting Dizzy Dean's 1932 record of 191...paced all major league rookies in winning percentage (.611), ERA, starts (30), innings pitched, strikeouts and opponents batting average...was solid at home, posting a 7-2 record and a 3.36 ERA in 18 games (17 starts) at Busch Stadium...at the plate batted .250 with two home runs and nine RBIs...had three pinch-hit appearances (struck out all three times)...posted a career-best 16-inning scoreless streak from 4/14 to 5/2...the Cards posted wins in nine of his 10 starts after 8/7...the only blemish was 9/8 at Milwaukee, when the Brewers plated four runs in the 9th-inning of a 6-5 defeat...claimed a 1.97 ERA (45.2 IP/ 10 ER) in his last seven starts and struck out 54 while allowing just 16 walks and 31 hits...went 3-0 with a 1.65 ERA, 40 strikeouts and 11 walks in five September starts...earned first major league win in his 4/9 start vs. MIL...fanned 10 batters in his 6.0 IP, allowing just three hits...singled in the fifth inning, hitting safely for the second time in three starts...posted a 14-1 win vs. SD on 4/20...tossed five shutout innings and allowed just two hits...struck out four, but walked a career-high seven batters...collected three base hits, including his first career home run (off Vicente Palacios)...earned his third win with seven shutout innings against MIL on 4/26...allowed just three hits and homered (off Steve Woodard) for the second straight game...went without a decision in 5/7 outing at CIN...had four wild pitches, including three in the third inning, in a 9-7 loss...despite a solid performance, he did not earn a decision in his 5/13 outing vs. LA, a 3-1 Redbirds loss...fired seven innings of shutout ball, allowing just four hits, while striking out nine and walking four...suffered his second loss on 5/19 at PIT in what was probably the worst start of his young career...lasted just 2.2 innings and allowed seven runs on seven hits in a 13-1 loss, as Kris Benson three-hit the Redbirds...won for the first time in nearly a month on 5/25, when he downed the Marlins, 7-6...fanned a career-high 11 batters in 6.2 IP...walked none and allowed four runs (two coming via solo HRs)...earned his fifth win 5/30 at ARI, 6-1...threw five no-hit innings against the Diamondbacks before allowing one run on three hits in the sixth...equaled a career high with 11 strikeouts in a five-inning outing vs. CLE on 6/4...allowed two runs on five hits and walked none, but did not earn a decision in the Cards' 3-2 loss...surrendered a solo home run to Kenny Lofton, marking the first HR he'd allowed to a left-handed batter in 93.1 career innings pitched...enjoyed one of his best games on 7/21, in a 12-1 win at HOU...went seven innings and allowed just three hits while equaling a career high with 11 strikeouts...went 2-for-3 at the plate with a walk, RBI and two runs scored...held the Brewers to just one run on three hits in 6.0 IP in 8/12 start at County Stadium...came away with a no decision, as Cards pulled out a 2-1 win in 12 innings...notched his eighth win of the year and first in six starts with a 5-2 victory over PIT on 8/23...allowed two runs on six hits in seven innings of work...threw six shutout innings before giving up solo homers to Osik and Wilson...made his first career appearance in his native South Florida and allowed only two runs on three hits in six innings at FLA on 8/28, but did not earn a decision...the Cards scored four runs in the eighth for a 5-2 win...notched his ninth win on 9/13 at PIT...struck out 11 batters and walked none in a 9-5 victory...earned his 10th win on 9/20 in Cardinals' 11-6 Division-clinching win over HOU. ...matched his career high with 7.0 IP, allowing just four hits and two earned runs...he became the Cardinals' fifth 10-game winner with the victory. 2000 POSTSEASON - Got his first taste of postseason action and appeared in three games for the Cardinals...was tabbed as the Redbirds' starter for Game 1 of the Division Series against ATL...worked through the first two innings without harm before running into trouble in the third; with the Cards staked to a 6-0 lead, Rick retired just two of the eight batters he faced in the inning and left after allowing four runs and a major league-record five wild pitches in the frame...St. Louis went on to win the game 7-5...started Game 2 of the National League Championship Series against the Mets at Busch Stadium and lasted just 0.2 innings...faced just six batters and retired only two, while walking three and allowing a double and two wild pitches...made one relief appearance, that coming in Game 5 at NY...went 0.2 innings and allowed one run (and two more wild pitches).

MISC: Attended Port St. Lucie (Fla.) High School...was named the 1997 High School Player of the Year by USA Today...went 11-1 with a 0.47 ERA during his senior season, striking out 162 batters in 74.0 innings pitched...was offered a baseball scholarship at the University of Miami...was named to Howe Sports All-Teenager Teams in both 1998 and 1999...in 1999, was voted Best Pitching Prospect by both Pacific Coast League and Texas League team managers in Baseball America's Best Tools survey...he makes his off-season home in Fort Pierce, Fla.

2001 SEASON:

- Appeared in 27 games (19 starts), but was used sparingly down the stretch. His last start was 8/3 and his last appearance was 8/30.
- Made eight of his 15 career relief appearances in 2001, allowing 13 runs in 9.2 IP. Allowed 30 HRs in his 107.1 innings of work, including six in his last 4.1 IP.
- Has made 106 starts in a Redbirds uniform and owns a 47-33 record with a 4.46 ERA (337 ER/680.2 IP) in 119 games pitched as a member of the Cardinals.
- Is 29-14, 4.15 ERA (176 ER/381.2 IP) in 65 career appearances (58 starts) at Busch Stadium.
- Suffered a 13-9 setback on 4/4 at Coors Field, allowing a career-high 10 runs in just 2.2 innings pitched. Eight of the 10 runs he allowed scored with two outs.
- In his best start of the season, Andy earned his second win in an 8-2 victory over PIT on 5/8. Allowed one run and only two hits, two walks and four strikeouts in 6.0 innings pitched.
- Battled through 5.0 IP on 5/13 to win his second-straight decision in a 13-4 rout of the Cubs. He walked five and allowed six hits. It was his third win in four decisions since a 4/20 relief outing.
- Fanned a season-high eight batters but suffered his fourth loss on 5/30 vs. MIL, when he lasted only 3.2 innings and threw 84 pitches (55 strikes). Allowed nine runs (six earned) on 10 hits in an 11-1 loss.
- Improved to 5-4 with an 8-2 win at COL on 6/9. Pitched 6.1 innings and allowed just two runs on five hits, giving the Cards their lone win on the June 5-14 road trip (nine games). Notched his 1,900th career strikeout with a third-inning fan of Ben Petrick.
- Won his third straight game with a 10-3 decision over the White Sox on 6/15. Had a no-hitter through four innings before allowing a leadoff homer to Maglio Ordonez in the fifth. Left the game having allowed three runs on four hits with six strikeouts and one walk in a season-high 6.2 innings pitched.
- Made a 7/28 start at CHI and walked a season-high six batters, but was able to work out of trouble, allowing just two hits in his 5+ innings of work. Left the game with a 3-2 lead, but the bullpen had two blown saves in the back-and-forth 7-4 win. Also collected a double - his 99th career base hit.
- Posted his 150th career win in an 8/13 relief appearance vs. CIN.
- Suffered a wild loss in relief at CIN on 8/20, when he went 1.1 innings and allowed three home runs. The Reds hit two homers in the 10th inning to knot the score at 4-4 before Ken Griffey Jr. clubbed an inside-the-park homer in the 11th for a 5-4 Reds win.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1989 – Began his professional career at Double-A Wichita, where he went 8-4 with a 2.16 ERA in 16 Texas League starts...allowed two earned runs in his first five starts (0.44 ERA), including three straight shutouts that featured strikeout totals of 16, 12 and 11...was promoted to Las Vegas (AAA) in July, going 2-1 in five starts, before getting the call to the majors...made his big league debut on 8/11 vs. ATL, fanning seven in a 6-5 loss...collected first major league hit on 8/18 at MON, then added first big league homer on 9/3 off the Phillies' Dennis Cook...posted first major league victory 8/23 at PHI, a 7-3 win that triggered a six-game winning streak...the streak featured a pair of 1-0 wins over Orel Hershiser and the Dodgers...honored by The Sporting News as N.L. Rookie Pitcher-of-the-Year by recording 66 strikeouts in 66.2 innings during brief big league stint...was named the Texas League Pitcher-of-the-Year despite spending only just half the year at Wichita.

1990 – Made 32 appearances (31 starts) in his first full big league season...fired first major league complete game with a two-hitter on 5/14 vs. PHI...Padres went extra-innings in six of his 11 no decisions, winning five...fanned 11 batters on 7/5 vs. STL.

1991 – Established a then career high with 13 strikeouts on 4/13 vs. CIN...hit second career home run on 4/27 at PHI off Danny Cox...started a career-best 10-game winning streak with 2-0 win on 7/28 vs. NY, allowing five hits over 8.0 innings...winning streak spanned 12 starts and was the longest in the N.L. since Dennis Martinez won 11 in a row in 1989...tossed first major league shutout with 2-0, two-hitter at STL on 8/29.

1992 – Tossed two shutouts, a three-hitter on 5/22 vs. CHI, then a four-hitter on 6/17 at HOU, winning 2-0 and 5-0, respectively...hit his third career home run on 8/13 at ATL off Charlie Liebrandt...won six of last seven decisions at SD, allowing 11 earned runs in 55.2 innings (1.78 ERA).

1993 – Lost Opening Day start vs. PIT, then went 12-6 with 2.29 ERA over next 22 starts, working into seventh inning 17 times and holding the opposition to two or fewer earned runs in 15 games...hit fourth career homer 5/12 at CIN (Jose Rijo)...made lone career All-Star Game appearance, working 2.0 frames in BAL, fanning a pair and allowing a run...earned N.L. Player of the Week honor after back-to-back starts at CHI (7/27) and CIN (8/1), allowing no earned runs over 16.0 innings in two wins.

1994 – Won the N.L. strikeout title with 189 strikeouts in strike-shortened season, becoming the first Padre to lead the league in Ks...recorded 10 or more strikeouts in seven games, including career-best 14 strikeouts on 7/15 at NY...pitched lone career one-hitter on 7/3 vs. Mets, recording 13 whiffs, while contributing a three-run double...had the three highest strikeout games in the N.L. with 12, 13 and 14.

1995 – Was a double-digit winner while splitting time between San Diego (19 starts) and Seattle (12 starts)...went 4-7 with San Diego, then was dealt to Seattle for the pennant drive on 7/31, posting a 7-2 record and assisting the Mariners to postseason play...recorded career strikeout #952 on 5/31 at NY, breaking Padres' club record...had a season-high 11 strikeouts on 6/5 at PHI...ranked second in N.L. with 19 starts and 126 Ks at time of trade to Seattle, leaving San Diego as club's all-time strikeout leader with 1,036...won A.L. debut on 8/3 at CAL, a 10-7 victory allowing two runs with nine strikeouts over 6.0 innings...won five straight decisions from 8/29 to 9/26...included was a 6-2 win vs. KC on 9/9, featuring 19 consecutive batters retired. 1995 POSTSEASON – Started Game 2 of Division Series vs. Yankees, allowing three runs in 5.0 innings, a game the Mariners dropped 7-5 in 15 innings...started Game 5, allowing four runs in 6.2 innings, but Seattle rallied for 6-5 win to qualify for ALCS vs. CLE...struggled vs. Indians, allowing six runs in 2.1 innings.

1996 – Established a career high with 18 wins, the second-best tally in the N.L...after nightmarish 1-7 beginning (5.92 ERA through 10 starts), he had a dramatic turnaround, finishing with a 17-3 record and 3.11 ERA over his final 26 appearances, lowering his season ERA to 3.83, a drop of 2.09 from the beginning of the season...won 10 straight decisions from 6/19 to 8/16, the longest winning streak for a Cardinal pitcher since John Tudor won 11 in a row in 1985...Andy won 15 of last 17 decisions...posted his only career save on 5/29 vs. COL, recording final out of 6-5 Redbird win...his win on 9/9 was 17th of year, giving Andy and brother Alan 31 combined wins, the most by a St. Louis brother tandem since Dizzy (28) and Paul Dean (19) combined for 47 in 1935...was the winning pitcher in Cards division clincher on 9/24 at PIT. 1996 POSTSEASON – Fanned nine in 7.0 innings vs. SD in lone Division Series start, a 5-4 St. Louis win in Game 2...allowed two runs in 6.0 frames at ATL in the opener of the NLCS.

1997 – Season started late due to left rib cage injury...made three rehab starts before winning 4/28 debut at Busch over SF...upon recovering from the injury, the durable Benes worked into the 7th inning in 18 of 26 starts...recorded 10 or more strikeouts on five occasions, including a pair of 12-strikeout games...fanned a dozen over 7.0 innings in 9-3 win at SF on 5/24, then struck out 12 in a no decision at CHI, working 9.0 innings of an eventual 2-1 Cards win...also had a pair of 11-strikeout outings (6/4 at PIT and 6/14 vs. CLE)...posted 100th major league win 6/24 vs. CHI, a 7-2 triumph...season ended on 9/7 at COL, when he was hit by Pedro Astacio pitch while batting in seventh inning, suffering broken finger on his pitching hand...despite injury-shortened campaign, Andy finished 10th in the N.L. with 175 strikeouts, while his .230 opponents' batting average was the seventh-best mark in the league.

1998 – Posted a phenomenal late-season run to tie Tampa Bay's Rolando Arrojo for most wins ever by an expansion pitcher, finishing the year with a 14-13 mark...tied his career best with 231.1 IP (1992), working into the seventh inning in 25 of his 34 starts, including his first 11 of the year...was 8-4 with a 3.00 ERA in 15 starts after the All-Star break...won seven of his last nine decisions and closed the campaign by not allowing an earned run in his last 27.1 innings, establishing a club record...threw the first pitch in Diamondbacks' franchise history, his fifth career Opening Day start, vs. COL on 3/31 (a 9-2 loss)...poked his fifth career home run on 4/10 at SD (off Kevin Brown)...recorded a season-high 10 Ks in a no-decision at PIT on 9/2...pitched a near no-hitter at CIN on 9/13, when he went 8.1 innings before allowing a line drive to right by Sean Casey on a 3-2 pitch; Andy left the game with the bases loaded before Gregg Olson induced a game-ending double play to preserve a 5-0 win...finished September with a 3-0 record and a 0.42 ERA, allowing just two runs on 17 hits while fanning 34 over 38.1 IP.

1999 – In a career full of late-season surges, the 1999 campaign was no different for Benes, as he won six of his last seven decisions and posted a 7-2 record in his last 10 starts to finish the year with a 13-12 record...went 8-3 with a 3.92 ERA after the All-Star break...posted a 4-1 mark in the month of September...entered the All-Star break with a 5-9 record and a 5.51 ERA...his last appearance in Houston's Astrodome was a memorable one, as he clubbed his sixth career home run off Jose Lima on 7/22; allowed just one run on six hits in 6.0 innings in the 2-1 win...received a scare at SD on 7/27, when he was nailed in the right arm by a line drive; came out of the game to take x-rays, which were negative...his longest win streak of the year was four games, from 8/18 to 9/11...got the best of Curt Schilling at PHI on 8/7; allowed just one earned run over 6.2 innings, while matching his D'Backs best with 10 strikeouts...blanked the Phillies with an eight-inning, five-hit performance at Bank One Ballpark on 9/11, a 4-0 D'Backs win...his final appearance of the year was out of the bullpen on 10/3 vs. SD...worked two innings and allowed one run (a solo homer to Ruben Rivera) with two strikeouts in the D'Backs' 10-3 win.

2000 – Rejoined the Cardinals as a free agent in 2000 after a two-year stint with Arizona...posted a double-digit win total for the sixth-straight year and the 10th time in his career...went 9-3 with a 4.47 ERA before the All-Star break and had a 3-6, 5.65 mark after the intermission, marking a reversal of his usual career pattern...made 25 starts before going on the disabled list with right knee inflammation on 8/19 (retroactive to 8/15)...at the time of his injury, ranked among the N.L. leaders in strikeouts per 9 IP (8.0)...was on the disabled list until 9/3...made two relief outings and three starts after his return, going 2-2 with a 5.09 ERA...the Cards scored a combined 28 runs in his eight losing starts, but outscored the opposition 54-14 in his last five wins...sixteen of his 27 starts came on the road...posted nine strikeouts and collected his first base hit of the year in a 4/23 victory (6-3) over COL...collected his third win on 5/16 at PHI, and clubbed his seventh career home run (and his second clout at Veterans Stadium)...won six straight decisions from 6/6 to 7/13...did not earn a decision in 6/23 start vs. LA, notched 10 Ks for the third straight game...went 2.1 innings and earned a hold in his fifth career relief outing 7/9 vs. SF...had his personal six-game winning streak snapped with a 3-2 loss at MIN on 7/18...went the distance for his 20th career complete game, allowing three runs (two earned) on seven hits...made the wrong kind of history 7/23 at HOU, as he became the 17th pitcher (second of 2000) to allow four home runs in an inning...lasted just 1.2 innings and allowed a career-high nine runs, as St. Louis lost 15-7 at Enron Field...walked a career-high seven batters in his 7/29 start at NY, taking a no-decision in the Cards' 4-3 loss. 2000 POSTSEASON – Did not appear in the Division Series vs. the Braves, but garnered the Cardinals' lone win in the N.L. Championship Series vs. the Mets...went 8.0 innings and allowed two runs on six hits in Game 3, lifting St. Louis to a 8-2 victory...also went 1-for-3 at the plate and scored a run...the win marked his first career postseason victory.

MISC: Graduated from Evansville (Ind.) Central High School, where he lettered in baseball basketball and football...attended hometown University of Evansville and earned All-America and Midwestern Collegiate Conference Player of the Year honors as a junior, when he went 16-3 with a 1.42 ERA and a nation-leading 188 strikeouts...led the Purple Aces to the NCAA Tournament, where he knocked off Arizona State 1-0 and was named to the West II Regional All-Tournament squad...was drafted by the San Diego Padres as the first overall pick in the 1988 draft, but did not pitch, opting instead to pitch for the U.S. Olympic Team that traveled to Seoul...Benes won his lone Olympic start, working 6.2 innings vs. Australia, allowing one earned run on three hits...is highly involved in community work...he and his wife Jennifer have two sons, Andrew Charles II (11/4/88) and Shane Ryan (2/16/96) and two daughters, Bailey (12/20/94) and Brynn (11/1/93)...he is the brother of Chicago Cubs' pitcher Alan Benes and his brother, Adam, was a pitcher in the Cardinals organization from 1995 to 2000.

2001 SEASON:

- Batted .208 in 48 games with the Devil Rays before a 7/25 trade to the Arizona Diamondbacks.
- Compiled a season-best six-game hitting streak, 5/16-29.
- Went 3-for-4 with two runs 5/29 at Oakland.
- Went just 1-for-21 (.048) in 12 games with Arizona.
- Was optioned to Tucson (AAA) on 8/24 and batted .346 (9-for-26) with one home run in seven games.
- Was released by the Diamondbacks on 9/4.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1991 – Batted just .210 in his first pro season, but threw out 37% of attempted base thieves at Hamilton (A).

1992 – Split time between Hamilton and St. Petersburg (A)...threw out 20 of 45 (44%) basestealers...hit .368 in July.

1993 – Opened the year at Springfield (A) and also spent time at St. Petersburg before a shoulder injury ended his season in June.

1994 – Moved up to Double-A Arkansas and established career highs in nearly every offensive category...threw out 46% of would-be base thieves.

1995 – Began the season at Arkansas and batted .341 at Ray Winder Field, but hit just .198 in Travelers' road games...earned an August promotion to Triple-A Louisville.

1996 – Was productive in his first full season at Triple-A...hit at or above the .300 mark for most of the season and ended the year at .285..hit .301 vs. LHP, but eight of his nine home runs came off righties...erased 37% (23-of-62) of attempted base stealers...hit .316 in May, .310 in June and .314 in July...earned a late-season promotion to the big leagues and made his debut as a ninth-inning defensive replacement on 9/1 vs. COL...made his first start on 9/25 at PIT and garnered two hits and an RBI.

1997 – Opened the year at Arkansas and played just one game there before a promotion to St. Louis...made 81 starts - tops among major league rookie catchers...Cardinals pitchers posted a 3.68 ERA with him behind the plate - third-best in the N.L. and fifth-best in the majors...nailed 35% (34-of-96) attempted base stealers...paced the club with a .322 (19-for-59) batting average with runners in scoring position, the second among major league rookies...after going 1-for-21 in his first eight games, clubbed his first big-league homer on 5/8 off Phillies' Mike Mimbs...batted .255 (61-for-239) after his 1-for-21 start...had a career-high four hits 5/24 at SF.

1998 – Was selected by Tampa Bay in the Expansion Draft and started 75 games for the Devil Rays...ranked third in the American League by nabbing 37% (29-of-78) attempted base stealers (the A.L. average was 28%)...D-Rays pitchers worked to a 4.21 ERA with Mike behind the plate, the fourth-best mark among A.L. catchers with at least 81 games...began the season with a career-best eight-game hitting streak (9-for-24, .375)...ranked ninth in the A.L. with a .281 BA on 0-2 counts (9-for-32)...hit the first three-run homer in the history of Tropicana Field on 4/4 vs. Chicago's Carlos Castillo.

1999 – Batted a career-best .307 - 71 pts higher than his career average entering the season...was batting just .214 on June 20, but hit .350 (43-for-123) with five homers and 21 RBIs over his final 34 games...ended the year with a season-best seven-game hitting streak...belted a career-high six home runs...gunned down 41% (16-of-39) would-be base stealers on the year...made 50 starts behind the plate posting a 4.58 "catcher's ERA"...the D-Rays had a 5.28 ERA with other catchers...tied his career high with four hits 8/4 at SEA...had a career-high five RBI 7/1 at BOS...batted .393 (24-for-61) with 12 RBIs against the four A.L. playoff teams.

2000 – Made 57 starts and established career highs in runs (23) and doubles (13) and matched his career best in home runs (6)...his batting average dipped from .307 in 1999 to .240...20 of his 49 hits went for extra bases...nailed 30% (15-of-50) attempted base stealers, but tied for second among A.L. catchers with eight errors...batted .294 with four home runs before the All-Star break and just .179 with two homers after the break...celebrated his 31st birthday with a 3-for-4 performance 5/28 vs. SEA (his leadoff HR in the eighth inning broke a 3-3 tie and began an 11-run, 10-hit inning for the D-Rays)...equaled his career high with an eight-game hitting streak 6/21-7/13.

MISC: Graduated in 1987 from Bearden High School in Knoxville, Tenn. (the same school as Tigers' manager Phil Garner)...Mike was named all-city and all-district and set school records for home runs and RBI in a season...was an All-SEC selection at the University of Tennessee, where he graduated in 1991 with a degree in Marketing...was a college teammate of the Royals' Joe Randa...he and his wife Tish have one child, Grace Filomena (11/29/98)...name is pronounced DEE-fah-lease.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1994 – Selected by the Colorado Rockies in the sixth round of the June free-agent draft...made 12 starts for Chandler, fanning 63 in 55.2 innings pitched while posting a 2.10 ERA.

1995 – Tied for the Rockies' organization lead in starts (28) in just his second season of pro ball, ranking second in the South Atlantic League...twirled a two-hitter on 7/16 at Charleston (WV), but gave up a ninth-inning run which cost him in 1-0 defeat....worked nine shutout innings on 8/28 at Hagerstown, only to get a no-decision, as Asheville eventually won the game, 1-0, in 11 innings.

1996 – Continued climb through the Colorado system as he spent the entire season at Salem (A), going 5-7 with a 4.24 ERA in 21 games (all starts)...blanked Winston-Salem for 7.0 innings on 4/26, allowing only two hits and three walks while striking out a season-high eight...was 4-2 with a 3.32 ERA before taking a line drive off his nose in the third inning of 5/31 start vs. Frederick...injury required surgery and sidelined him for six weeks...returned on 7/13 and had two no-decisions and a pair of losses before etching his name in the organizational record book on 8/4 when he fired a no-hitter vs. Kinston in 4-1 win...it was the first nine-inning no-hitter in the Carolina League since 1992...allowed only two homers in his 110.1 innings of work, and only one homer in his first 19 starts, a span of 101.0 innings.

1997 – Started the year at New Haven (AA)...was 0-6 with a 7.82 ERA after his first 10 starts and was sent back to Salem (A) in early June....completed the year at Salem where he was 1-4 in 15 starting assignments...combined record for the year was

1-10 with a 6.57 ERA....had a seven inning shutout stint vs. Reading on 5/20...lone win of the year came in his second start with Salem on 6/12 vs. Kinston...worked six or more innings in seven of his 15 starts for Salem and allowed three or fewer earned runs in eight starts...completed two games at Salem to finish fifth in the league.

1998 – Pitched the entire year at Class-AA New Haven, appearing in 28 games while starting 23...was 3-12 with a 5.44 ERA...his 28 games pitched and 12 losses represented career highs...allowed five or more runs in five consecutive starts, 5/11-6/1, to drop to 0-3 in his first 10 starts...snapped a personal five-game losing streak and won his first game in 13 starts in a 5-4 win at Reading on 6/23...it was his first Eastern League win in 23 starts dating back to 1997...was 0-4 in seven games, 7/18-8/12...after being moved to the bullpen, worked two scoreless innings against Akron on 8/20 and snapped a five-game losing streak in a 9-5 win.

1999 – Split season between Carolina (AA) and Colorado Springs (AAA) before drawing a late-season call-up from the Rockies...posted a winning record (4-3, 4.04 ERA) in 11 games (10 starts) for Carolina while equaling his combined win total (four) for 1997-98...struck out 10 in a 4-0 win vs. West Tenn Diamond Jaxx on 4/17; allowed just three hits in his seven scoreless innings...worked eight strong innings in a 4-1 win over Knoxville after returning from a six-game league suspension...was promoted to Triple-A Colorado Springs on 6/12 and continued winning trend with a 7-6 mark and a 3.74 ERA in 15 starts...twirled a four-hit, 8-0 shutout against Edmonton on 8/11; allowed just one walk, fanned a 10 and set down 11 straight between the fourth and the seventh innings, including seven via strikeout...contract was purchased by the Rockies on 9/1...made his ML debut in a start vs. PIT that day at Coors Field; he went six innings, allowing five runs on six hits and struck out five...made two relief appearances before returning to the starting rotation to finish the year...recorded his first major league win with a two inning relief effort on 9/17 vs. LA...each of his final two starts were losses to the Diamondbacks, one in Phoenix and one in Denver...took part in Arizona Fall League, where he was 1-3, 6.40 ERA in eight games (six starts) for the Grand Canyon Rafters.

2000 – Started 21 games for Triple-A Memphis before a late-season call-up to the Cardinals...went 8-9 with a 4.74 ERA for the Redbirds and pitched in one game for the Cardinals...at Memphis, was 6-3 on the road and 2-6 at home...made two starts for Memphis in the postseason, including two starts in the Pacific Coast League playoffs...did not earn a decision in the PCL playoffs, but posted a 1.98 ERA in 13.2 innings pitched...recorded 15 strikeouts and allowed 11 hits and seven walks while opponents batted .224 off him...lost his only start in the Triple-A World Series against Indianapolis, allowing four runs on six hits in 5.1 IP in Game 4...was recalled from Memphis on 9/23...made his Cardinals debut on 9/30 vs. CIN, pitching 2.2 innings in relief and allowing three runs on four hits.

MISC: Lettered in baseball, basketball and football at Columbus (Miss.) High School...during his prep baseball career, Luther recorded games of 18 and 17 strikeouts during the district championships in 1994...pitched for the Maui Stingrays during the 1996 and 1997 off-seasons...In 1999 was rated the eighth-best prospect in the Cardinals organization by Baseball America...he and his wife Karen have a daughter, Alexis (5/6/93), and they make their home in Memphis, Tenn.

FULL NAME: Jason Derik Isringhausen

HEIGHT: 6-3 WEIGHT: 230 BATS: Right Throws: Right

BORN: 9/7/72 at Brighton, Illinois

OPENING DAY AGE: 29 (Turns 30 on September 7) M.L. SERVICE: 6.031

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a free agent, December 10, 2001.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2005, with a club option for 2006.

2001 SEASON:

- In his second full season in Oakland, recorded a career-high 34 saves and helped the A's reach the American League playoffs. Was also charged with a career-high nine blown saves.

- The 34 saves ranked seventh in Oakland single-season history and he joined Dennis Eckersley as the only two A's pitchers with more than one 30-save season. Left Oakland with 75 career saves, which ranks fourth in club history behind Eckersley (320), Rollie Fingers (136) and Bill Taylor (100).
- His save percentage of 79.1% ranked fourth-lowest among A.L. closers. His nine blown saves fell one short of the Oakland record (since 1988) of 10, set by Dennis Eckersley in 1993.
- Allowed a .152 (17-for-112) batting average against right handers and a .240 (37-for-154) mark against lefties.
- Tossed 71.1 innings and struck out 74, both his most ever as a reliever.
- Averaged 9.34 strikeouts per nine innings which ranked seventh among A.L. relievers.
- His 2.65 ERA ranked eighth among A.L. relievers and his .203 opponents' batting average was 10th-lowest.
- Posted a 2.05 ERA (10 er/44.0 ip) and allowed a .188 (30-for-160) average in 35 outings at home and had a 3.62 ERA (11 er/27.1 ip) and .226 (24-for-106) opponents average in 30 games on the road.
- Seven of his nine blown saves came in Oakland. Six of his blown saves came over a 21-game stretch from 5/1 to 6/23
- Was a perfect 4-for-4 in save opportunities and did not allow a run in nine outings (8.1 ip) in April.
- Converted 12 of his 15 save opportunities over a 22-game stretch from 6/27 to 8/22 (9 er in 25.2 ip, 3.16 ERA).
- Posted a 6.08 ERA in May, then compiled a 1.50 ERA in 10 outings in June but had six saves and three blown saves.
- Did not allow a run in his first nine outings in July (11.1 ip). Retired 19 consecutive batters from 7/2 to 7/17 before walking Larry Walker on 7/17 against COL. Extended his opponent's hitless streak to 0-for-25 before Jermaine Dye singled to lead off the ninth inning on 7/23 at KC.
- Had his scoreless streak snapped at 14.2 innings on 7/ 29 against KC, a game in which he had a blown save and a win.
- Had his third four-strikeout game of the season in a blown save on 8/22 against CLE. That equaled his career high as a reliever (sixth time). Started a 14.0 inning scoreless streak during that game which lasted through 10/5.
- Made his 200th career appearance on 8/29 at BAL.
- Tossed 3.0 scoreless innings on 9/9 against TB, equaling his career high as a reliever (fourth time).
- Finished the season by rescuing all nine of his save opportunities over his final 13 outings (1 er/14.0 ip/0.64 ERA), his longest streak of consecutive saves in 2001. Was 21-for-24 (87.5%) in save opportunities over his final 35 outings from 6/27 until the end of the season and he allowed a .175 (25-for-143) batting average over that span.
- Did not allow a run in eight September outings (9.1 ip, 3 h).
- Recorded his career-high 34th save in his final outing of the season on 10/6 against ANA.

2001 POSTSEASON - Pitched twice in the Division Series vs. New York and recorded saves in Games 1 and 2...allowed no runs, one hit and one walk with three strikeouts in 2.0 innings of work, but did not see action in the last three games of the series, as the Yankees came back to post a 3-2 series win.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1992 - Began his professional career with the Gulf Coast Mets and was named Pitcher of the Week, 6/29-7/4...also pitched seven games at Kingsport and went 4-1 with a shutout.

1993 - Led the Mets short-season pitchers in strikeouts (104) and victories (7) at Pittsfield.

1994 - Had a combined 11-8 record with a 2.61 ERA in 28 games (all starts) at Single-A St. Lucie of the Florida State League and Double-A Binghamton of the Eastern League...promoted to Binghamton on 6/26...named to the League's All-Star team and was selected the League's Pitcher of the Week, 5/23-29...was leading the FSL in ERA at the time of his promotion...paced Mets' minor leaguers in complete games (8) and shutouts (3) and was third in innings pitched (193.1).

1995 - Finished fourth, with four votes, in the 1995 National League Rookie of the Year race...promoted to the Mets from Triple-A Norfolk of the International League on 7/13...made his major league debut, 7/17, with a start at CHI...had a no-decision in a 5-2 Mets victory...in seven innings, he allowed two hits, two runs, earned, with two walks and six strikeouts...gained his first triumph, 2-1, vs. PIT on 7/30...went eight innings and permitted six hits, one run, earned, with three walks and five strikeouts...ended the season with a 7-0 record and a no-decision in his last eight starts...fell one game short of tying Tom Seaver (1969) and David Cone (1983) for most consecutive victories in consecutive starts...in those last eight games, he allowed 14 runs in 53.1 innings for an ERA of 2.36...gave up 54 hits with 17 walks and 31 strikeouts in those contests...picked up his first major league hit, an infield single, off Butch Henry of the Expos at Shea on 8/15...was 2-for-3 vs. SD on 8/25...for Binghamton, Norfolk and the Mets, he had a combined record of 20-4 with a 2.32 ERA in 32 starts...started the year with Double-A Binghamton of the Eastern League...was promoted to Triple-A Norfolk of the International League on 5/6...named the International League's Most Valuable Pitcher and Rookie of the Year...was the starting pitcher for the National League Triple-A All-Star squad on 7/12 at Scranton Wilkes-Barre...selected the IL's Pitcher of the Month for June (4-0, 1.71 ERA)...was co-recipient of the Doubleday Award at Norfolk with Butch Huskey...in his first four starts for Binghamton, he struck out 14, 14, 10 and 13 batters.

1996 - Underwent two arthroscopic procedures, one on his right shoulder and one on his right elbow on 9/27...a labral tear was repaired in his shoulder, while bone chips were removed from his elbow...both operations were performed by Mets Team Physician Dr. David Altchek at the Hospital for Special Surgery in Manhattan...missed a start in early August with a strained right rib cage...on 8/12, after a start against the Cubs at Shea he was placed on the disabled list with his rib cage injury...activated from the DL on 9/1 and made three September starts...experienced discomfort in his elbow after what would be his final start of the year, 9/17 at MON...prior to his surgeries, he underwent an MRI on 9/20 and 9/25 at the Hospital for Special Surgery...worked at least six innings in 20 of his 27 starts...hurled his first career shutout, 6-0, over the Marlins on 6/9 at Shea...allowed six hits with no walks and a career-high 10 strikeouts...hit his second career home run, a two-run shot off Armando Reynoso at COL on 7/24...became the first Mets pitcher to have two home runs in a season since Dwight Gooden in 1993...cracked his first major league home run and singled in a 6-5 loss at PIT in the first game of a doubleheader on 6/19...finished second in the NL among pitchers with his .255 batting average (minimum 40 at bats)...tied for first in the NL among pitchers with his two home runs, tied for seventh with his 13 hits and fourth with his nine RBI...his nine RBI were one short of the Mets' club mark for pitchers set by Tom Seaver in 1970.

1997 - Activated by the Mets on 8/27 and earned the victory that day over the Giants at Shea, 15-6...defeated Toronto, 3-0, on 9/1...held the Blue Jays to two hits over 6.0 shutout innings...struck out six and walked six...placed on the 15-day disabled list on 3/31, retroactive to 3/24, recuperating from the previous fall's elbow and shoulder surgery...started his rehabilitation assignment on 4/6 at Triple-A Norfolk of the International League...broke his right wrist on 4/11 in Norfolk...diagnosed with tuberculosis (unofficially) on 5/1...responded to medication as hoped and thus the diagnosis was confirmed...transferred to the 60-day disabled list on 5/3...pitched eight games for San Juan of the Puerto Rican Winter League...was 5-1 with a 2.93 ERA...in 46.0 innings, he allowed 37 hits, 19 runs, 15 earned, 18 walks and 41 strikeouts.

1998 - Started the season on the 60-day disabled list recovering from right elbow reconstructive surgery...the surgery was performed on 1/13/98 by Mets' Team Physician Dr. David Altchek at the Hospital for Special Surgery in Manhattan...did not pitch, but went to Florida to rehabilitate his shoulder on 3/21...spent the remainder of the summer at the Mets Minor League Complex, in St. Lucie, Fla.

1999 - Acquired by the A's from the New York Mets hours before the 7/31 trading deadline and eventually took over as the A's closer, recording eight saves in eight chances as an Athletic...came to Oakland along with Greg McMichael in exchange for Bill Taylor and did not allow a run in his first seven outings in an A's uniform (10.2 ip, 6 h, 4 bb, 6 so)...retired 17 in a row from 8/9 to 8/23...picked up the save on 8/27 against CWS, his first as an Athletic and the second of his career...that began a season ending 12-game stretch where he was 8 for 8 in save opportunities while posting a 3.38 ERA (5 er in 13.1 ip)...allowed 3 of 14 (21.4%) inherited runners to score with the A's...first hitters faced were 2 for 18 with two walks with the A's...allowed a .179 (5 for 28) average with runners in scoring position which ranked seventh lowest among A.L. relievers...combined with the A's and Mets for a .258 opponents batting average...that broke down to .221 (25 for 113) against left handers and .289 (39 for 135) against right handers...began the season with the Mets Triple-A affiliate at Norfolk but was brought up to New York on 5/24 and inserted into the starting rotation...went 1-2 with a 7.30 ERA in five starts before he was optioned back to Norfolk on 6/23....rejoined the Mets on 7/4 and pitched in relief for the first time in his major league career...had made 52 consecutive starts before his first relief appearance on 7/6 against Montreal...picked up the save in that game by tossing three shutout innings in the Mets 10-0 win...was 0-1 with the save and a 4.91 ERA in eight relief appearances before he was traded to the A's.

2000 - Was named to the American League All-Star team in his first full season as a closer...recorded 33 saves in 40 opportunities and ranked seventh in the A.L. with a 82.5% save percentage...became the fourth pitcher in A's history to save 30 or more games, joining Dennis Eckersley (six times), Bill Caudill (once) and Bill Taylor (once)...fared better in the Coliseum where he was 4-0 with 17 saves in 18 chances and a 2.19 ERA in 36 games...went to 2-4 with 16 saves in 22 chances and a 5.63 ERA in 30 games on the road...first hitters faced were 13 for 60 (.217) with six walks...allowed 6 of 16 (37.5%) inherited runners to score recorded the save in each of first five opportunities to extend his streak of consecutive saves to start his career to 14...he fell one short of the major league record for consecutive saves at the start of a career...Greg McMichael (Atlanta, 1993) and Robb Nen (Florida, 1994) were a perfect 15 for 15...was charged with his first blown save of the season on 5/2 at KC to start a four-game stretch where he had a save and three blown saves, 5/2-10 (4.0 ip, 12 h, 8 r, 7 er, 3 bb, 7 so, 15.75 ERA)...then put together another streak of 14 consecutive saves over a 23-game stretch from 5/11 to 7/17 (25.1 ip, 14 h, 5 r, 5 er, 10 bb, 20, 1.78 ERA)...recorded the save in each of the A's four games from 5/30 to 6/3...it was the first time an A's pitcher had four saves in four consecutive team games since Dennis Eckersley, 8/16-20/93...had a scoreless streak of 9.0 innings snapped in his outing on 6/3 against SF...struck out a season-high four on 7/7 against ARI, equaling his career high as a reliever (7/16/99 vs. TB)...was 4-2 with a 2.79 ERA and 19 saves in 22 chances at the All-Star Break and was named to his first All-Star team...pitched the fifth inning in the game and allowed an RBI single to Andruw Jones (1.0 ip, 2 h, 1 r, 1 er, 1 bb)...had his second streak of 14 consecutive saves snapped in the night game on 7/17 at COL...that began an 11-game stretch through 8/8 where he went 1-2 with five saves and four blown saves (11.0 ip, 13 h, 8 r, 6 er, 4 bb, 10 so, 4.91 ERA)...seventh and final blown save came on 8/8 at NY...the A's had a 3-2 lead entering the bottom of the ninth and he allowed back to back home runs to Bernie Williams and David Justice on consecutive pitches...recorded his 26th save of the season on 8/15 but did not get another save opportunity until 9/12...made six appearances between save opportunities (6.0 ip, 8 h, 7 r, 6 er, 7 bb, 2 so, 9.00 ERA) as Jim Mecir recorded four saves in seven chances over that span...recorded his 27th save on 9/12 against Minnesota to start a stretch of four saves in four outings...posted a 1.74 ERA in September (10.1 ip, 5 h, 2 r, 2 er, 5 bb, 7 so) with six saves in six chances...2000 POSTSEASON - Made two Division Series appearance against New York and retired six of the seven batters he faced...retired the side in order in the ninth inning of Game 1 for the save.

2001 SEASON:

- Earned a host of honors, including the Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Year selection. Was named the Cardinals top minor league performer for 2001 by Baseball America and was named to the second team starting rotation in Baseball America's Minor League All-Star selections following the season. Was named the Carolina League Pitcher of the Year and drew selection to the league's postseason All-Star team.
- Led the Class-A Carolina League with a 2.50 ERA. He finished second in the league in both wins (14) and strikeouts (156).
- Led the Cardinals farm system with a combined 15 wins between Potomac and New Haven and tied Rick Ankiel for the organizational lead in strikeouts with 162.
- Didn't allow an earned run in three consecutive starts (20 IP) from 4/25 to 5/6.
- Three of his six losses at Potomac came in consecutive starts between 5/11-23.
- He went 4-0 with a 1.15 ERA in six starts from 6/8 to 7/6 and was a perfect 6-0 with a 0.23 ERA in July.
- Following a loss on 6/3, he would go on to win his final 11 decisions for Potomac, the longest winning streak in the minors since New Haven pitcher Greg Wooten won 12-straight in 2000.
- He posted a 1.23 ERA over his final 15 starts, yielding two or more runs in just two of those 15 games. He allowed just one earned run in a 53 inning stretch from 6/26 to 8/3.
- Extended his streak of having not allowed an earned run to 35.1 IP with six scoreless innings in a 11-6 win vs. Wilmington on 7/28. The earned runs streak ended at 42.1 IP, the longest such streak in the minors for 2001.
- Threw a 7-inning no-hitter for New Haven on 9/2 vs. Bowie in a 3-0 opening game win of a doubleheader. The start was his first at Class AA and snapped a nine-game Ravens losing streak. He fanned six in the win and faced the minimum 21 batters while posting the Eastern League's fifth no-hitter of the 2001 season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2000 - Began his professional career at New Jersey and made 13 appearances (12 in relief)...he fanned 39 batters in 32.0 IP and held the opposition to a .111 BA.

MISC: Graduated in 1996 from North High School in Springfield, OH...participated in baseball and basketball in high school and was an All-Area selection in baseball...attended the University of Illinois where he was a two-time All Big Ten and All-Midwest Region selection...he was also a second team Baseball America All-American and second team Coaches Association All-American...was a member of 1998 Big Ten Championship team with the Fighting Illini...did not pitch in 1999 after undergoing Tommy John surgery to repair ligament damage in his right elbow...he was scouted by Scott Melvin...makes his off-season home in Springfield, OH...name is pronounced JUR-nell.

2001 SEASON:

- A veteran of 317 major league starts, Kile posted another solid season in 2001, going 16-11.
- His 3.09 ERA ranked fifth in the National League.
- Darryl lowered his ERA 26 points (from 3.35 to 3.09) after the All-Star break.
- The Cardinals scored just 20 runs in Darryl's 11 losses and were shut out three times in games that he started.
- Owns a 36-20 (.643 win pct.) record and 3.50 ERA (179 ER/ 459.2.0 IP) in 68 games as a Cardinal.
- Posted a 2.68 ERA at home (8th in N.L.) and a 2.77 mark at night (2nd).
- His 3.43 ERA in road games ranked seventh among N.L. pitchers.
- Won 10 games for the sixth time in his career and the fifth time in the last six years. He surpassed the 200-inning plateau for the fifth time in his career.
- His strikeout-to-walk ratio over his last six games was 37:12 despite equaling his season-high with four free passes three times in that stretch (7/12, 8/12 & 8/28).
- Went 7-5 at home and 9-6 on the road.
- Was 5-3 with a 3.79 ERA (30 ER/ 71.1 IP) in day games and 11-8, 2.77 ERA (48 ER/ 156.0 IP) at night.
- Allowed just five HRs in his last 12 games (covering 78.0 IP) and only eight in his last 19 games (91.0 IP).
- Made his fourth consecutive Opening Day start on 4/2, dropping an 8-0 decision to Mike Hampton and the Rockies at Coors Field. It was his first loss in four career Opening Day assignments.
- Was a 3-1 winner vs. Randy Johnson and the Diamondbacks on 4/18. Allowed one run (Reggie Sanders solo HR) on five hits, but he also allowed a season-high four walks while striking out seven.
- Posted a solid outing vs. NY 4/29. Tossed 8.0 shutout innings but then made his exit in the ninth after allowing a lead-off HR to Benny Agbayani. He helped his own cause with two hits, including a two-run double.
- Blanked the Pirates, 3-0, on 5/16 at PNC Park, allowing seven hits as he improved his record to 6-2 with his 9th career shutout. He retired the final 11 batters after allowing base-runners in each of the first six innings.
- He split back-to-back starts (5/27 & 6/1) vs. the Reds, allowing only two runs in his 14.1 IP. Was a 2-0 winner on 5/27 at CIN, but dropped a 5-1 decision in his 6/1 start at Busch, allowing just two runs in his 8.0 IP. Posted his 1500th career strikeout with a third-inning K of Pokey Reese on 6/1.
- Did not earn a decision in his 6/23 outing vs. SF, a 6-5 Cards win, but did hit his second career home run - a solo shot to lead off the third inning off Kirk Rueter. Allowed a first-inning homer to Barry Bonds.
- Notched his 10th win of the year with an impressive outing vs. MIN on 7/17. Went 6.1 innings and allowed one run. Remained in the game after a one-hour, 17-minute rain delay in the fifth.
- Did not figure in the decision in a 4-3 loss at CHI on 7/27. Allowed a first-inning homer to Delino DeShields, but then retired 10 of the next 11 batters before Mark McGwire's two-out error extended the fourth inning. After a walk and a double, Kile was hit in the face by a Robert Machado line drive. He remained in the game until the sixth, but then had to come out. He surpassed the 2,000-inning plateau for his career in the game.
- Blanked ATL for 8.0 IP as he out-dueled Greg Maddux in a 4-0 win vs. the Braves on 8/1 at Busch. Walked just one and fanned eight.
- Recorded his second CG of the season (28th career) in a 3-1 win at MON on 8/7. Held the Expos hitless for the first 5.1

innings and allowed a total of just four hits. Javier Vazquez, his opposing moundsman, also had a CG in the 2-hour, 16-minute contest.

- Won his 15th game at HOU on 9/26, when he pitched 7.0 scoreless innings and allowed just four hits and two walks while striking out 10 in the 5-1 Cards win.

2001 POSTSEASON – Pitched one game in the Division Series vs. Arizona...started Game 3 at St. Louis and did not earn a decision in the 5-3 loss...went 6.0 innings and allowed two runs on three hits, with five walks and five strikeouts...he had arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder in November.

1998 – Signed with Colorado in the off-season and worked a club-record 230.1 innings and tied the team record with a personal-best 35 starts...it marked the third straight year he had made 30 or more starts and worked 200 or more innings...also set team records for strikeouts in a game (14), consecutive scoreless innings by a starter (17.0, broke his own record in '99), most innings pitched in one start (10.0) and fewest hits allowed in a complete game (2)...tied club marks for hitless innings to start a game (5.1) and longest losing streak (eight games)...went 6.0 or more innings in 29 of 35 starts and lasted at least seven innings 19 times...went exactly two months (11 games/10 starts) between victories, from 5/10 to 7/10...allowed two or fewer runs in five of his 10 starts over that span and the Rockies were held to one run in four of his losses and were shut out in another...went 6-3 with a 3.60 ERA, 16 walks and 67 strikeouts in his final 10 games...started on three days rest twice in 1998, losing both games and allowing 13 runs over 9.0 innings...tied Tom Glavine for the league high among pitchers and set a Colorado single-season record with 18 hits...made third pinch-running appearance of his career (two in 1996)...earned first victory in a Colorado uniform on Opening Day (3/31) at ARI with 7.0 innings of one-run ball...picked up a career-high three hits 4/10 vs. CIN...hurled complete-game shutout 4/30 at NY, fanning pinch-hitter Craig Paquette in the sixth for his 1000th career strikeout...tossed 17.0 consecutive scoreless innings 4/30 to 5/10...left 5/5 game at PHI after taking a line drive off the right knee, but made his next start 5/10 at MON...made first relief appearance since 1996 at SD on 7/5...first win at Coors Field as a Rockie came in his first start after the All-Star break, an 11-2 victory over SF on 7/10...matched his career low for innings pitched in a start 8/4 at PIT, surrendering seven runs in 1.2 innings...set the club record for strikeouts in a game and established a new career high with 14 at MON on 8/20...allowed just a ninth-inning run in a 3-1, two-hit win 9/10 vs. FLA...beat Kevin Brown and the Padres 1-0 with 10.0 innings pitched 9/20 at SD, where he allowed only one runner past first base and retired 19 of the final 20 batters he faced in the victory; Dave Veres pitched a scoreless 11th to preserve the win.

1999 – Went 8-13 in his second season with Colorado...finished the season with 190.2 innings pitched, failing to reach 200 innings for the first time since 1995...issued a career-high and club-record 109 walks, with 35 of those runners (32 percent) coming around to score...went 5-3 with a 7.33 ERA at home, 3-10 with a 5.89 ERA on the road...was 1-0 with a 1.20 ERA in two starts against HOU...made second straight Opening Day start, holding the Padres to two runs in 6.2 innings in Monterrey, Mexico on 4/4...dropped a 2-0 decision to Kevin Brown 4/10 at LA, surrendering two solo home runs in 7.0 innings...allowed two runs on eight hits, one walk and four strikeouts in a complete game win 4/29 at STL, tying Roger Bailey for first on Colorado's all-time complete game list with five...broke his own club record when he compiled a string of 17.2 consecutive scoreless innings pitched from 5/20 to 6/5...extended his Veterans Stadium shutout streak to 13.2 innings with 7.2 scoreless frames 5/30 at PHI...reached the 1,500-inning milestone 6/5 vs. MIL...saw the Rockies relinquish the largest lead in club history when the Cubs rallied from a 9-1 deficit for a 13-12 victory 6/22 at Coors Field; left with a three-run lead after allowing seven runs in 5.2 innings...his outing vs. CHI marked the first time in 232 career starts that he failed to record a strikeout...avenged an earlier loss to Kevin Brown and the Dodgers with an 8-4 victory at home on 7/5...experienced a tired arm in September and was shut down for the remainder of the season after his 9/17 start vs. LA.

2000 – Made a strong bid for Cy Young honors in his first season with the Cardinals, establishing himself as one of the majors' top starting pitchers in 2000...Darryl and the Braves' Tom Glavine (21 wins) finished as the NL's lone 20-game winners...capped off brilliant season with his career-high 20th win in final start of the season, 9/28 at SD...Darryl became the first Cardinals pitcher in 15 years to win 20 games, after Joaquin Andujar and John Tudor each won 21 games for the Cardinals in 1985...his strikeout-to-walk ratio for the year was better than 3:1 (192-58) and he worked seven or more innings 21 times while averaging 6.2 IP per start...ranked among NL leaders in wins (20), strikeouts (192), day ERA (2.57), complete games (5), innings pitched (232.1), home runs allowed (33) and hit batsmen (13)...was selected for the third time in his career to the NL All-Star team and posted a two-inning, two-hit, scoreless stint (he was the only NL hurler to go two innings)...won each of his final six decisions and seven of his last eight...owned a 2.82 ERA (51.0 IP/ 16 er) and allowed just 12 walks and four home runs during his season ending six-game winning streak...53 of his 101 earned runs allowed came in his nine losses (9.35 ERA; 51.0 IP)...his ERA in his other 25 games was 2.38 (48 ER/ 181.1 IP)...his season ending ERA stood at 3.91, but if you took out his dismal performance from 4/13 at COL (1.2 IP/8 ER) it reduced down to 3.63...his walk total (58) was the lowest of his career, and he surpassed the 200 innings pitched marker for the fourth time in five years...fashioned a season best string of 24.2-straight walkless innings from 8/22 to 9/7...was 11-5, 3.67 ERA in his18 starts at home...the 11 wins at Busch tied Darryl for the second-highest single-season total in stadium history...made his third-straight Opening Day start on 4/3 vs. the Cubs and posted a 7-1 win...won his seventh game on 5/23 vs. FLA, 10-3...went eight innings, allowed two runs and had a season-high 11 strikeouts...posted his 8th win of the year and 100th of his career with an eight-inning, three-hit performance against CLE on 6/2...matched up against Randy Johnson in an outstanding pitching dual at Bank One Ballpark on 7/20, but did not earn a decision in the 3-2 loss...Darryl faced the minimum number of batters and allowed just one hit through five innings before giving up a one-out solo HR to Hanley Frias in the sixth to knot the score at 1-1...went eight innings and allowed just the one run on three hits, with nine strikeouts and no walks, as Tony Womack hit a two-run homer in the ninth off Dave Veres for the 3-2 decision...Darryl collected a base hit and walk off Johnson...facing the Diamondbacks for the 2nd time in six days, earned his 12th win with an 8-4 victory on 7/26 at STL, allowing just one earned run in 8.0+ innings pitched...tossed his eighth career shutout and 23rd career complete game with a 4-0 blanking of the Expos on 7/31 at Olympic Stadium...threw just 106 pitches and allowed six hits, as only one Expo batter reached third base on the night...collected his third complete game 8/16 at CHI, allowing one run on six hits...his 6th-inning strikeout of Sammy Sosa was No. 1400 for Darryl's career...2000 POSTSEASON – Was Game 2 starter vs. ATL in Division Series and turned in a 10-4 win, allowing just two runs on four hits in his 7.0 innings of work...dropped both of his starts in NLCS vs. NY Mets...was a 6-2 loser to Mike Hampton in Game 1, allowing three runs in his 7.0 IP...was also saddled with a loss in Game 4 start, as Mets touched him up for seven runs in just 3.0 IP...four of the runs allowed came in his first inning of work when he allowed four consecutive doubles to begin the inning.

MISC: Graduated from Norco (Calif.) High School...attended Chaffey Junior College in California, where he compiled a 10-2 record with 125 strikeouts in 110 innings in 1988...Darryl and his wife Flynn reside in Englewood, Colo., with their twins, son Kannon and daughter Sierra (1/15/97) and son Ryker Davis (8/19/01)...sponsors "Kile's Kids" program once a home stand providing kids a chance to meet he and his teammates and watch batting practice and enjoy dinner and a game...was honored by St. Louis Chapter of BBWAA in 2000 with Stockton/Broeg Award for outstanding achievement.

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Montreal Expos with pitcher Dustin Hermanson in a trade for third baseman Fernando Tatis and pitcher Britt Reames, December 14, 2000.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002, with a club option for 2003.

2001 SEASON:

- Durable lefthander finished his first season in a Redbirds uniform in fine fashion, going 3-3 with nine saves.
- His 1.80 ERA ranked second among National League relievers.
- Appeared in a Cardinals' single-season record 89 games, marking the third consecutive season that he led the senior circuit in games pitched.
- Converted nine of his 10 save opportunities and led the Cardinals staff with 20 holds.
- Received one vote for N.L. Most Valuable Player honors by the BBWAA.
- Posted a microscopic 1.42 ERA (7 ER/44.1 IP) in 51 night games.
- Matched a season-high with 2.0 innings pitched on 10/6 vs. HOU, earning his ninth save.
- Did not allow a home run to a lefthanded batter all season and allowed just three homers overall (5/18 at PHI to Jimmy Rollins and 10/2 and 10/4 at MIL - both to Richie Sexson).
- Had not allowed a home run in 66 games (52.2 innings pitched) from 5/19 to 9/30, but was tagged for homers by MIL's Richie Sexson in consecutive appearances.
- Recorded his eighth save by closing out 9/17 win vs. MIL with 1.1 scoreless IP.
- Had his career-best 28.2 scoreless innings streak snapped on 9/4 at SD. He'd been unscored upon in 30-straight games dating back to 7/3 at MIL.
- Held opponents scoreless in 38 of 40 outings (6/30-9/30), including 30 consecutive appearances 7/5-9/1.
- Blanked the Cubs for a season-high 2.0 innings pitched on 8/24, earning his 18th hold.
- Earned his third win on 8/18 vs. PHI (1.1 IP) and also collected his first major league hit off Dennis Cook.
- Notched his seventh save on 8/10 at NY with a scoreless 10th inning.
- Claimed a win (#2) on 7/16 and garnered a hold on 7/17, both vs. MIN.
- Suffered his third loss on 7/3 at MIL with two runs and a season-high four hits allowed in the eighth inning of a 2-0 loss.
- Had a 14.2 scoreless innings streak snapped on 6/21 vs. CHI.
- Earned his first Cardinals win on 5/2 at FLA. Entered with the bases loaded in the ninth inning and pitched 1.1 innings before the Cards took the lead in the 11th.
- Notched his second save vs. ARI on 4/18 when he entered in the 9th inning and induced Greg Colbrunn into a 6-4-3 double play, then retired Reggie Sanders.
- Suffered his first defeat 4/12 vs. COL, allowing three ninth-inning runs. The loss snapped his scoreless streak at 7.0 IP.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1993 - Started the season at Burlington in the Appalachian League before being sent to Class A-Watertown on 6/29...led the team with two complete games...tossed a complete-game shutout vs. Auburn on 9/5, his last start of the season.

1994 - Was named the winner of the Bob Feller Award as Cleveland's best minor league pitcher...his 18 wins broke the Columbus (A) record and tied for the most wins in the minors...led the South Atlantic League in wins, innings pitched (185.2), and strikeouts (174) and tied for first in starts (28)...went 10-1 between 6/28 and 8/2.

1995 - Spent the season at Canton-Akron (AA)...was limited to just 14 starts due to a mid-season arm injury that sidelined him for two and a half months...was 1-2 with 3.50 ERA through his first eight starts before going on the disabled list on 5/23 with a sprained UCL ligament in his left elbow...was activated on 8/5...posted a 1-1 record with a 1.02 ERA in six starts after coming off the disabled list...pitched in the Arizona Fall League with the Tempe Rafters, where he pitched exclusively in relief for the first time in his career...was 1-3 with a 4.88 ERA in 14 outings.

1996 - Played the entire season at Canton-Akron (AA)...allowed a team-high 16 homers...made 24 starts in the Eastern League with his only relief appearance coming on 7/28 at Binghamton (4.2 IP)...started the season on the disabled list after a spring training illness (flu and food poisoning)...was activated on 4/20 to start that night vs. Norwich...went 3-1 with a 2.58 ERA over his first eight starts through 5/30...struck out a Canton franchise-record 13 batters on 8/9 vs. New Britain...was voted Eastern League Pitcher of the Week for the effort (8/5-11)...pitched for the Oriente Caribbeans of the Venezuelan Winter League and was 3-0 with a 0.36 ERA in 14 games.

1997 - Opened the year with the Indians, but was traded to the Expos on 8/1...was pitching at Triple-A Buffalo at the time of the trade...pitched a career-long 4.2 innings of relief at SEA on 4/9, allowing two runs on seven hits...made only start of the season on 5/24 vs. BAL, allowing three runs (two earned) on three hits in 1.2 innings...was optioned to Buffalo on 5/25 after 19 appearances, one start, and a 5.01 ERA...was recalled by the Indians for one appearance on 6/29, pitching 3.0 innings of relief against the Yankees, allowing four runs on seven hits...his only wild pitch of the season came on 9/22 at ATL; with the bases loaded in the 11th inning, he struck out Mike Mordecai on a wild pitch, allowing the winning run to score as the Braves celebrated the N.L. East title...collected his first N.L. win on 9/25 vs. FLA, pitching 2.0 scoreless innings of relief in a 3-2 win...with Montreal, made 26 appearances, striking out 20 batters in 26.1 innings...was 0-2, 9.00 ERA in 12 appearances in August and 1-1, 2.92 ERA in 14 appearances in September.

1998 - Was the best revelation on the Expos' staff...was used as a left-handed specialist as well as a set-up man for closer Ugueth Urbina...set the team record for most appearances by a lefthanded reliever (78), surpassing Dan McGinn's 30-year-old mark of 74 in 1969...was optioned on 3/30 to Ottawa (AAA), where he made two appearances before his recall on 4/10 when Mike Maddux was placed on the disabled list...despite missing the first nine games of the season while at Ottawa, finished second in the N.L. with 78 appearances, tied with Robb Nen of the Giants and Chuck McElroy of the Rockies...did not allow an earned run in 15 appearances, spanning 14.2 IP from 5/11 to 6/12...only run allowed came in the 11th inning on 6/7 at TB, costing him a loss...recorded first major league save 8/9 vs. ARI, striking out a then career-high four batters...tossed 2.0 scoreless innings on 9/5 at FLA, striking out four for the second time in his career...retired 16 batters in a row from 9/2 to 9/8 before hitting the Braves' Tony Graffanino with a pitch in the seventh inning on 9/8 at home...could have led the league in appearances if not for suffering a sprained left knee in a fluke accident while warming up in the bullpen at PHI on 9/19...his spike got caught in the wet clay and he lost his balance behind the mound...the injury sidelined him for the last eight games of the season...at the time of the injury, he was leading the N.L. in appearances, three more than Beck...did not allow a run in his last nine appearances, spanning 9.2 innings pitched...allowed four hits while striking out 11 during the run.

1999 - Once again was the work-horse in the Expos' pen as he led the National League with 82 appearances, two more than the Mets' Turk Wendell...eclipsed his own record for most appearances by an Expos' lefty and finished second all-time for games pitched by an Expo in a season, one more than Dale Murray (1976)...the only lefty in the Expos' pen, he struck out 69 batters in 69.2 innings while holding opposing batters to a .218 average...allowed only 12 of 68 (17.6%) inherited runners to score...was not given a save opportunity in 1999...was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 4/11 to 4/26 with inflammation in his left elbow...picked up first win of the season on 5/19 vs. PHI after tossing 2.0 scoreless innings...struck out five batters in 2.2 innings of work on 5/23 vs. MIL, his longest outing of the season...was 2-0 with a 1.59 ERA in 20 appearances in August, allowing three earned runs in 17.0 innings while striking out 26...made history on 8/17 at SF when he became the 14th pitcher in ML history to strikeout the first four batters in an inning; retired Brent Mayne, Shawn Estes (wild pitch), Marvin Benard and Ramon Martinez in the seventh frame...also fanned Barry Bonds and J.T. Snow to bring his K total to a career-high six in 1.2 innings of work, one shy of the club record for consecutive strikeouts held by Steve Renko (1972) and Pedro Martinez (1997)...was the Expos' representative for the Branch Rickey Award, handed out annually to honor MLB's outstanding individual who personifies "Service Above Self."

2000 - Posted a fine season for Montreal and finished the year as the major league co-leader in appearances (83) with the White Sox Kelly Wunsch...Steve's 83 games pitched ranked second in Expos history (Mike Marshall had 92 in 1973)...was used sparingly in the final weeks of the season (only five appearances after 9/16), but finished with a then-career high in games, one more than his 82 in 1999...had 11 saves and a 2.10 ERA (12 ER-51.1 IP) before the All-Star break...notched three saves, and a 5.81 ERA (20 ER-31.0 IP) after the break...was the Expos' nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award, given annually for excellence in community involvement...appeared in five straight games twice (4/18-22 and 6/1-5)...set a Montreal club record by saving five games in as many days, 6/1-5...had a 15.2 inning scoreless streak, spanning 16 games, from 4/25 to 5/23...the streak was snapped on 5/27 at SD after allowing one walk before closer Dustin Hermanson allowed a three-run homer in eighth...inherited the closer role after the loss of Ugueth Urbina and Dustin Hermanson's return to the rotation on 5/31...assumed the role for June, July and August and finished the season with 14 saves, just three shy of tying the club record for most saves by a lefty (17 by Woodie Fryman in 1980)...Steve was the Expos' first lefty closer since Fryman in 1982...had already appeared in 71 games by the end of August and had an effective 2.95 ERA...blew his fourth and final save of the season on 8/13 vs. COL, allowing two inherited runners to score on a ninth-inning triple by Neifi Perez...September was not kind to his ERA, as he surrendered eight runs in his last 8.0 innings of work to raise it to 3.50...was ejected on 9/16 vs. the Mets after arguing a double-play call at first base in the eighth by Ian Lamplugh.

MISC: Graduated from Lewisburg (Pa.) High School and attended West Virginia University, where he was Atlantic 10 Conference Pitcher of the Year in 1993...enjoys playing basketball and football...spends the off-season as a high school wrestling coach...he and his wife, Martine, were married on 10/16/99 in Montreal.

FIRST BASEMAN

FULL NAME: Constantino Martinez
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 210 BATS: Left Throws: Right
BORN: 12/7/67 at Tampa, Florida
OPENING DAY AGE: 34 M.L. SERVICE: 10.090
BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a free agent, December 18, 2001.
CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2004, with a club option for 2005.

2001 SEASON:

- Durable veteran batted .280 with 34 HRs and 113 RBIs in 154 games (146 starts at first base and two at DH).
- His 34 home runs were 18 more than his 2000 total of 16 and were his most since hitting a career-high 44 in 1997.
- Has driven in at least 100 runs in six of his last seven seasons.
- Has driven in 785 runs as a first baseman over the last seven seasons. Houston's Jeff Bagwell (838 RBI) is the only first baseman in the Majors to drive in more runs during the same seven-season span.
- Batted .305 with 22 HRs and 66 RBIs at home. The 22 homers were the most by any player at Yankee Stadium since Don Mattingly hit 22 in 1985. No player has hit more than 22 in a season at Yankee Stadium since 1961, when both Roger Maris (30) and Mickey Mantle (24) did it.
- Eighteen of his 34 homers came in the sixth inning or later.
- Hit his third career Opening Day home run on 4/4 vs. KC.
- Hit his ninth career grand slam on 4/20 vs. BOS and became only the fifth player in Major League history to hit a grand slam in seven consecutive seasons (1995-01), joining Willie McCovey (nine straight years, 1964-72), Vern Stephens (7), Gil Hodges (7) and Cecil Fielder (7). Boston's Manny Ramirez (also 7 straight years) joined the group on 8/19.
- Had back-to-back three-hit games for the eighth time in his career on 4/20 and 5/1 at MIN.
- Went 2-for-4 with two two-run homers 6/13 vs. MON.
- His error on 6/20 at DET snapped his 77-game errorless streak, dating back to 2000. It was the second-longest errorless streak of his career after an 85-game streak in 1996-97.

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a free agent, December 16, 1999.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2004.

2001 SEASON:

- Regarded as one of the best defensive catchers in the game, Mike continued his excellent play behind the plate in 2001. Committed just four errors in 121 games (1002.0 innings) and threw out 45% (25-of-55) of attempted base stealers.
- Only 55 runners attempted to steal off Mike after he threw out 46 of 90 (51%) would-be base thieves in 2000.
- Picked five runners off base (four off second and one off first).
- Clubbed seven home runs, but his batting average dipped from .261 in 2000 to .218 in 2001.
- Signed a three-year contract extension (through the 2004 season) on Opening Day (4/2).
- Also on Opening Day, poked a second-inning double off Mike Hampton and picked two runners off base -- Jeff Cirillo off second and Brent Mayne off first.
- Put the Cards on the board when he homered (#2) off Randy Johnson to lead off the third inning on 4/8 at ARI.
- Went 2-for-5 with three RBIs and two runs scored on 4/29 vs. NY.
- Nabbed three Marlins base runners in the first two innings on 5/1 at FLA. Stayed in the game after bruising his left thumb on a foul tip later in the contest, but missed the team's next two games.
- Batted .435 during a season-high seven-game hitting streak, 6/23-7/1.
- Homered (#3), doubled and had three RBIs 6/3 vs. CIN.
- Matched his career high with three hits on 6/9 at COL.
- On 6/23, ended an 0-for-11 skid with a game-tying RBI in the eighth inning, then came back to deliver a two-out, game-winning RBI in the ninth inning of a 6-5 Cardinals win over SF.
- Had two hits and the game-winning RBI on 7/17 vs. MIN.
- Hit a three-run HR (#5) on 8/14 vs. CIN and delivered a two-out, two-run double 8/16 vs. Reds.
- Collected an RBI in five straight games, 9/2-10.
- Hit his seventh homer off LA's Mike Trombley on 9/9.
- Went 2-for-4 on 9/10 at MIL.
- Had back-to-back two-hit games on 9/26 and 9/28.

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Boston Red Sox with catcher David Benham in a trade for pitcher Kent Mercker, August 24, 1999.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002.

2001 SEASON:

- Lefthander returned from a broken pitching hand in 2000 and appeared in 51 games (10 starts) in 2001.
- Went 3-4 with a 3.24 ERA, fanning 72 batters while walking just 33 in 89.0 innings pitched.
- Went 2-4 with a 5.13 ERA as a starter, as the Cards went 3-7 in his 10 starts.
- Ended the season in the bullpen - his third stint in the pen during the 2001 campaign. Made 40 relief appearances on the year and allowed just 2 runs in his last 24 games (22.2 IP).
- Overall he allowed just five runs in 41.2 IP in relief (1.08 ERA). Began the year by working 14.1 scoreless innings of relief in 12 appearances through 5/6.
- Retired 31 of his 40 (78%) first batters faced in relief.
- Was tough against lefthanded batters, holding them to 13 hits and one HR with 27 strikeouts in 98 at-bats (.133 BA).
- Fanned Mark Grace and Luis Gonzalez to end 4/7 game at ARI.
- Made his longest career relief outing vs. MON on 4/26 when he pitched 4.0 innings in a 4-3, 11-inning loss. Also fanned five batters in the game.
- Had his scoreless innings streak snapped at 16.0 IP on 5/10 vs. PIT, but earned his first big-league win, striking out the side in his first of 2.0 innings worked.

- Made his first major league start on 5/18 at PHI and blanked the Phillies over 5.0 IP, allowing just one hit. Took a no-decision in the 5-4 defeat.
- Posted a 21:4 strikeout-to-walk ratio in May.
- Earned his second win of the year and first as a starter with 6.0 IP at MIL on 5/24. Fanned six batters and walked one, as all three runs came on two Richie Sexson home runs. Collected his first career base hit with a fourth-inning single off Ben Sheets.
- Suffered his first loss in a five-inning outing vs. MIL on 5/29, as the Cards were blanked 7-0.
- Went without a decision in his start at KC on 6/14, when he pitched 5.2 innings and allowed two runs on six hits. Left the game with the score knotted at 2-2, but the Cards fell 3-2 in an extra-inning contest when Mike Sweeney poked a one-out solo homer in the 13th.
- Made three relief outings between his 6/20 and 7/4 starts.
- Pitched a career-high 6.2 innings and fanned a career-best eight batters in his 7/4 start at MIL. Allowed no runs and just three hits in the outing, which the Cards won 7-2. Mike started in place of Darryl Kile, who was pushed back a game due to back stiffness.
- Compiled an 11.0-inning scoreless streak over his previous four-plus outings prior to the 7/13 loss vs. DET.
- Hit the first home run of his professional career off Chris Nichting on 8/21 at CIN. It was only his second ML hit.
- Earned his first professional save on 9/10 at MIL with 3.0 scoreless innings pitched and four strikeouts.

2001 POSTSEASON – Made one appearance in the Division Series vs. Arizona and was the losing pitcher in Game 3 - allowing three runs on four hits in just 0.2 innings of work, as the Diamondbacks came back for a 5-3 win.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1992 – Had outstanding season for Tribe after his selection in the second round of the June free-agent draft...led the Appalachian League in ERA (1.01) and was tied for fifth in wins with seven...his opponent's BA (.156) was the best among Appy League starters, as was his baserunners per 9.0 IP (9.1)...fanned a season-high 11 on 7/15 vs. Huntington...was assigned to Watertown on 8/27...his overall ERA of 1.35 ranked sixth among all short-season starters while his .172 average against was tied for third....was named the No. 2 prospect in the Appalachian League by Baseball America.

1993 – Missed the entire season after undergoing surgery on 5/14 to repair a torn rotator cuff...surgery was performed by Dr. Louis Keppler in Cleveland, OH...his only action came during instructional league play following the regular season.

1994 – Had a solid season at Columbus after missing the entire 1993 season due to shoulder injury...struck out a season high nine in 6.0 innings pitched on 9/3...fanned eight in 5.1 IP on 6/20.

1995– Spent the entire season with Canton-Akron of the Eastern League...won three-straight starts, 4/10-22...was placed on the disabled list on 6/7 with elbow tendinitis after dropping three-straight starts...was reinstated to the active roster on 6/28.

1996 – Was again at Canton-Akron (AA) for the entire season...came on strong over the final two months of the season...led the team in starts (27) and finished second on the club in innings pitched (162.1 IP)...started the season by dropping his first six decisions...was 0-6 with a 6.26 ERA over his first nine starts through 5/23 and was 2-8, 5.27 ERA over his first 15 starts through the end of June...was 7-3 with a 4.06 ERA during the final two months of the season (12 starts)...won five-straight starts between 7/5-26, going 5-0 with a 3.41 ERA...went the distance for complete games in three of his last seven starts...fanned a season-high nine on 7/21 at Reading.

1997– Began the season by making five starts for Class-AAA Buffalo, but was returned to Akron on 5/14 after going 0-2 with a 7.71 ERA...pitched well after joining Akron, finishing second on the club in wins (six), complete games (three) and innings pitched (113.0) despite joining the team six weeks into the season...was a combined 6-10 with a 4.43 ERA in 24 starts for the year...tossed back-to-back nine-inning complete games in late July...tossed a five-hit complete game shutout at Norwich on 7/21...also had complete game efforts on 7/26 vs. New Haven and 7/31 vs. Harrisburg, but lost both games...earned Eastern League Pitcher of the Week honors, 7/21-27...was 1-4 with a sparkling 2.48 ERA in seven July starts...played for Aragua during the Venezuelan Winter League season.

1998 – Enjoyed his first full season of Triple-A action, finishing second on the Buffalo team in wins (nine), starts (23) and innings pitched (130.1)...did not lose from 7/17 to 8/22, winning four-straight decisions over a span of eight games...made his lone relief appearance, the first of his pro career, on 8/22 at Rochester -- tossed five shutout innings while yielding four hits...was 3-1 with a 3.51 ERA in six July starts...allowed a team-high 19 home runs, including 16 by righthanded batters...was 1-0 with a 3.07 ERA in three postseason outings for the Bisons...his win was lone victory for Buffalo in the Triple-A World Series vs. New Orleans...pitched for Licey in the Dominican Winter League, going 3-0 with a 1.13 ERA.

1999 – Pitched for four different teams and three organizations, including Buffalo (AAA) and Akron (AA) of the Cleveland organization, Trenton (AA) of the Boston organization and Arkansas (AA) of the Cardinals organization...made 25 relief appearances for Buffalo (1-2, 7.59 ERA) before being sent to Akron (AA) on 6/21...he made six starts for the Akron Aeros, going 0-5...was traded to the Red Sox organization on 8/3 in exchange for minor league shortstop Jose Olmeda, and was assigned to Trenton (AA) of the Eastern League...after just three starts for the Trenton Thunder, he was again traded, this time to the Cardinals along with minor league catcher David Benham in a deal for pitcher Kent Mercker on 8/24...he was then assigned to Arkansas (AA) of the Texas League...made two starts for the Travelers and tossed a one-hitter in his final start, a 4-0 shutout at Shreveport in the opening game of 9/1 DH...he allowed a second inning single to Pedro Feliz, whom he promptly picked off first base...following the pickoff, he retired the next 16 batters in order as he extended his scoreless innings streak to 12 following the trade from Trenton...allowed just three hits and one walk in his 12 shutout innings pitched for Arkansas...he struck out 10 while earning the win in each of his two starts.

2000 – Saw his first Major League action, appearing in 14 games with the Cardinals before suffering a fractured left hand while injuring himself following 7/15 appearance at Comiskey Park...Began the year at Memphis (AAA), where he went 3-1 with a 3.12 ERA in nine starts...he fanned 50 in 52.0 IP at Memphis and held the opposition to a .182 batting average...allowed two runs or fewer in three consecutive starts for Memphis, 4/19-29 (20.0 IP, 4 ER) and through 5/3 he ranked second in the Pacific Coast League with his 2.03 ERA...his contract was purchased by the Cardinals on 5/28 and he made his ML debut on 5/31 at ARI, walking the lone batter he faced...appeared in nine games during June...worked a scoreless 2.0 IP vs. the Reds on 7/4 in which he fanned three...suffered a fractured fourth metacarpal and dislocation in his left hand after slaming his hand in frustration following 7/15 relief outing at CWS...went on the disabled list the next day and was sidelined for the remainder of the season.

MISC: Graduated in 1991 from Woodbridge (Va.) Senior High School where he played baseball...played one year of baseball in 1992 for Montgomery Junior College in Rockville, Md., before being drafted by the Indians...enjoys fishing and golf...resides in Woodbridge, Va.

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in the 24th round of June 1994 free-agent draft.
CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002.

2001 SEASON:

- Spent the bulk of the season at Triple-A Memphis before being recalled on 8/31.
- Appeared in two games for the Cardinals and went hitless in two at-bats. Each of his three career major league hits have been home runs (all three came in 2000).
- Committed just one error in 91 games behind the plate for Memphis and led Pacific Coast League catchers with a .998 fielding percentage.
- Batted .261 with 22 doubles, 11 homers and 42 RBIs in 94 games for the Redbirds.
- Posted a .333 batting average vs. lefthanded pitchers and a .243 mark vs. righties.
- Hit .290 on the road and .229 at home.
- Collected five doubles in a game on 5/1 at Colorado Springs.
- Had a season-high five RBIs on 5/6 at Salt Lake City.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1994 – Opened his career at Johnson City and batted .246 with six home runs in 59 games...threw out 16 of 54 (30%) would-be base stealers...did not commit an error in 25 games (119 chances) in August...went 1-for-3 with a home run as a pinch-hitter...participated in the Cardinals' Winter Instructional League.

1995 – Played at Class-A Peoria and batted .268 in 65 games...hit .333 at home, but just .227 on the road...posted a .341 batting average after 8/1...hit .438 with a homer in seven games vs. Burlington.

1996 – Played at Class-A St. Petersburg and batted .271 with 52 RBIs in 114 games...tied for seventh in the Cardinals farm system with 25 doubles...swatted three doubles and drove in two runs in a 4-3 win at Sarasota on 5/29...went 3-for-5 with five RBIs vs. Dunedin on 7/22...went 4-for-4 and drove in both runs in a 2-1 win vs. Dunedin on 8/2.

1997 – Moved up to Class-AA Arkansas...batted .240 with five homers and 30 RBIs...collected two hits and drove in a pair of runs in a win vs. Wichita on 7/3.

1998 – Spent the entire season at Class-AAA Memphis and batted over .300 (.318) for the first time in his career...was limited to just 58 games after two stints on the disabled list (4/7 to 4/17 and 5/16 to 5/29)...batted .423 (33-for-78) in 27 games through the end of June, but batted just .200 (11-for-55) in July and .240 (6-for-25) in August...played 14 games as designated hitter and hit .382 (21-for-55) in that role...caught in 32 games and batted .300 (30-for-100) with five homers and 11 RBIs...put together two nine-game hitting streaks...boasted 16 multihit games, including four three-hit efforts.

1999 – Split season between Class-AA Arkansas and Class-AAA Memphis...batted over .300 at both stops, including a .307 mark for the Travelers...caught 40 games for Arkansas and 25 for Memphis...was disabled, 4/25 to 6/1, because of back soreness...hit safely in 14 straight games (20-for-46; .435) for Arkansas from 4/17 to 6/12, raising his BA from .300 to .394...batted .364 with five HRs in a 19-game span with Memphis from 7/27 to 8/18...belted a grand slam on 7/30 vs. Nashville. He hit .419 with runners in scoring position while at Memphis.

2000 – Served as the regular catcher for Memphis (AAA) and enjoyed a brief two-week stay at the big league level during which he wrote his name into the record books by hitting home runs in each of his first two Major League at-bats...rookie backstop was purchased from Memphis on 7/2, and he made his major league debut with a pinch-hitting appearance 7/4 vs. CIN, belting a one-out solo homer for his first big-league hit...became only the third Cardinal to homer in his first ML at-bat...made baseball history on 7/6 vs. CIN when he became the second player, and first National Leaguer, to homer in each of his first two at-bats

(the St. Louis Browns' Bob Nieman did it 9/14/51 at BOS)...stroked his third homer of the year, second pinch-hit round-tripper, in just his sixth major league at-bat on 7/15 at CWS...was optioned to Memphis on 7/21 and completed the season batting .263 with 5 HR's and 30 RBIs for the Redbirds...batted .435 during the Pacific Coast League playoffs and championship series and he hit .412 during the Triple-A World Series.

MISC: Graduated from Esperanza High School in Anaheim, Calif...captained the baseball and football squads...was named all-county in baseball...attended Pepperdine University, where he played baseball...also played baseball and football at the University of Utah...resides in Anaheim Hills, Calif., with his wife, Elizabeth...was signed by Cardinals scout Chuck Fick.

PLAYER PROFILE

MATT MORRIS 35

PITCHER

FULL NAME: Matthew Christian Morris

HEIGHT: 6-5 WEIGHT: 210 BATS: Right THROWS: Right

BORN: 8/9/74 at Middletown, New York.

OPENING DAY AGE: 27 (Turns 28 on August 9) M.L. SERVICE: 5.000

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2004.

2001 SEASON:

- Returned to the Cardinals rotation and posted the 45th 20-win season in club history. His All-Star campaign included a 22-8 record and 3.16 ERA in 34 starts.
- He became the first Cardinal to win 22 games since Bob Gibson won 23 in 1970. Matt also became the first Major League pitcher since Wilbur Wood in 1971 to win 20 games after not starting a game the prior season.
- Was named National League Comeback Player of the Year by Baseball Weekly, The Sporting News and the Players' Choice Award.
- Finished third in ballotting for the N.L. Cy Young Award and tied for 14th in voting for Most Valuable Player.
- His career record as a starter stands at 41-22 with a 3.04 ERA (185 ER/547.0 IP) in 84 starts.
- Went 15-2 with a 1.62 ERA (22 ER/122.0 IP) in 18 home games, including a 6-0 record and 1.80 ERA (9 ER/45.0 IP) in his last seven starts at Busch. Owns a 28-13, 2.40 career mark at Busch Stadium (62 games/49 starts).
- His 15 home wins established a Busch Stadium single-season record, breaking John Tudor's 1985 mark of 14.
- Went just 7-6 with a 5.15 ERA (54 ER/94.1 IP) in 16 road starts.
- The Cards won 24 of his 34 starts, including 23 of his last 31. St. Louis scored 194 runs in his starts, but just 18 in his eight losses. He worked 7+ innings in 20 of his 34 starts.
- Matt allowed just six home runs in his last 22+ games (142.0 IP) - two to Jim Thome on 7/6, one to Robert Machado on 7/29, one to V. Guerrero on 8/9 and one to Jose Hernandez on 9/19.
- Suffered an 11-2 loss at COL on 4/5, when he allowed 10 runs (six earned) on 11 hits in his 3.0-plus innings. The start was his first in the majors since 9/27/98.
- Compiled a string of 21.0 innings pitched without allowing an earned run from 4/21 to 5/2.
- Fanned 11 batters and allowed only two runs (one earned) but went without a decision at FLA on 5/2. Had his stretch of 36.0 IP without allowing a homer snapped in the ninth inning, when Cliff Floyd led off the frame with a shot to right to tie the game at 2-2. The Cards won 4-2 in 11 innings.
- Tossed his second career shutout and sixth career compelete game with a 7-0 win over PIT on 5/7. Allowed just four hits and walked one while fanning six.

- Posted his fifth-straight win with a 12-2 victory at PIT on 5/17. Fanned seven in the win, as the Cardinals completed a three-game sweep at PNC Park.
- Held a no-hitter for 6.2 IP on 6/7 at CHI, but settled for a no-decision in the Cards' 4-3, 10-inning loss. All three of the runs Matt allowed came with two outs.
- Became the N.L.'s second 10-game winner (after Curt Schilling) with a 7-3 win over SF on 6/24. Allowed two runs on seven hits in 6.0 IP, with four walks and four Ks.
- His 7/6 start at CLE was the shortest non-injury (and non-rain) start of his career, as he went just 2.1 innings and allowed eight runs on seven hits. His season ERA jumped from 2.65 (third in the NL) to 3.23.
- Matched his career high with his 12th win on 7/19 at HOU, when he allowed just a first-inning run and only five hits on the day in 8.0 innings pitched. Walked two in the first inning and retired the last 10 batters he faced and 14 of the last 15.
- Made his first career All-Star appearance at Seattle (7/10) and pitched a scoreless seventh inning, allowing one hit to NY's Jorge Posada.
- Allowed just two unearned runs in 8.0 innings of work, but the Cards were held to a season-low two hits in a 2-1 loss to HOU on 7/24.
- Went 6-0 with a 3.76 ERA (17 ER/ 40.2 IP) in August.
- Earned N.L. PLayer of the Week honors for 8/13-19.
- Celebrated his 27th birthday with a 9-6 win at MON on 8/9. In 6.2 innings of work he allowed five runs on 10 hits, including a two-run homer to V. Guerrero in the 7th.
- Posted his second CG of the season with a 7-1 win over CIN on 8/14. Took a two-hit shutout into the 8th, but allowed two hits, a walk and hit batter in that frame. Equaled a career mark by allowing four hits and threw a season-high 123 pitches.
- Tossed 7.0 shutout innings en route to his 19th win at SD on 9/4. Allowed only six hits and no walks while fanning five. Also collected his fifth RBI of the season with a bases-loaded walk in the second inning.
- Became the N.L.'s second 20-game winner with an 8-2 win over MIL on 9/19. Struck out a career-high 13 batters in 7.0 IP and won his eighth straight decision, the longest winning streak by a Cardinal since Garrett Stephenson did so at the beginning of the 2000 season. Jose Hernandez's fourth-inning HR snapped a 38.2-inning homerless streak for Morris.
- Had his eight-game winning streak snapped in a 9-3 loss on 9/24 at HOU. Matched his season high for runs allowed (eight) and failed to go five inn. for the 4th time.
- Blanked the Pirates for 8.0 innings in a 2-0 win on 9/29 as he became the single-season record holder for wins at Busch Stadium with 15. It was his sixth-straight winning decision at home.
- Won his 22nd game of the year, 10-3 at MIL on 10/4, pitching six shutout innings while striking out 10.

2001 POSTSEASON — Pitched brilliantly in the Division Series vs. Arizona, but the Cardinals lost both of his outings — 1-0 in Game 1 and 2-1 in Game 5...he went 0-1 with a 1.20 ERA, matching up against Curt Schilling in both games...Matt allowed just two runs in 15.0 innings of work, fanning 12 and walking five while allowing 13 hits.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1995 — Made an impressive professional debut, allowing just two hits in five innings, while striking out six in a 1-0 win over Pittsfield on 7/12...was promoted to St. Petersburg after his second win at New Jersey...faced the minimum 21 batters and struck out eight in a seven-inning, one-hit shutout over Sarasota in Game 1 of a doubleheader on 8/21...named Florida State League Pitcher of the Week for 8/21-27 after throwing six scoreless innings with nine strikeouts in a 3-1 win over Tampa...pitched for Cards' Winter Instructional League club, posting a 1.17 ERA with four walks and 20 strikeouts in 23 innings.

1996 — The workhorse of the organization, Morris led all Cardinals minor leaguers with 175 innings pitched, mostly at Class-AA Arkansas with one start for Class-AAA Louisville...his four shutouts for Arkansas led the Texas League and helped earn him a spot on the league's All-Star team...tied for second in the league with four complete games and 12 wins, tied for third with 27 starts, ranked fourth with 167 innings, fifth with 120 strikeouts and 10th with a 3.88 ERA...in the Cardinal organization, he tied for fourth in wins and tied for fifth with 129 strikeouts...his four complete games were all four-hit shutouts...in his first start of the season, tossed three-hit ball over six innings with seven strikeouts, earning an 11-2 victory 4/6 at Shreveport...struck out a season-high eight batters in an 8-2 triumph 4/26 vs. Tulsa...issued 10 walks in 64.2 innings (1.39 BB/9IP) over 10 starts, 6/5 - 7/26...won three consecutive starts, two by shutout, 6/29 - 7/11...promoted to Louisville in the season's final week...in his only Class-AAA start, struck out nine over eight innings in a 3-0 loss 9/1 vs. Indianapolis.

1997 — Turned in one of the top rookie seasons by a Cards pitcher, earning selection as The Sporting News' N.L. Rookie Pitcher of the Year and tying for second in N.L. Rookie of the Year voting conducted by the BBWAA...led all major league rookies in ERA (3.19) and strikeouts (149), and paced N.L. rookie hurlers with 12 wins, which tied Todd Stottlemyre for the team lead...yielded only 12 home runs in 217 innings, posting the fourth-best homers-to-innings ratio among N.L. pitchers...had his best stuff at Busch, going 9-5 with a 2.73 ERA in 21 starts...was 4-1 in June and had a 2.18 ERA in July...in interleague starts vs. the Indians, Twins and White Sox was a combined 2-0 with a 1.19 ERA (22.2 innings/three earned runs)...pitched his first complete game in the majors 5/23 at SF but lost 2-0 to Shawn Estes...pitched his second complete game of the season 9/22 at PIT but lost 3-1...retired the first 17 batters 5/1 vs. FLA en route to his first major league win, a 3-2 Cards victory...made his big-league debut 4/4 at HOU, allowing one run on seven hits in five-plus innings, but did not earn a decision in the Cards' 3-2 extra-innings loss...in his 8/5 "homecoming" to New York state, worked 8.1 innings vs. the Mets in the rain, but did not earn a decision in the Cards' 5-4, 10-inning loss. Left the game with a 4-3 lead, but NY rallied for single runs in the ninth and 10th...with the temperature hitting 104 degrees, pitched 7.2 innings (five hits, one run) to post a 3-1 win (No. 8) vs. FLA on 7/26...earned his third victory over the Marlins on 8/22 at FLA, his ninth win of the year...in his 33 starts, the Cards were 18-15 while averaging 4.6 runs per game...at the plate, batted .205 (15-for-73) with six RBIs. Had a pinch-hitting appearance in Cards' extra-innings loss at SD on 6/10.

1998 — Made just one start before the All-Star break due to a strained right shoulder that confined him to the disabled list...returned on 7/10 to make 16 starts in the second half, concluding his sophomore season with a club-low 2.53 ERA...led the staff with a 1.94 ERA at Busch (in 10 starts) and a 2.07 ERA in night games (11 starts)...yielded two earned runs or fewer in 12 of his 17 starts...had a stretch of 18 consecutive scoreless innings over his last three starts...the Cardinals were 11-6 when he took the mound...made his only start of the first half on 4/11 at SF, and allowed two runs in five innings but did not earn a decision...in his first start off the disabled list, 7/10 vs. HOU, pitched six shutout innings, struck out six and allowed only three hits...threw 70 pitches, including 59 for strikes, but did not earn a decision in the 6-3 win...gained his first victory 7/20 at SD, allowing just one run (a Greg Vaughn homer) and three hits in 6.1 innings...pitched a complete game 8/4 at MIL while lowering his career ERA below 3.00...scattered four hits in a 2-1 win...established a career high with 10 strikeouts vs. CIN on 9/6 but did not earn a decision in a two-run, seven-inning outing...pitched seven scoreless innings on 9/16 vs. PIT in a 4-0 win...collected his first career shutout and fifth career complete game on 9/22 vs. HOU, allowing just five hits while matching a career high with 10 strikeouts.

1999 — Missed the entire campaign after injuring his right elbow in spring training...was placed on the disabled list on 3/26 and Dr. Frank Jobe performed "Tommy John" surgery in Los Angeles on 4/13...the procedure replaced a torn ligament in Morris' pitching elbow with a tendon from his right hand.

2000 — Returned to majors after missing the entire 1999 season following elbow injury in the spring of 1999 that required "Tommy John" surgery...made five injury rehab starts during May following a stint with the Cardinals Extended Spring Training team...he was 1-2, 7.98 at Memphis in 14.2 IP and was 0-0, 6.43 for Arkansas in 7.0 IP... was recalled from injury rehab assignment and activated from DL on 5/28...finished second on the team among relievers with his 53.0 innings pitched and four saves...allowed just 3 HR's. Each time he allowed a home run during 2000, Matt also suffered a blown save...worked 3.0 scoreless inn. 5/30 at ARI for his first professional save...it marked his 1st ML relief outing and first game appearance since 9/27/98...went 3.1 innings at HOU on 7/23 - his longest outing of the season...won 8/12 at MIL for first time since 9/22/98...the four strikeouts matched his season high (6/4 vs.CLE)...fanned four of five batters faced to finish out 9/7 win vs. MON with 2.0 scoreless innings...2000 POSTSEASON — Worked a scoreless inning of relief in both Game 2 and Game 3 of the Division Series vs. ATL...made two relief appearances during NLCS versus NY Mets, including 2.2 innings of work in Game 2.

MISC: Graduated in 1992 from Valley Central H.S., where he played soccer, baseball and basketball...enjoys golf in his spare time...attended Seton Hall University, where he played baseball and was named first team All-American...played for Team USA in 1994...named top prospect among college pitchers by Baseball America...taped a PSA in 2000 for St. Louis Police Department for National Night Out Against Crime and is active with Cardinals Care in doing hospital visits...was signed by Cardinals' scout Joe Rigoli...was honored by the St. Louis chapter of BBWAA as their 2001 Comeback Award winner and he also shared Player of the Year honors with teammate Albert Pujols...due to become a free agent after the 2002 season, Matt signed a three-year contract extension on 1/4/02, working the entire deal without an agent...resides in Jupiter, Fla.

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in the 13th round of the June 1999 free-agent draft.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002.

2001 SEASON:

- In just his second season of professional baseball, Albert posted one of the finest rookie seasons in baseball history. Played a team-high 161 games and led the club a .329 batting average, 194 hits, 37 HRs, 47 doubles, 130 RBIs and 112 runs scored.
- In voting by the BBWAA, was named National League Rookie of the Year. Became just the ninth unanimous selection in league history.
- Finished fourth in voting for N.L. Most Valuable Player - the highest finish by a rookie in either league since Fred Lynn won the A.L. honor in 1975. Seattle rookie Ichiro Suzuki won A.L. MVP honors the very next week.
- Was chosen as Major League Rookie of the Year by Baseball America and was named the top N.L. rookie by Baseball Weekly, The Sporting News, Baseball Digest and the Players' Choice Awards. Was named the third baseman on the Topps' Rookie All-Star Team.
- Posted a .610 slugging percentage and received the N.L. Silver Slugger Award for the top slugging mark among third basemen.

RARE ROOKIES

Pujols became just the fourth rookie in Major League history (and first in the N.L.) to post a .300 batting average with 30 home runs, 100 RBIs and 100 runs scored.

Player, Team	Year	Avg	HR	RBI	Runs
Hal Trosky, CLE	1934	.330	35	142	117
Ted Williams, BOS	1939	.327	31	145	131
Walt Dropo, BOS	1950	.322	34	144	101
Albert Pujols, STL	2001	.329	37	130	112

- Set Cardinals rookie records for home runs, doubles, RBIs, extra-base hits, runs and total bases (360).
- Established National League rookie marks for RBIs, extra-base hits and total bases.
- Became just the fourth rookie in major league history, and the first National Leaguer, to hit at least .300 with 30 home runs, 100 RBIs and 100 runs scored. He became the first Cardinal do it since Stan Musial batted .330 with 35 homers, 126 RBIs and 120 runs in 1952.
- Was the first Redbird in 40 years to lead the club in batting, homers, RBIs and runs scored. Ken Boyer last did it in 1961, when he batted .329 with 24 HRs, 95 RBIs and 109 runs.
- Became the first Cardinal since Ted Simmons in 1973 (.310/13/91) to win the club's Triple Crown, and only the second rookie in club history to do it after Rogers Hornsby led the club with a .313 batting average, six homers and 65 RBIs as a rookie in 1916.
- Tied Montreal's Orlando Cabrera for the N.L. lead with 21 game-winning RBIs.
- Batted .336 (93-for-277) with 16 HRs and a team-leading 64 RBIs after the All-Star Break.
- Albert batted .354 (103-for-291) with 18 homers and 64 RBIs in 82 home games. Hit safely in 69 of 82 home contests and his home batting average ranked as the fourth-best in the N.L.
- The 21-year-old hit safely in 50 of STL's 52 series and in 121 of his 156 starts.
- His starts were at 3B (52), LF (37), RF (33), 1B (31), and DH (2). He is believed to be the first major leaguer to make 30 starts at four different positions in a single season.
- Made the club out of spring training when Bobby Bonilla was placed on the D.L. with a strained left hamstring. Albert led the club with 34 total bases in the spring and was second on the club in doubles (6) and batting average (.349).
- Made his major league debut by starting in left field on Opening Day (4/2) at COL and went 1-for-3.
- Had a homer, three doubles and eight RBIs in a three-game series at ARI (4/6-8). Hit his first M.L. homer on 4/6 and had three hits and three RBIs. Added three more RBIs on 4/7, including a two-run double in the first inning. Hit a two-run double off Randy Johnson on 4/8.
- On 4/9, became the first Cardinals rookie since 1954 (Wally Moon) to hit a home run in the club's home opener.
- Had a13-game hitting streak 4/6-20. Batted .447 (21-for-47) with four HRs during the streak.
- Went 7-for-10 (.700) in the April 13-15 series vs. HOU.
- Posted his first career two-homer game and had three RBIs 4/22 at HOU.
- Put his name in the record books by tying the major league rookie record for HRs (8) in the month of April with his solo shot off John Franco in the eighth inning on 4/28. He shares the April record with Kent Hrbek (1982) and Carlos Delgado ('94).
- Followed up a strong April showing with a .333 batting average, eight homers and 24 RBIs in May, earning his second straight N.L. Rookie of the Month honor.
- Posted his second two-homer game and had three RBIs on 5/28 vs. MIL.
- Homered (#20) for the fourth-straight game on 6/12 and had his ninth three-hit game on 6/14 at KC. Supplied seven of the Cards' 21 hits in the three-game series (6/12-14) vs. the Royals.

Led the club for the month.*

- Batted .330 (32-for-97) with 5 HRs and 15 RBIs in June.
- Had his worst month in July, when he batted .241 with four homers and 12 RBIs. July was the only month Albert failed to hit .300.
- Suffered through his biggest slump of the year on the club's nine-game road trip entering the All-Star break. Albert went just 2-for-33 (0-for-12 with RISP), as his season batting average slipped from .354 to .323 on the nine-game trip.
- Became the first Cardinals rookie to make the N.L. All-Star squad since LHP Luis Arroyo in 1955 and the first rookie since 3B Eddie Kazak ('49) to actually play in the game. Entered the game in the eighth inning and played second base for Jeff Kent. Albert walked on a full-count slider from Seattle's Jeff Nelson in his lone plate appearance.
- Homered for the first time in 93 at-bats on 7/14 vs. DET, setting the Cardinals rookie HR record with his 22nd of the season.
- Hit a 453-foot homer (#26) on 8/4 vs. FLA, the longest homer by a Cardinal at Busch Stadium in 2001.
- Had a career-best 17-game hitting streak (.406), and a 13-game run-scoring streak snapped on 8/17.
- Hit a 439-foot solo blast over Cinergy Field's "Black Monster" on 8/20 for HR #29.

- Lined his 31st HR on 8/29 vs. SD and became only the second Cardinals rookie to reach 100 RBIs, joining Ray Jablonski, who in 1953 had 112 RBIs as a rookie.
- Homered in all three games of the 9/2-5 series at SD.
- Was N.L. co-Player of Week for 9/17-23, batting .370 with two HRs and 15 RBIs. Three of his RBIs were game-winners, as the Cards went 6-1 for the week.
- Blasted his first career grand slam for his 20th game-winning-RBI on 9/21at PIT. Finished the game with his second five-RBI game of the week and set the N.L. rookie record for extra-base hits with 83, surpassing Johnny Fredericks' (Brooklyn) 1929 record of 82.
- His final home run (#37) was a two-run shot on 9/30 vs. PIT.
- Set a pair of rookie records on 10/2 at MIL, including the N.L. record for total bases (353), breaking Richie Allen's 1964 mark of 352. Albert also set the Cardinals' rookie record for runs scored (110) in that game.

2001 POSTSEASON – Struggled in his first trip to the postseason, batting just .111 (2-for-18) in the five-game Division Series vs. Arizona...poked a two-out, two-run, opposite-field homer in the first inning of Game 2 off Randy Johnson, as the Cards went on to win 4-1 and even the series at a game apiece.

SHORTSTOP

FULL NAME: Edgar Enrique Renteria

HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 180 BATS: Right THROWS: Right

BORN: 8/7/75 at Barranquilla, Colombia

OPENING DAY AGE: 26 (Turns 27 on August 7) M.L. SERVICE: 5.143

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Florida Marlins in a trade for pitchers Armando Almanza and Braden Looper and shortstop Pablo Ozuna, December 14, 1998.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2003, with club options for 2004 & 2005.

2001 SEASON:

- Posted another solid year for the Cardinals - his third season in a Redbirds uniform.
- Reached double-digits in home runs (10) for the third straight season and led the club with 17 stolen bases, but also batted a career-low .260.

- Batted .327 vs. lefthanded pitchers.
- Notched 37 multi-hit games and collected six game-winning RBIs. Thirty-three of his 57 RBIs came with two outs.
- Rebounded from a slow start to post a .283 batting average after the All-Star break, including a .321 mark in August and a .303 tally in September.
- Hit safely in 42 of his last 58 games (61-for-204; .299), raising his BA from .226 on 7/26 to a season-ending mark of .260.
- Went 3-for-5 with three runs scored on 4/4 at COL and hit a 432-foot opposite-field homer off Denny Neagle.
- Hit a three-run home run (#2) off Randy Johnson on 4/8 at ARI.
- Walked and scored the winning run vs. ARI on a Randy Johnson wild pitch on 4/18.
- Snapped an 0-for-11 skid with a 2-for-4 game on 5/4 at ATL, including two-run single.
- His two-run, pinch-hit single drove home the go-ahead run on 5/10 vs. PIT.
- On 5/17, made his first start since 5/7 and went 2-for-5 with a double and two RBIs. He'd missed the previous eight starts due to a strained left quad muscle.
- Had the game-winning hit off John Rocker in the ninth inning of a 4-3 win at CLE on 7/8. Went 3-for-5 in the game and 6-for-14 (.429) in the three-game CLE series just before the All-Star break.
- Matched his career high with four hits on 7/31 vs. ATL and went 7-for-10 in the 7/31-8/2 series.
- Posted a .545 (12-for-22) batting average during 7/31-8/5 homestand, including three-hit game 8/5 vs. FLA.
- Had a 10-game hitting streak (13-for-37, .351) 8/8-17. After going hitless in two at-bats on 8/18, came back with three hits on 8/19 vs. PHI.

2001 POSTSEASON – Made his third career postseason appearance and went 4-for-17 (.235) in five games in the Division Series vs. Arizona...homered off Matt Anderson in Game 3.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1992 – Projected by Baseball America as the Gulf Coast League's No. 3 big-league prospect...recorded his first professional hit with one out in the bottom of the ninth to spoil a no-hit bid by the GCL Astros' Arquimides Lugo in the Gulf Coast Marlins' first-ever game.

1993 – Tied for the Midwest League lead among shortstops with 173 putouts.

1994 – Playing his second full season in the minors, was selected to play in the Florida State League All-Star game...set personal bests in runs, hits, extra-base hits and RBIs.

- St. Louis native signed with the Cardinals as a minor-league free agent in the off-season and became a key contributor after opening the campaign with Triple-A Memphis.
- Batted .285 and scored 34 runs in 114 games. Made 31 starts, including 15 in left field, 9 in center and seven in right.
- Led the club with 11 pinch hits (in 43 at-bats) and reached base safely in 15 of his 49 pinch appearances (10-1B, 1-2B, 4-BB).
- Was successful in 11 of his 13 stolen base attempts.
- Ranked third on the club with six bunt hits.
- Was one of six Cardinals to bat in the leadoff spot, doing so on two occasions.
- Kerry batted .325 (13-for-40) in 10 games as the leadoff man for Memphis and had four stolen bases. He batted .343 (12-for-35) vs. righthanded pitchers.

- Contract was purchased from Memphis (AAA) on 4/18 to take the spot of Mark McGwire, who was placed on the 15-day disabled list.
- Collected his first big-league hit with a pinch-single in the seventh inning on 4/24 vs. MON.
- Smacked his first career extra-base hit with an eighth-inning double 5/1 at FLA.
- Made his first major league start (in CF) on 5/24 at MIL and provided the game-winning hit with a two-out, two-run single in the fifth inning.
- Was 2-for-4 with two runs on 6/4 vs. CIN.
- Hit his first major league home run on Father's Day (6/17), a two-run shot off White Sox' Kelly Wunsch.
- Had a career-high four hits at MON on 8/9, when he also scored a career-best three runs and stole a base.
- Had three hits in 8/17 win vs. PHI, including a double, stolen base and two runs scored.
- Was 2-for-5 with a double and a triple and scored a run on 10/4 at MIL. Was also 2-for-5 with a run and two RBI on 8/30 vs. SD.

2001 POSTSEASON – Played in four of the five Division Series games vs. Arizona, with three of his appearances coming as a pinch-hitter...went 1-for-2 with a sacrifice and an RBI...collected a bunt single in the ninth inning of Game 3...pinch-hit for Mark McGwire in the ninth inning of Game 5 and put down a sacrifice bunt.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1995 – Originally selected by St. Louis in the 34th round of the 1995 draft, Robinson began his career with Johnson City (A) and ranked among Appalachian League leaders in triples (2nd-8), hits (T2nd-74) and at-bats (3rd-250).

1996 – Paced the Midwest League in batting average (.359) and tied for the league-lead in steals (50) at Peoria (A)...was second in the circuit in hits (158), triples (14) and runs (98) and was third in on-base percentage (.422)...was selected to the league's All-Star team.

1997 – Spent most of the year at Arkansas (AA)...was named to the Texas League All-Star team and third in the league in stolen bases (40) and fourth in hits (168)...his 40 steals ranked eighth among all Double-A base thieves...played with Mesa in the Arizona Fall League.

1998 – Played at three levels with the expansion Tampa Bay Devil Rays, including his first taste of big-league experience...began the season at Double-A Orlando, where he swiped 28 bases in 72 games and struck out only 28 times in 309 at-bats...was transferred to Triple-A Durham on 7/2...improved his average by more than 30 points and swiped 18 bags in 58 games...his combined total of 46 steals was just four off his career high...was recalled to Tampa Bay on 9/19...appeared in just two big league games (three at-bats) and did not have a hit...made his major league debut on 9/22 at Boston, going 0-for-1...only other M.L. appearance was on 9/27 at NY, where he went 0-for-2.

1999 – Opened the season at Triple-A Tacoma and batted .322 before being traded to the Cincinnati Reds organization on 7/22...led the Pacific Coast League in triples (9) and ranked third in stolen bases (30), despite playing just 79 games...played 34 games at Indianapolis (AAA) before a promotion to the parent club...appeared in nine games for the Reds, including two in the outfield and seven as a pinch runner...made just one at-bat (a strikeout), but scored four runs.

2000 – Was released by the Reds in spring training (3/30) and signed with the Yankees organization on 4/9...batted .318 with 37 stolen bases and 71 runs scored in 119 games played at Columbus (AAA)...ranked fourth in the International League in batting average, third in steals and third in triples (9)...averaged one strikeout per 12.3 plate appearances, the second-best mark in the circuit...averaged 43 steals per season from 1996 to 2000.

MISC: Graduated in 1991 from Hazelwood (Mo.) East High School, where he played baseball, football and hockey...set school records for batting average (.557 in 1991) and goals scored (29 in 1991 hockey season)...graduated from Southeast Missouri State University, where he earned a degree in sports management in the spring of 1996...while at SEMO, compiled a 35-game hitting streak in 1995, an Ohio Valley Conference record and the 13th longest in NCAA history...his father, Rogers, played in the Cardinals organization in the late 1960s...he resides in St. Charles, Mo. with his wife, Maggie, and daughters Brittney Renee (12/5/96) and Cameron Elise (7/27/00).

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in the fourth round of June 1998 free-agent draft.
CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002.

2001 SEASON:

- Rookie lefthander pitched in 16 games and made 14 starts, going 6-3 with a 3.83 ERA.
- His freshman campaign included a no-hitter on 9/3 at SD, as he became the third Cardinals rookie and 24th rookie in Major League history to toss a no-hitter.
- Tied for fourth in National League Rookie of the Year balloting and was ranked as the No. 9 Major League rookie by Baseball America.
- Claimed the N.L. Rookie of the Month award for September, when he went 3-0 with a 0.43 ERA. He allowed only seven hits and one earned run in 21.0 IP.
- Worked six or more innings in eight of his 14 starts and allowed two or fewer runs in eight of those starts.
- Owns 490 strikeouts and only 176 walks in 577.1 innings pitched in his professional career (including major and minor leagues).
- Posted a perfect fielding percentage at the Triple-A and Major League levels and has made just one error (1998) in four years of professional ball.
- Was the seventh of nine starting pitchers to be used by the Cardinals and became the third 21-year-old to play for St. Louis in 2001, after Albert Pujols (1/16/80) and Rick Ankiel (7/19/79).
- Opened the year at Memphis (AAA) and went 8-5 with a 2.75 ERA in 17 starts. Allowed 114 hits and fanned 78 batters while walking only 28 in 108.0 IP. For the Redbirds, went 6-1 with a 3.29 ERA on the road and 2-4, 2.19 at home.
- Didn't receive much offensive support in his five Memphis losses, as the Redbirds scored just three runs in those five games. The scores of his five Triple-A losses were 2-1, 3-1, 4-0, 2-1 and 3-0.
- Did not earn a decision in his season debut vs. Nashville, but fanned a season-high eight batters (with no walks) in 6.0 IP in a 3-2 Memphis win.
- Was purchased from Memphis following 6/8 game at COL and made three appearances for St. Louis before being optioned back to Memphis on 6/18.
- Made his major league debut at COL on 6/10, retiring the side in order.
- Made his first major league start vs. the White Sox on 6/17 and won an 8-3 decision over David Wells. Pitched 5.1 innings of shutout ball before allowing three runs in the sixth, including a two-run homer to Maglio Ordonez. Went 5.2 innings overall, allowing seven hits.
- Went 1-1 with a 4.88 ERA in four starts at Memphis between Cardinals stints, including an 0-1, 6.88 mark in his last three starts.
- Started for the Pacific Coast League in the Triple-A All-Star Game at Indianapolis on 7/11. Went 2.0 innings and allowed two unearned runs on one hit (a two-out homer by Adam Dunn).
- Was recalled on 7/13 when reliever Mike James was placed on the 15-day disabled list.
- Made a bid for NL Rookie of the Month honors for July with a 2-0 record and a 2.25 ERA in his three starts, as opponents batted just .222 against him.
- Pitched a fine game, but went without a decision 7/16, in a 4-3 win vs. MIN. Pitched 7.0 innings and allowed two runs on four hits, including solo HRs by Luis Rivas and Chad Allen. Fanned four and walked two intentionally and left the game with a 3-2 lead. Also notched his first major league hit with a sixth-inning single off Adam Johnson.

- Earned his second win with a 9-2 decision over PIT on 7/21, when he allowed two runs on seven hits in 6.0 innings of work. Struck out four batters and walked one and retired the last six batters he faced.
- Pitched an outstanding game with a 3-1 win at CHI on 7/26, when he allowed just one run on five hits in 7.0 IP. Bud fanned five batters and walked three (one intentional) while collecting a base hit off Kevin Tapani.
- Allowed an opposite-field HR to Javy Lopez and fell 2-1 to the Braves and Tom Glavine on 8/2. It was Bud's first ML defeat. Went 6.0 IP, allowing five hits and one walk.
- Allowed three runs on a pair of HRs and had a ND in the Cards' 6-5 11-inning loss at MON on 8/8. Bud worked 6.0 innings and trailed 3-2 when he left. The Cards scored 3 runs in its 9th to take a 5-3 lead, but the Expos answered with 2 runs in the 9th to tie it, 5-5.
- Had a tough outing in a 12-2 loss at CIN on 8/23. Went 5.2 inn. and allowed seven runs (six earned) on 12 hits.
- Struggled for the second straight outing and threw 94 pitches in just 3.1 innings pitched in a wild 16-14 Cards win on 8/29, when he allowed seven runs (five earned) on five hits vs. SD. Ryan Klesko's 2nd-inning HR was the first major league homer Bud allowed to a LH batter.
- Pitched the ninth no-hitter in Cardinals history (third by a rookie) in a 4-0 win at SD on 9/3. Allowed just four base runners (all via walks) and threw 134 pitches as he went the distance for the first time in his young Major League career. Capped his brilliant effort by retiring Phil Nevin on a come-backer to the mound, one of 10 ground-ball outs. He struck out a career-high seven batters.
- Followed up his Sept. 3 no hitter with a 2-1 win over the Brewers on 9/17, as baseball resumed play following the terrorist attack. He held Brewers hitless for the first 2.0 innings pitched giving him 11 consecutive hitless innings.
- Went just 3.0 innings in his last start of the year, a 9-7 loss at MIL. Made his first appearance in 10 days and gave up six runs on six hits.

2001 POSTSEASON - Made just one appearance in the Division Series vs. Arizona, but it was a big one...pitched 5.0 innings in Game 4 and allowed just one run on four hits, as the Cardinals posted a 4-1 win and evened the series at 2-2...Bud drew a walk and scored a run in the victory.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1998 - Began his professional career at Johnson City (R)...appeared in 14 games (all starts) and went 3-3 with a 5.18 ERA...recorded 65 strikeouts in 64.1 innings pitched...his 14 starts led the Appalachian League

1999 - Split the season between Class-A Peoria and Potomac...posted a combined 2.92 ERA, but had a tough-luck 8-10 overall record...went 4-1 at Peoria before earning a promotion to Potomac, where his record was 4-9, despite a 2.96 ERA and .235 opponents' batting average.

2000 - Claimed the Cardinals' Minor League Pitcher of the Year honor after posting a combined 17-2 record and 2.26 ERA between his two stops at Arkansas (AA) and Memphis (AAA)...received a host of awards in 2000, including being named Baseball Weekly's Minor League Pitcher of the Year, the Texas League's Pitcher of the Year and Baseball America's Double-A Player of the Year...also was named to Topps' Double-A All-Star team and to Howe Sportsdata's Pacific Coast League All-Prospect team...led the Cardinals system in wins and ERA and figured in the top 10 in innings pitched (3rd-163.0), strikeouts (3rd-136) and opponents' batting average (10th-.223)...posted a personal winning streak of 15 consecutive games, tops in the minor leagues, from 5/6 to 8/21...twirled a pair of no-hitters, both of the seven-inning variety. Blanked Midland in the second game of a doubleheader on 5/6, recording five strikeouts and one walk...also tossed a no-no in the back end of a doubleheader on 6/11, when he blanked San Antonio, 1-0, and retired 17 straight batters between the first and seventh innings...averaged more than three strikeouts per walk allowed (136:42)...was named Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Month twice - in July and August...went 5-0 with a 2.27 ERA in July (at Arkansas) and posted a 3-1, 2.03 mark in August (at Memphis)...Triple-A opponents batted just .206 off him, with four home runs in 54.1 innings pitched...Double-A batsmen hit .231 off him, with only five homers in 108.2 innings of work...boasted a perfect fielding mark for the second straight season...had an incredible month of May, when he made five starts and went 5-0 with a 1.21 ERA...allowed only 18 hits in the month and struck out 27 batters while walking just seven...despite missing the last month of the Texas League season, he finished as the circuit's leader in complete games (3) and shutouts (3)...was twice named the Texas League's Pitcher of the Week - May 1-7 and June 5-11...allowed just one hit, fanned six and walked none in a rain-shortened five-inning win at Shreveport on 5/27...started for the Texas League All-Stars in the 6/20 Texas-Mexican All-Star Game...pitched two scoreless innings while allowing just one hit and striking out three...fanned a season-high 10 batters in seven innings of work at San Antonio on 7/22...went 2-for-3 at the plate and smacked his first professional home run in a 4-1 win over Shreveport on 7/27...had his 15-game winning streak snapped when Memphis was defeated by Nashville, 7-5, on 8/27...helped lead Memphis through the PCL playoffs, where he went 2-0 with a 3.46 ERA....struck out 13 batters in 13.0 innings and opponents batted just .178 off him...suffered the loss in his only outing in the Triple-A World Series vs. Indianapolis...including three postseason appearances, his overall 2000 record was 19-3.

MISC: Graduated in 1997 from St. John Bosco High School, in Bellflower, Calif...played baseball and football in high school and threw a no-hitter his junior season...attended Los Angeles Harbor Junior College and clubbed 17 home runs in his only collegiate season...was signed by Cardinals scout Chuck Fick...resides in Lakewood, Calif.

PITCHER

FULL NAME: Eugene Urban Stechschulte
HEIGHT: 6-5 WEIGHT: 210 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: 8/12/73 at Lima, Ohio.
OPENING DAY AGE: 28 (Turns 29 on August 12) M.L. SERVICE: 1.065
BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a non-drafted free agent, June 13, 1996.
CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002.

2001 SEASON:

- Righthanded reliever spent his first full season at the Major League level and appeared in 67 games.
- Pitched 2.0 or more innings nine times in his 67 games.
- Finished 18 games and recorded six saves on the year. Earned two saves in the final two weeks.
- Contributed to three combined shutouts - on 5/27 at CIN (2-0), 8/4 vs. FLA (3-0) and 9/29 vs. PIT (2-0).
- Posted a solid month of August, going 1-0 with a 1.84 ERA (3 ER/14.2 IP) in 12 games.
- Suffered a four-game losing streak from 4/21 to 6/26, covering 27 appearances.
- Had a pair of impressive streaks in which he allowed no home runs in 14 games (from 5/2 to 6/3) and just two HRs in his last 26 games (from 7/20 to the end of the season), but also had a stretch in which he allowed six HRs in a 17-game period (6/6 to 7/18).

- Went 2-for-3 with a home run and three RBIs at the plate.
- Hit his first career home run as a pinch-hitter on 4/17 off Arizona's Armando Reynoso. Gene became just the 16th player to hit a first-pitch homer in his first major league at-bat and the 13th to hit a pinch-hit HR in his first M.L. at-bat. He was also used as a pinch hitter on 4/26 and walked. On 5/10 he collected an RBI-single.
- Worked 2.1 scoreless innings on 4/25 vs. MON, earning his first big-league save.
- Was credited with his fourth hold on 4/28 vs. NY. Allowed one earned run on three hits, but fanned a career-high three batters in the 8th inning.
- Pitched a career-high 2.2 innings 7/1 at SF, allowing no runs and just one hit.
- Blanked DET with 2.0 perfect innings on 7/13.
- Allowed a career-high six hits in 0.2 innings pitched 7/18 at HOU. Did not figure in the decision (a 17-11 loss).
- Worked 2.0 scoreless innings on 8/4 vs. FLA and stranded two runners to earn his third save.
- His first major league win came against SD on 8/29, when he pitched 1.2 innings and equaled a season high by fanning three batters.
- Claimed his fourth save on 9/8 vs. LA, recording the final out in a 6-5 Cards win.
- Earned his fifth save on 9/22 at PIT and his sixth on 9/29 vs. PIT.
- Suffered his fifth loss on 10/5 vs. HOU, allowing one run in one inning pitched.

2001 POSTSEASON – Pitched twice in the Division Series vs. Arizona and totaled a third of an inning pitched.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1996 – Appeared in 20 games for the New Jersey (A) Cardinals of the New York-Penn League after signing a free agent contract on 6/13...made just one start and fanned a total of 27 batters in his 33.0 innings pitched...was disabled, 8/4-28, with an infected toe.

1997 – Returned to New Jersey and put together nearly identical numbers to those he compiled the previous season...made 30 relief appearances and struck out 28 in his 36.1 innings of work.

1998 – A move to Peoria of the Class-A Midwest League led to an All-Star caliber season as he saved a league and organizational leading 33 games...was one of just 10 minor league pitchers to surpass the 30-save mark...his 33 saves ranked T-11th among Cardinals all-time minor league leaders...ranked among Class A leaders in games pitched (57) and led the Midwest League in games finished (51)...earned a league-high nine saves in June...earned selection to the league's postseason All-Star team and finished second in Rolaids Relief Points among Midwest League firemen...he would have finished first if not for his eight losses...lowered his ERA for the third-straight season, dipping below the 3.00 mark at 2.59...saved four-straight games, 6/3-9, to lead the league with 14 through 6/10...he rescued five-straight games, 7/13-27, and saved eight games in nine appearances, 7/13-8/11, a stretch in which he allowed just one unearned run in 11.0 innings.

1999 – Led his team in saves for the second-straight season, this time it was for the Arkansas Travelers of the Class-AA Texas League....finished fourth in the league and third in the organization, having saved 19 games...eight of his 19 saves came during the season's first month, as he recorded saves in each of his first seven appearances...was leading the league in saves (19) prior to going on the disabled list, 7/31-9/1, due to right shoulder tendinitis...finished fourth among Texas League relievers in both games finished (33) and Rolaids Relief Points (49)...held opposing batters to a .195 BA with runners on base and a .204 mark with runners in scoring position...was promoted to Triple-A Memphis on 7/10 and appeared in two games before being returned to Arkansas on 7/14.

2000 – Rookie reliever had a total of five stints with the Cardinals in 2000, appearing in 20 games...appeared in 41 games for Triple-A Memphis (4-1, 2.45 ERA) and was leading the Pacific Coast League with 26 saves at the time of his 8/13 recall...finished second among PCL leaders in saves and was one of just six Triple-A pitchers to record 25 or more saves...he also finished second in PCL Rolaids Relief standings (84 pts) and fourth in games finished (38)...was named Cardinals' Minor League Pitcher of the Month in June, saving seven games while posting a 1.35 ERA in 11 appearances...he also struck out 14 and walked just two in 13.1 IP...he was tough on righthanded batters at Memphis, allowing just one home run in 113 at-bats against righties while limiting them to a .186 BA...earned his first ML win with 2.0 scoreless innings of relief on 6/23 vs. LA...earned the second of his three holds on 8/13 at MIL by recording 1.1 scoreless innings...his stints with the Cardinals were 4/19-5/ 3; 6/23-24; 7/28-29; 8/13-27 and 9/4 through the season's end.

MISC: Lettered in baseball, basketball and soccer at Kalida (Ohio) High School, earning all-league honors in each of the three sports...graduated from Kalida H.S. in 1992 and went on to Ashland (Ohio) University where he was an All-American shortstop...earned academic All-American honors in both 1995 and 1996...played for USA Pac-National team in 1995...played American Legion ball in 1992...was scouted by Joe Morlan... he and his wife, Krista, were married on 11/25/00...he serves as the team's player representative...name is pronounced STEK-schul-tee.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1992 – Made pro debut for Bluefield's Appalachian League champions...made three starts in 12 appearances...allowed one hit in first three outings, all scoreless...pitched six shutout innings in his first start, 7/16 vs. Princeton.

1993 – Led Orioles' system with 16 wins and was fourth with 147 strikeouts for Class-A Albany...shared South Atlantic League lead with two shutouts, finished second in wins and fourth with 2.84 ERA...made 30 appearances, 24 starts, going 14-7...just as effective out of bullpen with two wins and a save in six outings...tossed no-hit game 6/9 vs. Macon, recording 11 strikeouts and one walk in a 1-0 win...worked another low-hit effort, yielding one safety in seven innings 8/13 vs. Capital City...allowed two or fewer runs in 13 of his last 19 starts...promoted to Class-A Frederick on 9/4 for Carolina League playoffs.

1994 – Opened at Frederick before joining Class-AA Bowie of the Eastern League...recorded minor league career-high 165 strikeouts over 144 innings...had fourth-highest strikeout rate in minors with 10.31 per nine innings and led EL starters with a 10.87 pace (126 K/104.1 IP)...finished second in O's organization in strikeouts...had five double-figure strikeout games with Frederick...fanned season-high 13 in seven innings and allowed only an unearned run on three hits, but suffered loss, 4/23 at Prince William...in only relief outing among 25 appearances all season, 5/21 vs. Durham, struck out seven in three innings...promoted to Bowie on 7/3...posted 11 strikeouts while walking none in four-hit shutout 7/8 vs. New Haven...returned to Frederick 8/11...was 2-0 in last four Class-A starts...impressive in final three outings, permitting no earned run over 22 innings and a .111 opponents' batting average (8-for-72) with 29 strikeouts...returned to Bowie on 9/5 and won regular-season finale vs. Harrisburg...suffered loss in decisive fifth game of EL semifinal series vs. Harrisburg.

1995 – Spent entire season with Bowie and made Eastern League-high 29 starts...also placed second in league with 175.1 innings and third with 139 strikeouts...had seven walk-free outings of at least seven innings...held righthanded hitters to a .219 average...went 4-0, 0.94 ERA over five starts, 6/20 to 7/12...tossed only complete game of season, allowing a run on seven hits 6/20 vs. Norwich...carried a no-hit bid until a two-out single in ninth at Norwich on 6/30, yielding an unearned run and fanning 11 over nine full innings, then picking up a 2-1 win in 10 innings...pitched for Scottsdale in Arizona Fall League.

1996 – Spent bulk of season at Rochester, first Class-AAA experience...ranked among International League leaders with one shutout (tie, third) and three complete games (tie, fourth)...went 6-0, 3.25 ERA at home...served up one home run as late as the fifth inning in 23 appearances and allowed .229 batting average (50-218) after third inning...threw two-hit, seven-inning shutout in first game of doubleheader, 7/14 at Norfolk, and in so doing, earned IL pitcher of the week honors...was also middle leg of three conecutive winning starts during which he allowed 1.44 ERA (4 ER/25 IP) and .113 batting average (9-80)...recalled 7/25 for major league debut that night at CLE, where he allowed three runs in 4.1 innings of relief, earning no decision in 10-7 loss...made two more relief appearances, also vs. Indians, before being sent back to Rochester 8/6...won two of last three starts to help Rochester win playoff berth...would not see postseason action for third time in five years as he was sent to PHI organization 9/4 to complete trade of six days earlier...attended Phillies' Florida Instructional League.

1997 – Opened season at Class-AAA Scranton/Wilkes-Barre...went 3-1 over four outings, 4/7-23, three starts and a six-inning relief stint, 4/23 at Ottawa, in which he picked up the win...made seven appearances at Triple-A before Phils bought contract 5/9...made National League debut, and first big-league start, 5/13 vs. STL...struck out career-high 12, most by a pitcher in first major league start since Astros' J.R. Richard whiffed 15 on 9/5/71 vs. SF, and became first in Phillies history to post two-figure strikeout tally in first ML start...allowed two runs on two hits but got no decision in 3-2 loss...singled off Andy Benes in first ML at-bat...would go on to finish among NL rookie leaders with two complete games (tie-2nd), eight wins (tie-5th), 117 innings (7th), 18 starts (8th), 81 strikeouts (9th)...in second start, 5/18 vs. HOU, collected first win, allowing an unearned run over seven innings in 5-3 decision...each of four April starts decided by two runs or less, as he went 2-1, 1.33 ERA (4 ER/27 IP) and gave up .189 batting average (17-90)...inflamed left knee resulted in 6/10 scratch and placement on disabled list retro to 6/5...reactivated for 6/22 start at ATL and, though lasting season-low 2.2 innings, did collect RBI double, first of ML career in each category...made first N.L. relief appearance, 7/6 vs CHI...worked first major-league complete game, 7/15 at ATL, a four-hitter and 8-1 win...had 12.2 straight walkless innings, 7/25 to 8/6...following departure from 8/17 start at HOU with tightness in right forearm, placed on DL second time in season, 8/18 to 9/2...returned with an inning of relief 9/3 vs. NYY...would go 2-1, 1.84 ERA (6/29.1) and .194 BA (20-for-103) in last four starts...capped rookie campaign with a second four-hit complete game, 9/24 vs. ATL.

1998 – Started the season with the Phillies, his first year on a major league Opening Day roster....surrendered two runs over six innings in Phillies' home opener, 4/12 vs. ATL, but was tabbed with the loss in the Braves' 3-2 win...made six starts before being optioned on 5/5 to Sranton/Wilkes-Barre of the Class-AAA International League...won his first start, 5/11 at Louisville, allowing two runs in seven innings...was disabled 6/27 to 8/3 with a sore right shoulder...returned to work an inning in relief 8/6 at Pawtucket and five shutout innings in a start 8/10 at Rochester.

1999 – Went 6-3 with a 4.22 ERA in his first season with the Cardinals...his six wins tied for third-most on the Cardinals staff...made his first five appearances out of the bullpen before moving into the starting rotation in August...made 12 starts and went 5-3 with a 3.84 ERA in that role...posted 49 strikeouts and allowed only 26 walks in 75.0 innings as a starter....his August ERA of 1.36 (5 ER in 33.0 IP) ranked as the best in the majors...posted a 5-1 record with a 3.43 ERA and a 43-19 strikeout-to-walk ratio in 13 night games...held righthanded hitters to a .236 batting average...made two stints with the Cardinals...was originally recalled from Triple-A Memphis on 6/23 and optioned back on 7/17...was recalled for the second time on 8/6...opened the season with one start at Class-AA Arkansas before moving up to Memphis, where he went 1-1 with a 3.16 ERA in four starts...earned his first Cardinals win in relief on 7/17 vs. CWS...was recalled from Memphis on 8/6 and made his first Cardinals start that night in the second game of a twinbill at PIT...lifted his record to 2-0 and posted an outstanding seven-inning effort in which he allowed only one run on three hits, with eight strikeouts and no walks...upped his record to 3-0 with a 5-1 win at PHI on 8/11...went 7.1 innings and allowed only five hits...gave up a first-inning home run to Ron Gant for the Phillies' lone run...left his 8/17 start vs. PHI after 3.2 IP when he suffered a bruised left forearm resulting from a Mike Lieberthal line drive...improved to 4-0 with a 7-5 win in game two of an 8/22 DH at NY...allowed just two runs (one earned) in his seven-plus innings pitched...established a career-high and matched Kent Bottenfield's 1999 club mark when he won his fifth-straight game with a 9-3 win vs. FLA on 9/1...suffered his first loss with a 4-1 setback vs. Greg Maddux at ATL on 9/6...went 2-for-2 at the plate, with a double and an RBI en route to his sixth win vs. HOU on 9/17...went five innings and allowed a season-high six runs in an 11-8 Cardinals win over Jose Lima...lost his last two decisions, both against the Cubs (on 9/22 at CHI and 10/2 at Busch).

2000 – Had a break out season, taking the reigns as one of the team's most consistent starters while posting a career-high16 wins...his win total for the season surpassed his career win total (14) entering 2000...made a career-high 31 starts and surpassed the 200 innings pitched mark for the first time in his career...he was 15-6 versus National League foes and 1-2 versus American League opponents...earned N.L. Pitcher of the Month honors for May, when he went 5-0 with a 1.42 ERA in six games (five starts)...he tossed two complete games, one shutout (at ARI) and opponents batted just .217 off him for the month...went 4-0 with a 2.65 ERA in five August starts, as opponents batted just .221 vs. him...despite collecting just three hits, Garrett delivered a team-leading 13 sacrifice bunts...earned his first win of the year on 4/6 in a 13-3 rout of the Cubs...struggled in a 10-6 win at HOU on 4/11, allowing all six runs in the third inning, but the Cards rallied, scoring seven runs in their 7th inning...fired 7.2 innings of shutout ball vs. PIT on 5/4, allowing just three hits while striking out six and walking six...came out of the bullpen vs. the Dodgers on 5/14 and earned a hold when he tossed one perfect inning...won his career-best sixth-straight game on 5/18 at PHI...improved to 7-0 and tossed the first CG by a Cardinal in 2000 when he defeated the Marlins, 5-1 on 5/24...tossed his second-straight CG on 5/29 at ARI, allowing just six hits with no walks and eight strikeouts...Garrett became the first STL pitcher since Todd Stottlemyre (May 1998) to toss back-to-back CGs...the win made him the first Cardinals starting pitcher to open a season 8-0 since Bob Gibson in 1965...after a spectaular May, Garrett lost four of his five decisions in June and went just 1-4 with a 4.26 ERA, as the Cards scored just 10 runs in his five June starts...suffered his first loss of 2000 on 6/3 vs. CLE...had both his career-best eight-game winning streak and 18.1-inning scoreless streak snapped...was a victim of low run support and fell to 9-3 vs. SF on 6/21...allowed just three runs in 7.1 innings and struck out seven, but the Giants won 4-1...Garrett collected his first base hit of the season and drove in the Redbirds' only run of the night...had a solid eight-inning outing 7/14 at Comiskey Park, earning his 10th win of the year in a 9-4 win vs. the White Sox...allowed a two-run HR to F. Thomas in the first, but settled down to face just three batters over the minimum the second thru eighth frames...was steady in a 7-3 win over Randy Johnson and the Diamondbacks on 7/25 at STL...he allowed three fourth-inning runs, but the Cards overcame a 3-0 deficit vs. the "Big Unit" to give Garrett his 11th win...tossed his second shutout of the season and third complete game with a 5-0 blanking of ATL on 8/5...threw just 108 pitches in the nine-inning effort and allowed only five hits and one walk, as no Braves reached third base...lost for the first time in seven starts dating back to 7/30 in his 9/6 start vs. MON...notched his 16th and final win on 9/11 at PIT in an 8-4 decision...went 7.0 innings and allowed four runs on seven hits...he also collected an RBI-single off Jose Silva. 2000 POSTSEASON – Was handed starting assignment in Game 3 of Division Series at ATL and logged 3.2 IP, allowing one run, when he was forced to leave the game with recurring elbow tightness...he was left off the roster during the NLCS after it was determined he was suffering from a sprained medial collateral ligament and a strained flexor muscle in his right elbow.

MISC: Father, Richard, played in the Pittsburgh organization...graduated in 1990 from Boonsboro High School in Maryland...played Little League, Babe Ruth and American Legion baseball...attended Ricks College in Idaho and Idaho State University...has been active in the St. Louis community and in helping kids at Cardinal Glennon Hospital...he and wife Stephanie (8/8/92) have two sons, Riley (10/28/93) and Teagan (7/1/97)...the Stephensons reside in Ocoee, Fla.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002.

2001 SEASON:

- Veteran righthander completed his first full season with the Cardinals and his 11th Major League campaign.
- Pitched in 67 games and finished 19 contests, posting three saves and a 4.09 ERA.
- Recorded 16 holds and worked 2.0 or more innings 10 times in his 67 appearances.
- Boasted a 47-to-19 strikeout-to-walk (2.47:1) ratio.
- Earned the Cardinals' first save of the season on 4/8 at ARI, retiring Matt Williams on a groundout with the bases loaded in the 9th inning.

- Claimed his first win of the year on 4/9 vs. COL.
- Didn't allow a HR in his first 14.0 innings (12 games) and went 16.2 innings between walks (4/14 to 5/18).
- Allowed his first home run of the year to Chipper Jones on 5/5 at ATL.
- Struck out a season-high four batters in 2.0 innings pitched on 5/9 vs. PIT.
- Allowed a season-high five hits 6/10 at COL.
- Blanked the KC Royals for 2.1 innings on 6/14.
- Allowed just three hits and no runs in a nine-game stretch (11.2 IP) from 6/14 to 6/29.
- Pitched a season-high 2.2 innings 7/7 at CLE. Allowed no hits and one walk with three strikeouts.
- Earned his third win with 1.2 perfect innings of relief at CLE on 7/8.
- Pitched a scoreless 9th inning on 7/19 at HOU, earning his third save.
- Suffered his fifth loss after allowing two runs in the 9th inning in a 2-0 defeat to PIT on 7/22.
- Tore the medial meniscus in his left knee while stretching in the bullpen on 7/26 at CHI. Had surgery the next day in St. Louis and was placed on the 15-day disabled list.
- Returned from left knee surgery on 8/17 vs. PHI and worked 1.1 scoreless innings in his first appearance since 7/25.
- Appeared in 19 games and allowed 13 runs (12 er) in 17.2 innings after his return from knee surgery.
- Earned his fourth win on 10/6 vs. HOU, pitching 2+ innings and allowing one earned run. Also made his first M.L. at-bat, and grounded out to third.

2001 POSTSEASON – Made his sixth career postseason appearance and second with the Cardinals...made one appearance (Game 3) in the Division Series vs. Arizona and allowed one hit in 1.1 innings of work.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1987 – Began his pro career with Medicine Hat of the Pioneer League...appeared in 13 games, including 12 as a starter, and went 4-8 with a 5.14 ERA.

1988 – Spent the entire season at Myrtle Beach...posted a 10-6 record and 2.86 ERA on the year, including a 7-3, 2.16 mark in the final two months of the season...made 22 starts and pitched a career-high 151 innings...led the South Atlantic League with 19 hit batsmen.

1989 – Played the entire season at Dunedin (A)...went 5-8 with a 3.25 ERA...pitched in 33 games and made the transition to the bullpen...earned seven saves, his first saves as a professional.

1990 – Began the season at Class-A Dunedin...was named Florida State League "Pitcher of the Week" for 4/6-15...had a nearly 3-to-1 strikeout to walk ratio (46 SO/16 BB)...was promoted to Knoxville (AA) on 7/23...ranked second on the club in saves despite appearing in only 17 games...had 12 saves for Lara in the Venezuelan Winter League.

1991 – Had never played at Triple-A and had just 17 games of Double-A experience before beginning the season with Toronto...went 10-5 with a 3.36 ERA in 60 relief outings and tied with Mike Henneman of Detroit for the A.L. lead in relief wins...was second on Jays' staff with 63 appearances...his first major league win came in relief on 4/10 vs. BOS...pitched 3.0 shutout innings on 4/12 for his second consecutive win...his first ML save came vs. KC on 5/14...made three starts in June and was 1-1 with a 1.84 ERA...returned to the bullpen on 6/28...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 8/2 with tenderness in his right elbow...was reinstated on 8/18. 1991 POSTSEASON: Appeared in four of the five games vs. MIN in the ALCS and suffered his first postseason loss in Game 3, when he surrendered a pinch-hit solo homer to Mike Pagliarulo to break a 2-2 tie.

1992 – Started the season on the 15-day disabled list after recovering from off-season elbow surgery...went on a rehabilitation assignment to Dunedin (A) and Syracuse (AAA) prior to his recall to Toronto on 6/12...was optioned to Syracuse on 7/31 and recalled 8/11...was perfect in September, tossing 7.1 shutout innings...among A.L. pitchers with 35 or more innings, Mike was the only one to not allow a home run. 1992 POSTSEASON: Pitched twice in the ALCS vs. OAK...earned the save in the sixth and final game of World Series vs. ATL, when he threw out Otis Nixon for the final out.

1993 – Began the season with Toronto...appeared exclusively in relief for second straight season...stranded 20 of 32 inherited runners (62.5%)...ranked third on the team in games (53)...was optioned to Dunedin (AA) on 8/16 but was recalled on 8/30. 1993 POSTSEASON: Pitched once in the ALCS against CWS, a 2.1-inning outing in which he allowed one run in a 7-4 loss in Game 4...hurled 2.1 shutout innings in two appearances in the World Series vs. PHI.

1994 – Spent the entire season in the majors and appeared in 34 games for Toronto...was placed on 15-day disabled list on 5/27 with a sprained AC joint in his right shoulder...after coming off the DL, had a 2.91 ERA in 16 games (21.2 IP)...his only decision was a loss to BAL on 7/30...his ERA dropped each month of the season...posted a 2.38 ERA after the All-Star break and opponents hit just .200 against him in the season's second half.

1995 – Pitched in 31 games for Toronto and compiled a career-low 2.14 ERA...his only home run allowed was a grand slam by John Valentin on 6/21, coming in his last appearance before being placed on the 15-day disabled list...underwent arthroscopic surgery on 6/27 to remove bone chips from his right elbow...went 1-1 with a 1.04 ERA in eight rehab games at Syracuse (7/31-8/18)...was activated on 8/18 and retired the first 19 batters he faced...the only earned run he allowed after his return came 9/14 vs. TEX, when he worked a season-high 4.0 innings...stranded 15 of 27 inherited runners and retired 23 of 31 first batters faced...converted five of nine save situations.

1996 – Had a career-high 31 saves for Toronto, the sixth-best total in the A.L....it marked the sixth-highest single-season save total in club history...led the club in games pitched (59), first batter efficiency (.208), fewest baserunners allowed per nine innings in relief (10.6) and most strikeouts per nine innings in relief (8.3)...converted 31 of 38 save opportunities...recorded nine straight saves from 5/27 to 7/14...was 0-3 with five saves and a 9.72 ERA in July, however, he posted a 2.61 ERA the other five months of the season...converted six straight save opportunities from 7/23 to 8/19...was 0-1 with eight saves in nine opportunities in September...notched saves in each of his last five games...retired 41 of 59 first batters faced and stranded 11 of 17 inherited baserunners...righthanders hit just .191 (17-for-89) off him, while lefties hit .259 (8-for-30).

1997 – Appeared in 64 games with Toronto and Seattle...began the season with the Blue Jays...fanned a season-high five batters in 2.1 innings at ANA on 4/21...recorded saves in three consecutive appearances 5/9-16, tossing one shutout inning in each game...appeared in all four games of a series at BAL, 6/26-29...recorded saves in three consecutive games 6/26, 28-29...did not allow a run in six games from 6/24 to 7/2 (8.2 IP)...was 3-2 with a 2.87 ERA in 38 appearances as a Blue Jay...was traded to Seattle on 7/31...recorded first Mariner save 8/24 vs. NY...picked up first win as a Mariner on 8/31 at LA...allowed one earned run in his last 11 appearances of the year...posted a 1.93 ERA in September. 1997 POSTSEASON: Appeared in the postseason with his second club and allowed four runs in 0.2 innings pitched vs. BAL in the A.L. Division Series.

1998 – Recorded 19 saves in 24 chances for Seattle...his 19 saves tied for sixth most in Mariners history...stranded 38 of 60 inherited runners overall, including 14 of final 15...moved into the closer role at the All-Star break and converted 18 of 19 save chances in the second half...from his first win (4/16) through the end of the season he was 3-2, with a 2.36 ERA and 19 saves in 62 games (72.1 IP/19 ER)...converted his final 14 save opportunities, from 8/2 through the end of the year...allowed just one earned run in 10 June outings, posting a 0.87 ERA (10.1 IP/ 1 ER)...converted first four opportunities in July before suffering only blown save of second half on 7/30 vs. CLE...was tied for third in the A.L. in Rolaids Relief standings in August, with 23 points...posted a 1-0 mark with seven saves in final eight appearances 9/5-9/26...finished second in the A.L. in the Rolaids Relief standings with 23 points in September.

1999 – Pitched in 62 games out of the bullpen in his first season with the Orioles and finished 10th in the American League with 27 saves...tied for the league lead with nine blown saves...converted 18 of 19 save chances after the All-Star break for the second straight season...went 9-for-17 in save situations in first half of '99...held opponents to a .221 batting average, eighth best among A.L. relievers...allowed an average of 11.3 runners per nine innings pitched, the ninth lowest figure among A.L. relief pitchers...went 0-1 with a 1.40 ERA and held opponents to a .185 average after the break...saved 10 games in 11 chances and was the majors' leading Rolaids Relief Man for September, with 28 points...did not allow a run in his first five appearances of the season, going 3-for-3 in save opportunities...recorded saves in five of his first six opportunities before blowing 7 saves in 11 chances, 5/12-7/1...earned saves in five straight games, 9/17-22, the only time he pitched in more than three straight contests...saved seven games during the Orioles' 13-game winning streak in September.

2000 – Came to the Cardinals in a trading-deadline deal with Baltimore and appeared in 25 games (29.2 innings pitched)...went 3-1 with one save and a 3.34 ERA for the Cards after going 2-3 with 11 saves and a 4.89 ERA for the Orioles...worked at least one inning in 21 of the 25 games he pitched for the Cardinals...pitched 2.0 innings in six of his Redbird outings...converted 12 of 18 save opportunities on the year...went 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA in 12 September games (14.0 IP)...earned his first National League save and 100th career rescue on 9/5 vs. MON...fanned a season-best four batters in 2.0 IP on 9/16 vs. CHI for his third STL win...tossed 2.0 scoreless innings on 8/30 at FLA, with three strikeouts...suffered his first STL loss on 8/25 at ATL, allowing a three-run homer to Chipper Jones in the seventh inning. 2000 POSTSEASON: Appeared in five postseason games for the Cardinals, including two in the Division Series vs. the Braves and three in the League Championship Series vs. the Mets...notched a hold in Game 1 of the D.S. vs. ATL...did not allow any earned runs in 3.1 innings pitched in the NLCS, but suffered the loss in Game 2 at St. Louis on 10/12, when the Mets scored an unearned run in the ninth inning of a 6-5 decision.

MISC: Graduated from Midland (Texas) High School, where he was captain of the baseball team...played baseball at Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas...lists pitching in back-to-back World Series in 1992 and 1993 as the biggest thrill of his career...hobbies include golf and hunting...he and his wife Dawn (11/28/92) have two children: Jacob Dalton (8/2/96) and Mykala Marie (9/29/00).

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from Colorado Rockies with pitchers Darryl Kile and Luther Hackman in exchange for pitchers Jose Jimenez, Manny Aybar and Rick Croushore and infielder Brent Butler on November 16, 1999.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002 with a club option for 2003.

2001 SEASON:

- Completed his second season with the Cardinals and notched a team-high 15 saves in 18 opportunities.
- His 44 saves as a Cardinal rank ninth on the club's all-time list.
- Fanned 61 batters in 65.2 IP on the year, including 11 in his last 9.0 innings pitched.
- Went 2-0 with four saves in his last 19 games.
- Five of his saves came against the Cincinnati Reds.
- Suffered either the loss or blown save in four of the last eight games in which he allowed a home run.
- Was credited with his first save of the season on 4/11 vs. COL, striking out the final two batters in a 3-1 win.
- Had tests done on 4/17 for numbness in his right index finger. When he pitched the 9th inning on 4/24, it was his first game appearance since 4/15.
- Fanned three batters in 2.0 scoreless innings on 4/26 vs. MON, working the 9th and 10th innings.
- Pitched a scoreless 11th inning on 5/2 at FLA and recorded his second save.
- Was 10-for-10 in save opportunities before his first blown save on 6/23 vs. SF.
- Was the only pitcher to appear in both games of the 8/3 DH vs. FLA, working 1.1 inning each game. Earned a hold in the first game, but a Derek Lee homer led to a loss in the nightcap.
- His second win came 8/10 at NY with 2.0 scoreless IP.
- His save on 8/11 at NY was his first since 6/24 vs. SF.
- Strained his right hamstring on 9/8 vs. LA and didn't appear in another game until 9/24 at HOU.

2001 POSTSEASON – Appeared in two games in the Division Series vs. Arizona and worked a total of 1.0 inning...allowed one hit, with one walk and one strikeout.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1986 – Selected by Oakland in the January draft...started his pro career at Medford (A) of the Northwest League...led the league in starts (15).

1987 – Spent the entire season in Modesto's (A) starting rotation.

1988 – Split his season between Modesto and Huntsville (AA)...pitched a career-high 164.0 innings between the two stops.

1989 – Again worked in Huntsville's starting rotation...made one relief appearance, the first of his professional career...tossed two complete games, including his only career shutout.

1990 – Posted a career-high 11 wins in his first season at Triple-A Tacoma...made 23 starts and nine relief appearances, including his first professional save.

1991 – Acquired by the Dodgers from Oakland before the season...spent the year at Albuquerque (AAA).

1992 – Loaned by the Dodgers organization to the Mexico City Tigers of the Mexican League from 4/3 to 5/15...was released by the Dodgers following that stint and signed with Houston on 5/28...assigned to the Astros' Triple-A affiliate Tucson and worked almost exclusively out of the bullpen (made one start).

1993 – Split the season between the rotation (15 starts) and bullpen (28 games) at Tucson.

1994 – Opened the season at Tucson but was recalled by Houston on 5/9...lost his major league debut 5/10 at LA, allowing an unearned run in 0.1 inning of work...picked up his first big-league victory his next time out, 5/16 vs. SF (0.1 IP, 1 K)...earned first career save 8/6 vs. SF...did not walk a batter in his first 14 appearances (16.2 IP).

1995 – Led National League relievers with 103.1 innings, while his 72 appearances were second in the league to teammate Curtis Leskanic (76)...retired 53 of 72 (74%) first batters faced and allowed just 16 of 48 (33%) inherited runners to score...pitched two or more innings 22 times and went 3.0 innings four times...did not allow a run in his first 13 outings (4/26 to 5/21), a team-high 16.1-inning streak...his only save of the season came in a 2.2-inning scoreless appearance on 7/14 at SF.

1996 – Was traded to Montreal in the off-season...won his first four decisions for the Expos, giving him a personal career-high eight-game streak, dating to 1995...allowed just 10 earned runs over his final 34.2 innings (2.60 ERA)...hit safely in his first three at-bats of the season (two singles, one double) and finished the year 3-for-8...went 1-for-1 and drove in his first big-league run 4/28 at COL...left 6/18 game at COL and missed nine days 6/19 to 6/27 with a right flexor tendon strain.

1997 – Appeared in 53 games and pitched 62.0 innings in his second season with the Expos...earned his only save of the season with 4.0 innings of work 4/20 at PHI, the longest outing of his major league career...singled in his only at-bat of the season in that 4/20 game...left 8/17 game at SF with tightness behind his right shoulder, and then was placed on the 15-day disabled list with right knee inflammation (8/21 to 9/16)...pitched in four games after his return from the DL, allowing four earned runs in 3.1 innings.

1998 – After an off-season trade to Colorado, pitched mainly in middle relief but finished 26 games and recorded eight saves...led the bullpen in innings (76.1), ERA (2.83) and strikeouts (74)...averaged 8.7 strikeouts and 3.1 walks per nine innings pitched...held opponents to .233 batting average, second on the staff...his eight saves were one more than his career total entering the season...earned three saves and compiled a 2.35 ERA in June (12 games) and picked up three more saves and a win with an 0.84 ERA in September (10 games)...won Rockies' Player of the Month honors for September, the first pitcher to win the award since Darren Holmes in August 1993...went 3-1 with five saves and a 1.72 ERA, walked eight and struck out 27 in 29 appearances after the All-Star break...surrendered just one run in his last 20 games (21.1 IP, 0.42 ERA), dropping his ERA from 3.76 to 2.83...longest outing of the season was a 3.0-inning, four-strikeout effort 4/24 at FLA...put together 11.1 consecutive scoreless innings covering nine appearances from 4/14 to 5/13...struck out 13, walked four and allowed eight hits over that span...fanned at least one batter in 21 of 22 outings 4/11 to 6/20, and in 12 straight games beginning 5/16...final three saves came in consecutive appearances 9/18, 9/20 and 9/23...preserved a 1-0, 11-inning victory for Darryl Kile in the 9/20 game at SD...went 0-for-1 in his only career pinch-hitting appearance.

1999 – Established a Colorado club record with 31 saves, six more than the previous mark of 25 (Darren Holmes, 1993)...was outstanding on the road, where he saved 20 games in 21 opportunites while compiling a 2.52 ERA (10 ER, 35.2 IP), with nine walks and 38 strikeouts...saved 11 of 18 chances at home with a 7.40 ERA (34 ER, 41.1 IP), 28 walks and 33 strikeouts...his 39 career saves with Colorado placed him third on the club's all-time saves list...dominated the Dodgers, earning five saves in seven appearances...allowed just one earned run in 7.0 innings (1.29), with one walk and 10 Ks...did not allow a run in 10.0 innings (nine games) on artificial turf; recorded six saves, allowed eight hits and two walks and struck out 12 in those contests...recorded saves in four straight appearances once (6/12 to 6/20) and in three straight on three occasions...retired 52 of 73 first batters (74 percent) to lead the staff...also led the Rockies' bullpen with a 0.52 (37-71) walks-to-strikeouts ratio...tied for second in the N.L. with 63 games finished, one behind Robb Nen (SF)...established himself as the closer in spring training after holding the position for the final month of 1998...retired the first batter he faced in his first 12 outings and in 15 of his first 16...took the loss in Colorado's home opener on an 11th-inning home run by Jim Leyritz...notched his first win 4/19 vs. MON, fanning two of the four batters he faced...surrendered three solo homers to PHI on 5/9 in his first blown save of the season...struck out nine batters in 5.0 innings over a four-game span 5/25 to 5/30...combined with Darryl Kile and Mike DeJean on 1-0 victory 5/30 at PHI...was 11-for-11 in save situations with a 1.33 ERA and 21 strikeouts from 6/12 to 7/25...saved both games of a 7/3 doubleheader vs. SD, tying a club record...repeated the feat less than three weeks later, in a 7/22 twin-bill at LA...became first major leaguer since Jeff Brantley (1996) to save both games of a DH twice in a season...saved all three games of 7/21-22 series at LA, allowing two hits and fanning five in 3.0 innings.

2000 – Provided solid relief in his first year as a Cardinal, leading the team with his 29 saves and 75.2 innings pitched in relief...his 2.85 ERA was 2.29 points lower than his 5.14 mark from 1999 and it marked the fourth season he finished with an ERA lower than 3.00...had 67 strikeouts and just 25 walks in his 75.2 IP...worked more than one inning in 13 of his 29 saves...had a National League-leading eight "tough saves" - save in which he inherited the tying run on base...collected his first Cardinals save on 4/8 vs. MIL, striking out four of the five batters he faced...earned 4th save and #50 career on 4/19 vs. SD with a scoreless ninth...suffered fourth blown save 6/22 vs. SF, but gained his first win when Cards rallied...matched his season high with 2.0 scoreless IP on 6/30 vs. HOU (15th save)...suffered sixth blown save on 9/3 vs. NY, ending his scoreless streak at 14.0 IP...win #3 came on 9/9 at MIL, a day after suffering his fourth defeat of the year...earned a pair of saves (#26 & #27) during 9/14-17 weekend series vs. CHI, but was saddled with his seventh blown save and fifthth defeat in 5-4 loss on 9/22 at CHI...gained his final saves (#28 & #29) during the Cardinals 9/26-28 series at SD, with his final rescue coming in Darryl Kile's 20th win on 9/28. 2000 POSTSEASON – Appeared in five games during the postseason and worked 4.1 innings without allowing an earned run...he struck out seven and walked no one, although he did hit two batters...appeared in two of three games during the Division Series versus Atlanta and earned his lone save of the playoffs in Game 1 of the opening series...he closed out the Cardinals series-clinching win in Game 3 at ATL with a scoreless ninth inning...made three game appearances during the NLCS, pitching in Games 2, 3 and 5 without allowing a run.

MISC: Graduated in 1984 from Gresham (Ore.) High School and attended Mount Hood Community College for two years...with his father in the Air Force, he participated in the Little League World Series, playing for the team from Europe...he lists that experience at Williamsport, Pa., as his most memorable in baseball...Dave and his wife Robin reside in Castle Rock, CO, with their daughter Terryn and sons Ty and Tristram...he and his family have been active members of Cardinals Care, taking part in visits to many local children's hospitals...name is pronounced VEERZ.

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Milwaukee Brewers in a trade for pitcher Juan Acevedo and two minor league players to be named later, December 20, 1999.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2003, with a club option for 2004.

2001 SEASON:

- Fiesty leadoff man provided Cardinals fans with another fine season, posting a .303 batting average while reaching career bests in homers (9) and RBIs (56).
- Won his first career Rawlings Gold Glove Award at second base.
- His .987 fielding percentage ranked first among National League second basemen, leading all second sackers with 705 total chances and 100 double plays.
- Hit .300 for the second consecutive season and the third time in his career.
- Finished among N.L. leaders in singles (144), triples (8), HBP (22) and hits (191).
- Ranked as the second-toughest player in the majors to strikeout, doing so only 35 times in 690 plate appearances (once every 19.7 PAs). Colorado's Juan Pierre led the majors with a ratio of one whiff every 23.6 plate appearances.
- For his career Fernando has more walks (224) than strikeouts (223).
- Led off the game via hit (44), walk (8) or HBP (6) in 58 of his 150 starts.
- Paced the club with 29 infield hits and 14 bunt hits.
- Of his 56 RBIs, 29 came with two outs.
- Compiled a .333 batting average in both the months of May (36-for-108) and August (42-for-126).
- Had a pair of 10-game hitting streaks, from 6/30 to 7/13 and again from 8/17 to 8/26. Went 15-for-42 (.357) in both streaks.
- Posted his fourth career five-hit game (second as a Cardinal) and was a perfect 3-for-3 with runners in scoring position, including a 2-run triple, on 4/6 at ARI.
- Delivered the go-ahead run in the third inning with a run-scoring triple 4/11 vs. COL.
- Had three hits on 5/20 at PHI, including a game-winning home run in the seventh inning - his first HR of the year.
- Notched an eight-game hitting streak, 5/20-28. Batted .364 (12-for-33) during that stretch.
- Hit his fifth career leadoff homer on 6/21 vs CHI.
- Tied his career high with five RBIs 6/26 vs. CIN.
- Collected four hits on 8/8 at MON.
- Hit his fourth homer of the year and his second leadoff HR (sixth career) on 8/30 vs. SD.
- Was 4-for-5 on 9/9 vs. LA, with his seventh career leadoff home run (third of the 2001 season).
- Poked his seventh homer in a 2-0 win vs. PIT on 9/29.
- Recorded his second career inside-the-park homer 10/2 at MIL, the first-ever inside-the-parker at Miller Park.
- Hit his career-high ninth home run on 10/6 vs. HOU.

2001 POSTSEASON – Made his second postseason appearance and led the Cardinals with a .316 (6-for-19) batting average in the Division Series vs. Arizona...went 3-for-3 with a stolen base, two runs scored and a hit-by-pitch in Game 4, and clubbed his second career postseason home run - a third-inning, two-run shot off Albie Lopez - in the 4-1 win.

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the San Diego Padres in exchange for outfielder Ray Lankford and cash considerations, August 2, 2001.
CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002.

2001 SEASON:

- Came to the Cardinals in an August 2nd trade with San Diego in exchange for outfielder Ray Lankford. Was a prominent force in the stretch run, going 7-1 with a 2.28 ERA in 11 starts for the Redbirds.
- His overall season record was 15-9 with a 4.05 ERA, 154 strikeouts and 56 walks in 220.0 IP. Established career highs in wins, strikeouts and innings pitched.
- Earned his first career N.L. Pitcher of the Month honor when he went 4-0 with a 1.13 ERA in September. His award-winning month included two complete games and one shutout, as he allowed just 10 hits and fanned 26 batters in 32.0 innings pitched.
- Was incredible down the stretch, going 5-0 with a 0.94 ERA (5 ER/48.0 IP) in his last six games. Those last six contests included three complete games, with a two-hitter, a three-hitter and a four-hitter.
- The Cards went 8-3 in games Woody started for them. Two of his starts for St. Louis went to extra innings.

- San Diego went 13-10 in his 23 starts, but won six of his last nine starts. The Friars were shut out in two of his losses.
- His record over his last 14 starts was 9-2 with a 2.31 ERA (24 ER/93.2 IP), 63 strikeouts and just 24 walks.
- Ranked fourth in the N.L. with 35 home runs allowed, and ninth with 110 runs allowed.
- Woody worked 7.0 or more innings in 15 of his 34 starts and failed to go at least 5.0 innings only twice (4/24 vs. PHI and 8/10 at NY).
- Made his first career Opening Day start at SF on 4/2 and lost 3-2. Allowed three runs on six hits in 5.2 innings pitched.
- Allowed only one run and fanned eight batters in 7.2 IP in a 6-1 win vs. PIT on 4/29.
- Threw 131 pitches (85 strikes) in 7.2 IP on 6/6 at SF. Allowed 11 hits and six runs and equaled a season high with five walks.
- Struck out a season-high nine batters and walked just one in 6.1 innings pitched, but did not earn a decision in an 11-9 win over SEA on 6/17.
- Extended his winless streak to a career-high eight games with a no-decision on 7/3 vs. COL (a 6-5 Padres win). Went 0-3 with a 5.89 ERA (34 ER/52.0 IP) during the eight-game stretch.
- Allowed five home runs in 5.0 IP in an 11-3 loss at HOU on 7/13.
- His 7/18 start vs. ARI was suspended due to a power outage. Woody came back the next day (7/19) and ended up going 6.0 innings in the 3-0 loss (as Curt Schilling and Randy Johnson combined for the shutout).
- Started at ARI on 7/23 -- his first career start on three-days' rest. Earned a 4-2 win after allowing one run in 5.0 IP.
- Won a 6-2 decision at MIL on 7/28 in his final appearance with San Diego. Allowed only two runs on five hits in 7.2 innings pitched.
- Went 3-1 with a 3.75 ERA in six August starts.
- Won a 3-0 decision in his St. Louis debut on 8/4 vs. FLA. He blanked the Marlins for 6.0 innings, allowing seven hits and no walks. It was his 3rd consecutive win.

- Allowed four runs in his first inning of work and lasted just 4.0 innings on 8/10 at NY. Overall he allowed five runs on seven hits, but the Cardinals came back to post a 7-6 win in 10 innings.
- Won his fourth straight decision in an 8-4 win over the Reds on 8/15 at Busch. He allowed three runs on two HR's (Dunn & Griffey) in just 5.0 IP, but helped himself with a pair of hits, including an RBI-double.
- Held the Reds to just one run in 6.0 IP on 8/20, but settled for his second no-decision as a Cardinal. The Redbirds dropped the 11-inning contest, 5-4, as Ken Griffey, Jr. scored the winning run on an inside-the-park home run.
- Was on the losing end of a 6-4 contest at CHI on 8/25 when he went 6+ innings and allowed six runs (five earned) on seven hits. The Cards trailed 6-2 entering the 9th, but plated two runs before Edgar Renteria struck out with the bases loaded to end the game.
- Tossed his seventh career complete game with a four-hitter at LA on 8/31, a 5-1 Cards win. The Dodgers' lone tally was an Eric Karros solo homer in the fifth inning. Retired the side in order in six of the nine innings. Also earned the GWRBI when his second-inning double scored Eli Marrero.
- Faced the minimum 27 batters in a career-best two-hit shutout at San Diego on 9/5. He went the distance for the eighth time in his career and posted the second CG shutout of his career. Held the Padres hitless for the first six innings before allowing a leadoff single in the 7th. He also allowed a leadoff single in the 9th, but that runner was erased on a game-ending double play.
- Won his third straight decision with a 9-1 win at PIT on 9/20, allowing one run (a Warren Morris solo HR) on just three hits in 7.0 innings of work. The win evened his career mark at 63-63 and made him 5-1 as a Cardinal.
- Threw a career-high 138 pitches in a CG three-hitter at HOU on 9/25, winning his sixth game as a Cardinal and his 14th overall. Allowed just one earned run while fanning nine and walking three in the 3-2 win.
- Won his career-best 15th game on 9/30 vs. PIT, improving his winning streak to five games.
- Tossed seven shutout innings but did not earn a decision on 10/5 as the Cardinals lost to HOU, 2-1.

2001 POSTSEASON - Made his first career postseason appearance and was brilliant in his lone start vs. Arizona in Game 2 of the Division Series...went 7.0 innings and allowed just one run on four hits, with nine strikeouts and one walk, as the Cardinals defeated Randy Johnson 4-1. He also doubled and scored in the Game 2 win.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1988 - In his pro debut, was a New York-Penn League All-Star and club MVP at Single-A St. Catherines...in 12 starts, went 8-2 with a 1.54 ERA, fourth-best in the league...was lifted after 5.0 no-hit innings, June 28 vs. Jamestown...on August 10, made the jump all the way to Double-A Knoxville, where he went 2-2 with a 3.81 ERA in six games (four starts).

1989 - Split time as a starter and a reliever at Single-A Dunedin and Double-A Knoxville...ranked fifth among Florida State League relievers by allowing only 8.73 base runners per nine innings at Dunedin...tied for the Southern League lead with two shutouts in 12 Knoxville starts...the shutouts came in consecutive starts, July 9 and July 14.

1990 - Spent the entire season at Knoxville, except for three July appearances with Syracuse...started the Southern League All-Star Game and threw 1.1 shutout innings...ranked seventh in the league with a 3.14 ERA and topped the SL by allowing only 9.05 base runners per nine innings...led the staff with 42 appearances.

1991 - Combined for a career-high 49 appearances (48 in relief) and nine saves between Double-A Knoxville and Triple-A Syracuse.

1992 - Spent his first full season in Triple-A, posting a 3.13 ERA at Syracuse...was 3-8 with a 3.27 ERA in 16 starts and 3-0 with a save and a 2.59 ERA in nine outings from the bullpen...notched all of his wins against Pawtucket (3-0), Rochester (2-0) and Tidewater (1-0)...was 0-8 against the rest of the International League.

1993 - Opened the season with Syracuse but was recalled by the Blue Jays on May 14 to make his major league debut that same day...allowed two earned runs on three hits in 0.2 innings at New York...was optioned back to Triple-A on May 21, but was recalled four days later when Todd Stottlemyre went on the D.L...earned his first major league win on June 4 with 2.2 innings of shutout relief vs. Oakland...earned wins in three of four appearances, June 4-22 and was 3-0 with a 2.37 ERA through his first 13 major league appearances.

1994 - Made a M.L. career-high 38 appearances, all in relief...his 3.64 ERA, which included a 1.02 mark (2 ER/17.2 IP) after the All-Star break, was the lowest of his big league career...without his 10.13 ERA (15 ER/13.1 IP) in the month of May, he would have finished with a 1.76 ERA...led the A.L. with a .163 average allowed with runners on base...lefties hit only .184 (18-for-98), second best in the league...opened the season 1-1 with a 5.79 ERA through 20 appearances before being optioned to Syracuse on June 9 after throwing 5.0 innings of three-hit shutout relief to earn a 7-5 win against the Yankees that same day...made just one appearance for the Chiefs before being recalled, and logged a 1.72 ERA in his first 18 games after his return...finished the season with 15.2 consecutive scoreless innings...stranded 17 of 20 inherited runners.

1995 - Did not pitch in the majors after July 16 due to shoulder problems...made the first three starts of his M.L. career in his final three appearances...made his big league starting debut, July 2 vs. Baltimore...threw 7.0 shutout innings...left with two outs in the 7th, having allowed two runs on three hits...walked two and fanned six...ended up with a no-decision in a 9-7 loss...five days later, earned a 4-2 win at Oakland...allowed a run on three hits over 5.0 innings, walking one and striking out two...left with a sore right shoulder after 1.1 innings in his final start, July 16 at Seattle...was placed on the 15-day D.L. on July 20 (retroactive to July 17)...worked 7.2 innings over five appearances on a rehab stint at Triple-A Syracuse, but, when the shoulder problem persisted, underwent season-ending arthroscopic surgery performed by Dr. James Andrews to repair his rotator cuff and a labral tear in his right shoulder on September 12.

1996 - Opened the season on the D.L., still recovering from 1995 shoulder surgery...rehabbed with Single-A Dunedin and Triple-A Syracuse prior to making his first M.L. appearance of the season on June 2 with 2.0 scoreless innings vs. Kansas City...made one more appearance, June 6 at New York, before returning to the D.L. on June 11...after two rehab appearances at Syracuse and two more at Single-A St. Catherines, was optioned to Triple-A on July 26...threw 3.0 scoreless innings in his lone Syracuse start at Columbus before being recalled to Toronto on August 5...made 10 consecutive starts, going 4-5 with a 4.61 ERA...on September 4, threw 8.0 innings of five-hit shutout ball, striking out a then-career high nine vs. Kansas City...combined with Mike Timlin on a 6-0 shutout...beat the Yankees, 3-1, on September 15, retiring 15 straight after a Derek Jeter home run...had a no-hitter through 5.0 innings, September 21 at Baltimore, but took a 6-3 loss...in his final start, threw his first career complete game in a 4-1 loss vs. Baltimore on September 26.

1997 - Used exclusively as a starter for the first time in his M.L. career and posted then-career highs in wins (9), starts (31), innings pitched (194.2) and strikeouts (124)...stuck with a loss or a no-decision in eight starts in which he allowed two earned runs or less as he received the least run support per nine innings pitched (3.19 runs) in the A.L...18 of his 31 starts were quality starts...worked at least 6.0 innings in 24 starts, including 14 of his last 16...allowed 31 homers, 5th-most in the A.L...allowed a then career-high four home runs, June 3 at Seattle...did not start again until the Blue Jays' first-ever interleague game, June 13 at Philadelphia, due to tendinitis in his right shoulder...allowed a run in 5.1 innings in a no-decision and also collected the first-ever hit by a Toronto pitcher in a regular season contest...June 18 vs. Atlanta, threw 5.1 no-hit innings en route to a 5-3 win over John Smoltz and the Braves.

CARDINALS WORLD SERIES STORY

1926 The Cardinals defeated the Yankees, four games to three, to win their first world championship. Veteran 39-year-old right-hander Grover Cleveland Alexander, obtained by the Redbirds in a midseason trade with the Chicago Cubs, won the second and sixth games, then came on to save the seventh.

1928 Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig paced the Yankees to a four-game sweep of the Cardinals. Ruth batted .625 for the Series and hit three home runs in one game, and Gehrig batted .545 with nine runs batted in. Four of Gehrig's six hits were home runs.

1930 Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Cardinals, four games to two, as the Redbirds hit only .200 and the Athletics .197. Cardinal victories were pitched by Bill Hallahan, 5-0, in the third game, and Jesse Haines, 3-1, in the fourth.

1931 The Cardinals got revenge against the Athletics, defeating them four games to three. Pepper Martin, the Wild Horse of the Osage, paced the Redbirds, stealing five bases, collecting 12 hits and hitting .500. Bill Hallahan and Burleigh Grimes each pitched two victories for the Cardinals.

1934 The "Gas House Gang" won the National League pennant on the final day of the season, then defeated Detroit in the Series, four games to three. Dizzy and Paul Dean, who combined to win 49 games during the regular season, each won two games over the Tigers. The final game of the Series, won by the Cardinals, 11-0, was marked by Commissioner Kenesaw Landis' order to eject Joe (Ducky) Medwick from the game. Medwick had slid hard into Tigers third baseman Marv Owen in the sixth inning, so infuriating Detroit fans that they bombarded Medwick with fruit, vegetables and debris when he took his position in left field in the bottom of the inning. Landis removed Medwick to halt the disturbance.

1942 The Cardinals lost the first game of the Series to the Yankees, then roared back to win four straight. Rookie pitcher Johnny Beazley won two games, lefthander Ernie White shut out the Yankees in the third game, and third baseman Whitey Kurowski belted an RBI-triple in the second game and a two-run, ninth-inning homer to clinch the finale.

1943 The Yankees evened their World Series record against the Cardinals at 2-2 by defeating the Redbirds in five games. The turning point of the Series occurred in the third game. With the Cardinals holding a 2-1 lead in the eighth, Johnny Lindell crashed into Whitey Kurowski at third on pinch-hitter George Stirnweiss' sacrifice bunt and jarred the ball loose from Kurowski's hand. After a fly out and an intentional walk, Billy Johnson's triple drove home three runs, igniting a five-run inning and a 6-2 Yankee victory. Manager Joe McCarthy's team won the next two games, 2-1 and 2-0, to win the title.

1944 In this only all-St. Louis World Series, pitching dominated as the Cardinals defeated the Browns, four games to two. The two teams combined to strike out a six-game Series-record 92 batters, 49 by Cardinal pitchers and 43 by Browns hurlers. Emil Verban topped Cardinal hitters with a .412 average.

1946 Harry (The Cat) Brecheen won three games and the Cardinals topped the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning of the seventh game, Enos Slaughter singled, then scored all the way from first on Harry Walker's double to left-center, a sprint that surprised Red Sox relay man Johnny Pesky, whose moment's hesitation allowed Slaughter to score the winning run.

1964 A team victory for the Cardinals, who defeated the Yankees, four games to three. Bob Gibson won two games; Ken Boyer hit a grand slam to win the fourth game; Tim McCarver, who batted a Series-high .478, smashed a 10th-inning home run to win the fifth game; and Ron Taylor and Roger Craig combined for 9.2 scoreless innings of relief.

1967 Bob Gibson pitched three complete-game victories and Lou Brock put on one of the finest offensive displays in World Series history as the Cardinals defeated the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. Gibson limited the Red Sox to only 14 hits in three games, and Brock topped all Series hitters with a .414 batting average. Lou also set a Series record by stealing seven bases, and Roger Maris hit .385 and drove in seven runs.

1968 The Cardinals led three games to one, but the Detroit Tigers rallied to win the last three contests and claim their first world championship since 1945. Left-hander Mickey Lolich, who pitched all season in the shadow of 31-game winner Denny McLain, was superb for the Tigers as he won three games, including the 4-1 finale. Bob Gibson won two games for the Redbirds and set Series records by striking out 17 batters in Game One and 35 in the Series, breaking the mark of 31 he set against the Yankees in 1964. Lou Brock batted .464 and stole seven bases.

1982 The Cardinals rallied from a 3-2 deficit in games to defeat the Milwaukee Brewers and bring the World Series Championship trophy back to St. Louis for the first time in 15 years. Joaquin Andujar nailed down two victories and posted a 1.35 ERA while reliever Bruce Sutter posted a win and two saves. John Stuper became only the 14th rookie to start two World Series games, winning the crucial sixth game, a rain-delayed contest that took five hours to complete. Dane Iorg batted .529 and tied a Series record for most hits by a designated hitter. Rookie Willie McGee turned heads by hitting two home runs and making two spectacular catches in one game. Catcher Darrell Porter was named the Series MVP on the strength of his clutch hitting and solid defense.

1985 The Cardinals won the National League Championship Series after losing the first two games to the Los Angeles Dodgers, then winning four straight, including the decisive sixth game on Jack Clark's three-run, ninth-inning homer. In the World Series, they won the first two games at Kansas City, then lost four of the next five games behind an offense that batted only .185 for the Series. John Tudor and Todd Worrell pitched the Cardinals to victory in Game One, and Terry Pendleton's ninth-inning, bases-loaded double sparked a 4-2 victory the next day. Kansas City won its first game, 6-1, behind Brett Saberhagen's pitching, then lost Game Four to Tudor, 3-0. Danny Jackson stopped the Redbirds, 6-1, in the fifth game, although Worrell tied a Series record by striking out six consecutive batters in two innings of relief. The pivotal moment of the Series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Six, with the Cardinals leading, 1-0. After Kansas City leadoff man Jorge Orta reached first on a disputed call by an umpire and Steve Balboni singled after his catchable pop-up fell safely in foul territory, former Cardinal pinch-hitter Dane Iorg stroked a one-out two-run single for a 2-1 Royals victory. Game Seven was no contest, an 11-0 Royals victory.

1987 After coming back from a 3-2 deficit in games to win the National League Championship Series against San Francisco, the Cardinals lost their first two games of the World Series at Minnesota. Returning to Busch Stadium for Game Three, the Redbirds used a three-run seventh and strong pitching by John Tudor to cut the deficit to 2-1. The next night, utility infielder Tom Lawless, who was filling in for injured third baseman Terry Pendleton, led the Cards to a 7-2 win with a three-run homer in the fourth. The round-tripper was just the second for Lawless at the major league level. The Cardinals completed their sweep at home with a 4-2 win in Game Five. Vince Coleman and Ozzie Smith each stole two bases, and Todd Worrell earned his second save of the Series in relief of winner Danny Cox. In Game Six, the Cardinals took a 5-2 lead into the fifth inning, but homers by Don Baylor and Kent Hrbek carried the Twins to an 11-5 victory. In the decisive seventh game, Series MVP Frank Viola allowed only two runs and Greg Gagne broke a 2-2 sixth-inning tie with an infield single, giving Minnesota a 4-2 victory and its first-ever World Series title. The Series was the first in which the home team won each of the seven games.

CARDINALS HISTORICAL / SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

1876 St. Louis became a charter member of the National League, then withdrew after the 1877 season.

1892 St. Louis rejoined the N.L. as the Browns, later becoming the Perfectos.

1899 The team changed its name from Perfectos to Cardinals.

1920 The team moved from Robison Field to Sportsman's Park.

1924 Hornsby won the batting title with a .424 average, the highest mark in the National League since 1900.

1940 First night games in St. Louis for the Browns and then Cardinals. Johnny Mize hit a club-record 43 home runs.

1946 Home paid attendance topped 1 million for the first time.

1948 Stan Musial won his third N.L. Most Valuable Player award and led the league in nearly every batting department — average (.376); runs (135); hits (230); total bases (429); doubles (46); triples (18); runs batted in (131); and slugging percentage (.702).

1950 The Cardinals played their first night opener in St. Louis.

1953 Anheuser-Busch, Inc., bought the Cardinals, renovated Sportsman's Park and renamed it Busch Stadium.

1954 Musial hit five home runs in a May 2 double-header against the Giants at Busch Stadium.

1957 Musial established a National League endurance record by extending his streak of consecutive games played to 895 before an injury forced him to the bench. The mishap occurred at Philadelphia on August 22, when he tore a muscle and chipped a bone in his shoulder blade as he swung at and missed a high, outside pitch. He won the batting title with a .351 average.

1958 Musial, pinch-hitting in the sixth inning, doubled against the Cubs at Wrigley Field on May 13 to collect his 3,000th career hit.

1962 Musial, nearing his 42nd birthday, made a bid for his eighth batting title by hitting .330, but Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers won the crown with a .346 mark.

1963 Musial, who won seven National League batting titles in his 22-year career with the Cardinals and had a lifetime average of .331, announced his retirement. His famous No. 6 became the first Cardinal number to be retired.

1966 The Cardinals closed old Busch Stadium on May 8 with a 10-5 loss to the San Francisco Giants. On May 12, they opened new Busch Memorial Stadium in downtown St. Louis by defeating the Atlanta Braves, 4-3, in 12 innings. Lou Brock singled with the bases loaded, driving in Curt Flood with the winning run. The winning pitcher was Don Dennis, the loser Phil Niekro. Mike Shannon got the first Cardinal hit, a first-inning single, and Atlanta's Felipe Alou hit two home runs. The Cardinals also hosted the All-Star Game.

1967 Home paid attendance topped 2 million for the first time.

1968 Bob Gibson had a 22-9 record, hurled 13 shutouts, had a 15-game winning streak and allowed only 38 earned runs in 304 innings for a 1.12 ERA, a major league record for a pitcher who worked more than 300 innings. He set a World Series strikeout record with 17 in the first game against Detroit. His remarkable season earned him the National League's Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards.

1969 On September 15 against the New York Mets, Steve Carlton struck out 19 batters, a major league record at the time. However, he lost the game, 4-3, as Ron Swoboda hit a pair of two-run homers. Carlton struck out at least one man in every inning and fanned the side in four different frames.

1970 Gibson had a 23-7 record and received his second N.L. Cy Young Award. The Cardinals played their first season at Busch on AstroTurf, which replaced the original natural-grass field.

1971 Joe Torre won the N.L. batting title with a .363 average and was named league MVP. Gibson pitched his only career no-hitter, an 11-0 victory over the Pirates on August 14. Red Schoendienst established a longevity record for Cardinal managers, completing his seventh season. Lou Brock became the first major league player to steal 50 or more bases in seven consecutive years.

1972 Gibson extended his major league record for most seasons with 200 or more strikeouts to nine. He also set an N.L. career mark for righthanders with his 2,786th strikeout. Brock extended his record for most consecutive seasons of 50 or more stolen bases to eight. The Cardinals drew their 50 millionth fan since 1900.

1973 Brock stole his 600th base, moving into ninth place on the all-time list, and extended his major league record for most consecutive seasons with 50 or more steals to nine. Gibson moved into second place on the all-time strikeout list. Joe Torre collected his 2,000th hit and 1,000th RBI.

1974 Brock steals 118 bases to break Maury Wills' single-season mark and surpasses Max Carey's N.L. career record. Brock moves from ninth to second on the all-time career stolen base list. Gibson strikes out the 3,000th batter of his career to become only the second pitcher in baseball history to reach that figure. The Cardinals draw more than 1,800,000 fans, the third-highest home attendance in their history. The Redbirds and Mets play a 25-inning game, the longest night game in major league history and the longest game ever played to conclusion. Cardinals win as Bake McBride scores from first on two errors. McBride is named the N.L. Rookie Of The Year.

1975 Brock gets career hit No. 2,500 and stolen base No. 800. Gibson retires after a 17-year Cardinal career and 251 victories. Gibby is honored by a standing-room crowd on Bob Gibson Day. Jacket Day attracts 50,548 fans, the largest regular-season crowd in St. Louis baseball history. Hrabosky compiles 13 wins and 22 saves and is named "Fireman of the Year." Ted Simmons finishes second in the league batting race with a .332 average.

1976 John Denny wins the National League ERA title at age 23, tying youngest right-hander to win ERA title in N.L. Lou Brock gets 2700th hit of his career and closes to within 27 of tying Ty Cobb's stolen base record.

1977 Lou Brock breaks Ty Cobb's career stolen base mark with number 893 in San Diego, August 29. Garry Templeton becomes youngest M.L. shortstop ever to gather 200 hits in a season. Templeton leads majors with 18 triples, highest number since 1957. Ted Simmons sets club record for home runs by a catcher with 21. Ken Reitz sets new fielding record with N.L. third baseman by committing only 9 errors. Bob Forsch wins 20 games.

1978 Bob Forsch no hits Phillies 5-0, April 16 at Busch Stadium. Manager, Vern Rapp dismissed April 24. Ken Boyer becomes Cardinal manager April 29. Ted Simmons sets club season record and career high with 22 homers for a catcher. George Hendrick has 7 RBI's at Atlanta, August 25. Busch Memorial Stadium gets new astroturf.

1979 Lou Brock collected his 3000th career hit (single off Dennis Lamp) in the 4th inning against the Cubs on August 13 at Busch Stadium. On September 23, Brock stole his 938th base making him baseball's all-time stolen base leader surpassing William (Sliding Billy) Hamilton. Keith Hernandez wins batting title with .344 average and is co-winner of National League M.V.P. award with Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell. Garry Templeton led N.L. with 211 hits. Templeton also led the league in triples with 19, for the third year in a row, setting a new N.L. record and tying the major league mark. His 19 triples are highest number since 1957. He became the first switch-hitter in major league history to collect 100 hits, both right and left-handed, in one season. Garry finished with 100 hits RH and 111 hits LH. Ted Simmons hit a career high 26 home runs, which also set a club record for homers by a catcher.

1980 Ken Reitz sets new fielding record for N.L. third baseman by committing only 8 errors. Dane Iorg has 7 RBI's, August 28 vs. Atlanta. Manager Ken Boyer dismissed June 8. Whitey Herzog becomes Cardinal manager June 9. On August 18, John Claiborne fired as G.M. and Herzog named G.M. on August 29. Red Schoendienst served as interim manager for balance of season. On October 24, Herzog assumed dual role of general manager and field manager.

1981 The Cardinals finished the season with the best winning percentage in the Eastern Division, but missed the playoffs because they finished second in each of the two sections of the schedule caused by the mid-summer players' strike. The Philadelphia Phillies, leaders when the strike began, were voted the first-half championship (however, the Phillies, Cardinals, and Cincinnati Reds voted against it), while Montreal won the second half. In each half, the Cardinals played fewer games than the "winners", and could have tied or won either half with the opportunity to play the same number of games. In the individual field, Bruce Sutter, one of several players obtained in winter trades by Herzog, was the National League's top reliever, winning the Rolaids Relief Man award.

1982 In order to concentrate more on managing, Whitey Herzog stepped down as General Manager on Opening Day, turning the reins over to Joe McDonald. The move paid off as the Cardinals were out of first place for only 48 days of the season and claimed their first ever National League East Championship. A 3-0 sweep of the Atlanta Braves put the Cards in their 13th World Series against the Milwaukee Brewers who fell 4-3 to St. Louis in the 'Fall Classic.' The 1982 team was characterized by an aggressive running style of baseball; seven players stole bases in double figures, led by team catalyst Lonnie Smith, who swiped 68. The team hit only 67 home runs, the fewest in the major leagues. Strong and consistent pitching performances were the rule; prior to clinching the title the Cardinals never lost more than three games in a row. Bruce Sutter had a hand in almost half of the team's victories.

1983 Despite the fact that the 1983 Cardinals finished in fourth place, eleven games out, the team was competitive and exciting, although inconsistent, throughout much of the season. The team climbed to within a half-game of the division lead on September 5 before embarking on a thirteen-day road trip during which the failure of the starting rotation caused the team to plummet out of contention. Still there were noteworthy performances during the year. As a team, the running Redbirds set a new club record with 207 stolen bases. Individually, Danny Cox made his way from extended spring training in April to playing a part in the Cardinals' starting rotation. Bob Forsch pitched the second no-hitter of his career. The league's best right-fielder, George Hendrick, moved to first base after Keith Hernandez was traded and earned post -season honors at his new position. Ozzie Smith won his fourth straight Gold Glove and Willie McGee won his first one.

1984 The Cardinals got off to a bad start in 1984 and dwelled in fifth place for much of the first half of the season before turning things around after the All-Star break. Following the mid-summer classic the Cards posted a 42-33 record, second in the National League only to the eventual N.L. Champions, the Chicago Cubs. That surge lifted the Cards into a third place finish in the division at year end despite contending with many injuries. The team's 220 stolen bases set a new club record, surpassing the 207 mark from 1983, and made them the first major league team since the 1916 St. Louis Browns to steal 200 or more bases three years in a row...Individually, Bruce Sutter set a National League and tied the major league record for saves in a season (45). Joaquin Andujar (20-14) became the club's first 20-game winner in seven seasons. Rookie Terry Pendleton hit .324 after joining the club in July and sparking the team to a 41-29 record. The Cards drew over 2,000,000 fans for the third consecutive year.

1985 The Cardinals lost their first four games, struggled to 7-7, then lost four more. The next time they reached .500 it was at 20-20, and then things got better. They finally made it to first place on June 21, and they were there most of the season. Five defeats in six games early in September left the Cardinals a game behind the New York Mets with 25 to play. But the Redbirds then won 14 of their next 15 and took the division title by three games with 101 victories. Individually, Willie McGee was the batting champion (at .353, a new high for a N.L. switch-hitter) and Most Valuable Player; Vince Coleman was Rookie of the Year, and John Tudor and Joaquin Andujar each won 21 games and Danny Cox took 18. Willie McGee and Ozzie Smith won Gold Gloves again, and great starts by Tommy Herr (110 RBI) and Jack Clark (22 homers) contributed.

1986 The defending National League Champions stumbled at the beginning of the season. After the first two months of the season the Cardinals had the worst record in the League. But the team righted itself posting winning records in each of the next four months to finish third in the National League's Eastern Division. Individually Vince Coleman stole 107 bases to become the first player ever to steal over 100 bases in each of his first two seasons and the first N.L. player to steal 100 bases twice; rookie left-hander Greg Mathews, who was promoted from Louisville, won 11 games in little more than half a season; Ozzie Smith won his seventh straight Gold Glove and Todd Worrell was named N.L. Rookie of the Year. Worrell blazed his way to a major league rookie record 36 saves, becoming the first rookie pitcher ever to lead the league in saves and the first rookie to earn N.L. Relief Pitcher of the Year honor...Three attendance milestones were hit and surpassed during the course of the season. The Cardinals reached the two million mark for the fifth consecutive year, drew the 75 millionth fan in the history of the franchise since 1900 and drew the 50 millionth fan to see the Redbirds play under Anheuser-Busch ownership.

1987 Sparked by a potent offense, the Cardinals slipped no further than two games back in the N.L. East standings and claimed sole possession of first place on May 22. Beset by injuries to several key players throughout the season, manager Whitey Herzog made use of a mixture of experienced veterans and eager rookies to fill the voids created by injuries. The Cardinals extended their lead to 9½ games on July 23 but saw the lead shrink to 1 game as late as Sept. 19. A come-from-behind win a New York on Sept. 11 followed by a doubleheader sweep of the Expos on Sept. 29, set the stage for the pennant clinching win over Montreal on Oct. 1. Several Cards enjoyed banner seasons offensively, including Vince Coleman (third straight season with 100 SB), Jack Clark (35 HR and 106 RBI), Ozzie Smith (.300 BA for first time in his career), Terry Pendleton (.286 BA and 96 RBI), Willie McGee (105 RBI). The Redbirds had four starters with 10 or more victories (John Tudor, Bob Forsch, Greg Mathews and Danny Cox) while rookie Joe Magrane showed much promise in his initial season. In the bullpen, Todd Worrell followed up his impressive rookie season with 33 saves and Ken Dayley overcame serious elbow surgery to post nine wins in relief. 1987 was a fantastic year at the gate as well, as the Cardinals drew a Major League leading 3,072,122 fans, becoming just the third club in M.L. history to surpass the three million mark in attendance.

1988 After acquiring Tom Brunansky from Minnesota in April, the defending N.L. champions climbed within six games of first on June 12, but injuries to Bob Horner and Terry Pendleton crippled the offense. By the end of July, the Cardinals were 19 games out of first. Newcomer Jose DeLeon became the first Cards pitcher since 1972 to record 200 strikeouts. Sophomore hurler Joe Magrane won the N.L. ERA title with a 2.18 mark, despite winning just five games. Todd Worrell posted his third-straight 30-save season, and Vince Coleman led the league in stolen bases for the fourth consecutive year. Jose Oquendo became the first N.L. player since 1918 to play all nine positions in a season. Trades that brought Pedro Guerrero, Denny Walling and Brunansky to St. Louis also ended long-time affiliations with departing players Tom Herr, Bob Forsch and John Tudor. Despite finishing fifth, the club drew nearly 2.9 million fans to Busch.

1989 Although the outlook was bleak when injuries crippled the pitching staff in spring training, the Cardinals remained in the race until the final week of the season. The Redbirds pulled within a half-game of the division-leading Chicago Cubs with a dramatic come-from-behind win on Sept. 9, but a six-game losing streak followed and the Cards sunk to third place on the final day of the season. Pedro Guerrero was spectacular in the clutch, batting .406 with runners in scoring position and leading the club with 117 RBI and a .311 batting average. Vince Coleman again led the league in stolen bases and set a major league record by stealing 50 consecutive bases without being caught, a streak begun in 1988. Despite the early concern over the pitching staff, Joe Magrane (18 wins) and Jose DeLeon (16) spearheaded the patched-up starting unit. The Cardinals set a club attendance record, attracting 3,080,980 fans during a season that ended on a sad note when long-time club president August A. Busch Jr. died at age 90.

1990 Considered by many to be a contender following the spring training "lockout," the Cardinals never lived up to expectations and finished in last place for the first time since 1918. On July 5, Manager Whitey Herzog resigned after more than 10 years as the Cards' skipper. Interim manager Red Schoendienst took over until Aug. 2, when Joe Torre was named manager. Willie McGee won the league batting title (.335), despite being traded to Oakland in late August as the team made room for younger players. One of those was rookie catcher Todd Zeile, who led the team with 15 homers. John Tudor returned to the club and posted a team-high 12 wins but announced his retirement following the season. Vince Coleman led the league in steals for the sixth straight year, tying Maury Wills' N.L. record, and batted a career-high .292. Starting pitchers Jose DeLeon (a league-high 19 losses) and Joe Magrane (17 losses) were disappointments. Reliever Lee Smith was a steady closer following his acquisition in May, saving 27 games. Jose Oquendo set a major league record for fewest errors by a second baseman (three).

1991 Coming off a last-place finish, the Cardinals were one of baseball's biggest surprises in 1991, moving up to second place in the N.L. East. Manager Joe Torre, in his first full season at the Cardinals' helm, opened the year with several unproven players at key positions. Among the young standouts were outfielders Ray Lankford and Felix Jose. Lankford led the majors with 15 triples and had a team-high 44 steals. Nine Cardinals stole 10 or more bases, the first time since 1917 that a team had done so. Former Athletic Jose, playing his first full season in the National League, led the Cardinals in batting (.305) and plugged Busch Stadium's spacious gaps with 40 doubles. Sophomore Todd Zeile made a fine transition from catcher to third base, leading the club with 11 homers and 81 RBI. Catcher Tom Pagnozzi, seeing his first full-time duty, earned a Gold Glove award. The season also was a good one for Cardinals named Smith. Lee Smith set an N.L. record with 47 saves and became only the fifth pitcher to record 300 career saves. Ozzie Smith set an N.L. record for fewest errors by a shortstop (eight) en route to winning his 12th Gold Glove. Bryn Smith's 12 wins paced the pitching staff, which was without Joe Magrane, Frank DiPino and Todd Worrell due to injuries. Young starters Ken Hill (11 wins) and Omar Olivares (11 wins), and reliever Cris Carpenter (10 wins) helped fill the void.

1992 Though injuries took a toll in the Cardinals' centennial season, the team actually led the N.L. East by one game on June 1, despite losing three players in the first week of the season. Injuries or illnesses continued to mount, however, as the team lost shortstop Ozzie Smith to chicken pox for two weeks in late June and Omar Olivares and Rheal Cormier from the starting rotation. At second base, seven players were used. Ray Lankford, moved from first to third in the order, became the first Cardinal since Lou Brock in 1967 to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases. Ozzie Smith tied Felix Jose for the club lead in batting (.295) and stole a team-high 43 bases. The "Wizard" also collected his 2,000th career hit and 500th stolen base, besides earning his 12th All-Star Game berth and 13th Gold Glove. Bob Tewksbury emerged as the No. 1 starter, winning 16 games and ranking second in the majors with a 2.16 ERA. He joined Smith on the N.L. All-Star squad, as did catcher Tom Pagnozzi, who tied a league mark with a .999 fielding average, and reliever Lee Smith, who led the league in saves (43) for the second straight season. Smith received help in the bullpen from Todd Worrell, who, after missing the last two seasons to injury, moved into the top spot on the Cards' all-time saves list. The team's major league record 16-game errorless streak in August helped establish a club record for fielding (.985). On the down side, the Redbirds set records for most strikeouts and caught stealing in a season. Moving the fences in proved beneficial. The Cards set a Busch Stadium season high while out-homering opponents, 55-52.

1993 Helped by a 20-7 mark in June (a club record for the month) and a potent offense, the Cardinals closed to within three games of the front-running Philadelphia Phillies in mid-July, only to fall 10 games back by the end of August. Midseason injuries to relievers Mike Perez, Les Lancaster and Paul Kilgus put the pitching staff on the skids. Offensively, several players enjoyed banner seasons, reflected by the team's 118 home runs, the most in 30 years. Newcomer Gregg Jefferies finished third in the N.L. batting race at .342 and swiped 46 bases, the most ever by a Cardinal first baseman. Mark Whiten cracked a team-high 25 home runs, including four in the second game of a September 7 double-header at Cincinnati, thus becoming only the 12th player to accomplish the feat. His 12 RBI in the game tied former Cardinal Jim Bottomley's major league record. For the season, Whiten finished with 99 RBI. Todd Zeile drove in 60 after the All-Star break, finishing with a team-high 103 RBI as he settled into the cleanup spot. Bernard Gilkey enjoyed a breakthrough season, leading the club in hits, extra-base hits and runs scored. Ozzie Smith recorded his 16th-straight 20-steal season and passed Larry Bowa to become the all-time N.L. leader in games played at shortstop. Gerald Perry tied a club record with 24 pinch-hits. Though the pitching was largely inconsistent, Bob Tewksbury led the staff with a career-best 17 wins and walked only 20 batters for the second straight season. Cuban rookie Rene Arocha ranked second on the staff with 11 wins, despite missing nearly a month with a broken finger. Reliever Lee Smith became the majors' career saves leader in April and set a club record for career saves (160) before being traded to the New York Yankees in late August. The Cards slipped defensively, committing 159 errors and failing to place a member on the Rawlings' Gold Glove team for the first time since 1977.

1994 The season started with a bang when Ray Lankford homered in the first at-bat of the schedule, but a players' strike in mid-August forced the cancellation of the remainder of the season and the World Series, ending the year in tragic fashion. When play was suspended on August 12, the Redbirds were 53-61 and tied with Pittsburgh for third place in the newly formed N.L. Central Division. The club's 5.14 ERA was its worst since 1897, and the opposition outscored the Cards by nearly 100 runs. A seven-game winning streak by Bob Tewksbury and a consecutive-game homer streak of 12 games highlighted the early portion of the schedule, helping the club stay within five games of first place through July 2. The Cardinals were involved in 14 shutouts and, despite inconsistent pitching, won seven of them. They tied an N.L. record by using six pitchers in a shutout (2-0) win at Pittsburgh on May 17. On May 24 against Philadelphia, they established a record for most runners left on base (16) in a shutout loss. The Cardinals blasted 108 home runs, exceeding the 100-homer plateau for just the second time since 1980, and were on pace to hit their most round-trippers since 1963. They hit a Busch Stadium-record five home runs in a July 1 win vs. Colorado. An 8-20 record in July included two of the team's lowest moments: On July 16 at Colorado, Cardinal pitchers walked a team-record 16 batters, one short of the N.L. record, and on July 18, the team tied an N.L. mark by losing an 11-run lead in its 15-12 loss at Houston. Ozzie Smith passed Luis Aparicio on July 14 to become baseball's all-time assist leader at shortstop. On September 1, Mark Lamping was appointed president, replacing the retiring Stuart Meyer. Lamping named Walt Jocketty general manager in October, replacing Dal Maxvill, who had held the title since 1985. Hall of Famers Bob Gibson and Lou Brock were named to manager Joe Torre's coaching staff for 1995.

1995 The season was disappointing in most respects, with the Cardinals posting a 62-81 mark and their worst winning percentage (.434) since 1990. The schedule was reduced to 144 games due to the players' strike that continued into the first week of April. Once play began on April 26, the Cardinals never challenged for the NL Central lead. On June 16, Manager Joe Torre was fired and replaced by Mike Jorgensen. Although the team languished near the Central Division basement, there were a number of individual highlights. Reliever Tom Henke saved 36 of 38 opportunities, including a team-record 22 straight to begin the season, and won his first Rolaids Relief title. He also notched his 300th career save, becoming the seventh pitcher to reach that plateau. Henke headlined a bullpen that led the NL with a 2.71 ERA and a .225 opponents' batting mark. Rich DeLucia topped the team with eight wins (the lowest-ever total to lead the club), all in relief. While starters Danny Jackson and Ken Hill failed to fulfill expectations, Mike Morgan, who was acquired in a June trade for Todd Zeile, gave the Busch Stadium crowd a night to remember on July 3 when he held Montreal hitless for 8.1 innings.On offense, the Cardinals' outfield trio of Bernard Gilkey (a team-high .298 BA), Ray Lankford (25 HRs, 82 RBIs) and Brian Jordan (22 HRs, 81 RBIs) led the way. Lankford's team-high 25 homers were the most ever by a Cards center fielder, and he tied Jordan for the team lead with 24 steals, thus becoming only the fifth Cardinal and the first since 1948 to lead the team in both home runs and steals. Jordan and Lankford also formed the Redbirds' first 20-homer tandem since 1980. First baseman/outfielder John Mabry (.307) narrowly missed qualifying for the NL Top 10 in batting, but his average topped all NL rookies and earned him a spot on the Topps All-Rookie team. Ozzie Smith, who was slowed by a shoulder injury, added to his collection of fielding records on Sept. 15 when he turned his 1,554th double play, an all-time high among shortstops. He also became the first big-league shortstop since 1950 to play at the age of 40 and the first Cardinal shortstop to do so since 1918. Off the bench, veteran Gerald Perry became the club's all-time pinch-hit leader (70), rookie Mark Sweeney hit in seven straight pinch at-bats (one short of the major league record) and Danny Sheaffer hit the Cards' first pinch grand slam in nearly 10 years. The Cardinals took part in two bizarre games at Dodger Stadium: on May 12 they committed seven errors, their highest single-game total since 1940, and on Aug. 10 they recorded a 2-1 forfeit win, the first forfeited game in the majors since 1979. A busy off-season included the hiring of Tony La Russa as manager and the announced sale of the club to a group of long-time Cardinals fans led by Fred Hanser, William DeWitt Jr. and Andrew Baur. The Busch playing surface was changed from artificial turf to natural grass prior to the '96 season.

1996 With new ownership, new Manager Tony LaRussa and a variety of new players in place, the Cardinals made their first postseaon appearance since 1987. The year also marked the end of an era, as shortstop Ozzie Smith completed his 19th, and final, major league campaign. The Cardinals began their climb to their first N.L. Central Division title after falling nine games below .500 following a series sweep by Colorado in mid-May. They rebounded with a sweep of the division-rival Astros in Houston, went on to record a 17-10 mark in June and reached the All-Star break tied for the division lead. The race remained close until Labor Day weekend, when the Redbirds swept three games from the first-place Astros to take over the division lead for good. Right fielder Brian Jordan led the league with a .422 batting average with runners in scoring position and teamed with center fielder Ray Lankford, the N.L. fielding leader, to provide dazzling outfield defense. New left fielder Ron Gant led the team with 30 homers despite missing over a month to injury. Brothers Andy (18-10) and Alan Benes (13-10) combined for 31 wins, and newcomer Todd Stottlemyre fashioned 14 victories in his first N.L. season. Lefthander Donovan Osborne won a career-high 13 games. The bullpen was anchored by former Oakland relief ace Dennis Eckersley, who saved 30 games in 34 tries. Fan-favorite Willie McGee returned to the club after five years with San Francisco and Boston and batted .307, including .350 in the pinch. The season also featured many record-setting achievements: The Cardinals tied a 56-year-old club record with a seven-homer game (July 12 at Chicago); the pitching staff recorded a team-record 1,050 strikeouts; and Willie McGee's five-RBI inning tied Chick Hafey's 1930 mark. The Cardinals retired the uniform numbers of Red Schoendienst (2), Enos Slaughter (9) and Ozzie Smith (1). In their first postseason appearance in nine years, the Cardinals swept a best-of-five Division Series from San Diego. After taking a 3-1 lead over defending World Series champion Atlanta in the NLCS, the Cardinals lost three straight.

1997 After beginning the season with a six-game losing streak, the Cardinals never climbed above .500 and finished in fourth place with a 73-89 record, 11 games behind division-winner Houston. The Redbirds did manage to take sole possession of first place for two days (July 2-3), and their high-water mark for the season was an even .500 (41-41). But after trailing first-place Pittsburgh by only two games at the All-Star break, the Cardinals dropped to 7½ back by the end of July. During the course of the season, the Cardinals set several club records. They used a record 51 players (including 24 pitchers), swatted a franchise-record 144 round-trippers (one more than their 1955 total of 143), and established team highs in strikeouts — at the plate (1,191) and on the mound (1,130). Ray Lankford, who missed the first two weeks of the season while recovering from shoulder surgery, emerged as a star-caliber player, leading the team with a career-high 31 homers (the most ever by a Cards center fielder) and career-best 98 RBIs. He finished only percentage points behind team batting leader Delino DeShields (.2954 to .2946). Slugger Mark McGwire arrived July 31 and belted 24 home runs as a Cardinal, including 15 in September (a club record for one month). He finished with 58 homers, tying the major league record for righthanded hitters. McGwire became just the fifth player to hit as many as 58 home runs and only the second, next to Babe Ruth, to record 50 or more in consecutive seasons. "Big Mac's" total of 110 homers in 1996 and '97 are the most ever back-to-back by a righty. He finished the year by homering in 12 consecutive series, but none of those blasts matched the flair of the 517-foot shot he launched above the left-field scoreboard in his first at-bat on Sept. 16, the day he announced he'd signed a multiyear contract with the club. Pitcher Matt Morris displayed much promise in his first season, leading N.L. rookie pitchers in wins (12), ERA (3.19), complete games (three), strikeouts (149), opponents' batting average (.258) and innings pitched (217). He topped the staff in victories and starts (33). DeShields led the team in batting (.295), hits (169), triples (14), sacrifice flies (six) and stolen bases (55). He was the first Cardinal since Lankford in 1991 to lead the league in triples. The Cardinals posted an 8-7 record against A.L. opponents in their first year of interleague play. They swept a three-game series from Minnesota but lost three at Milwaukee. The team drew 2,634,014 fans, the fifth-highest total in club history. Before the season, the Cardinals added a hand-operated scoreboard in center field and moved the visitors' bullpen to right field.

1998 While Mark McGwire slugged his way to a record-setting season, the Cardinals finished in third place for the fifth time in the last decade, 19 games behind Central Division champion Houston. The 83-79 Cardinals jumped out of the gate strong, as McGwire began his march toward 70 home runs by going deep in each of the first four games, helping the Redbirds to a 16-11 record through April. As injuries took their toll, the Cardinals labored into the All-Star recess in fourth place, 12½ games out of first, with a 40-46 record. The team wound up closing the season with a 43-33 record after the break, including an 18-7 mark in September, the franchise's best record in that month since moving into Busch Stadium in 1966. McGwire remained the center of attention throughout the year, captivating a national audience as he marched toward Roger Maris' 1961 single-season record of 61 homers. Big Mac eclipsed the record with his 62nd homer at 8:18 p.m. Central Time on Tuesday, Sept. 8. The record-breaking homer came with two outs in the fourth inning —a solo shot to left field off Cubs' righthander Steve Trachsel. McGwire set a bevy of records during his home run tour de force. He walked 162 times to set a new N.L. standard, averaged one home run every 7.27 at-bats to break his 1996 major league record of one homer every 8.13 at-bats, hit an N.L.-record 38 home runs at home and became the first player to hit at least 50 homers in three consecutive seasons. McGwire also set a club record for most home runs in one month when he hit 16 in May, became the first Cardinal to hit a grand slam on Opening Day, hit the longest home run in Busch Stadium history (an estimated 545 feet on May 16) and became the oldest player (34 years, 324 days) in major league history to hit as many as 50 homers in a season. Home run records weren't McGwire's exclusive domain, however, as the team collectively set a single-season club mark with 223 homers, most in the National League and second-most in N.L. history. The Cardinals hit 10 homers in the pinch, also a team record, and homered in a team-record 17 straight games (34 homers total) from May 7 to May 25. The Cardinals' lineup featured four players with at least 20 homers for the first time ever, with McGwire and the outfield trio of Ray Lankford (31 homers), Ron Gant (26) and Brian Jordan (25) making history. McGwire and Lankford combined for 101 home runs, becoming just the third pair of teammates in big-league history to top the century mark in one year. Lankford wound up with a career-high 105 RBIs and became the all-time Busch Stadium home run leader, reaching 87 in his career. Outfielder J.D. Drew, the Cards' first selection (fifth overall) in the June amateur draft, signed a major league contract July 3 and made his big-league debut Sept. 8. On the pitching staff, 15 hurlers drew starting assignments, though the staff became more solidified in the second half as players returned from injuries. Righthander Matt Morris was activated from the disabled list on July 10 and led the staff after the All-Star break with seven wins and a 2.48 ERA. Cardinals fans turned out in record numbers, setting club home (3,194,092) and road (2,766,984) attendance marks. The club sold out its final 14 home games (the entire September home schedule).

1999 The Cardinals concluded the 20th century almost exactly the way they began it — their .466 winning percentage (75-86) in '99 was nearly identical to their .464 mark in 1900, and they finished 21½ games out of first place, slightly off their 19-game deficit 99 years earlier. Mark McGwire followed his record-setting 70-homer season of 1998 with a 65-homer campaign in 1999 and led the league with 147 RBIs. While extending his record string of consecutive 50-homer seasons to four, McGwire climbed 10 spots on the all-time home run list, moving into 10th place with 522 career blasts. He hit No. 500 on Aug. 5 off San Diego's Andy Ashby, reaching the plateau in the fewest at-bats (5,487) in big-league history. Third baseman Fernando Tatis enjoyed a banner offensive season that included a .298 batting average, 34 home runs and 107 RBIs. He also stole 21 bases to become just the fourth player (and first infielder) in Cardinals history to have a 20-homer/20-steal season. Tatis led the league with a .692 batting average (9-for-13) with the bases loaded, and on April 23 he became the first player to hit two grand slams in the same inning, connecting for both off the Dodgers' Chan Ho Park. Tatis' three grand slams during the year tied a club record, and his 34 homers were the most ever by a Redbirds third sacker. Joe McEwing's 25-game hitting streak from June 8 through July 4 established a club mark for rookies, ranking as the fifth-longest by a rookie in major league history. Shortstop Edgar Renteria led the team in games (154), at-bats (585), hits (161), doubles (36), and stolen bases (37). Pitcher Kent Bottenfield matched his career victory total by posting an 18-7 record. Bottenfield, who took a 14-3 record into his first career All-Star Game appearance, led the staff in wins, ERA (3.97), strikeouts (124) and starts (31). Rookie Jose Jimenez provided one of the season's other pitching success stories on June 25, when he no-hit Arizona, winning a 1-0 duel over the Diamondbacks' Randy Johnson. Jimenez became the 23rd rookie to toss a no-hitter and just the second Cardinals rookie to do so, after Paul Dean in 1934. Fan-favorite Willie McGee announced his retirement after the season, ending an 18-year major league career that included an N.L. MVP Award, two batting titles and 2,254 hits. Redbird fans again passed through the turnstiles at a record clip, breaking the team home (3,225,334) and road (2,820,564) attendance marks for the second consecutive season.

2000 Following a disappointing finish in 1999, General Manager Walt Jocketty immediately went to work and bolstered the team's pitching staff by trading for starters Darryl Kile and Pat Hentgen, and closer Dave Veres. He followed up those moves by dealing for second baseman Fernando Viña and by signing free-agent pitcher Andy Benes, who had departed St. Louis just two years earlier. Mid-way through spring training, Jocketty pulled off perhaps the year's biggest acquisition by trading pitcher Kent Bottenfield and second baseman Adam Kennedy to Anaheim in exchange for All-Star outfielder Jim Edmonds. The 2000 squad opened the season with a 7-1 win over rival Chicago on Opening Day and remained in first place for all but three days. By the All-Star break, the club held an eight-game lead over the Cincinnati Reds and ended the season as National League Central Division Champions, 10 games ahead of their closest pursuer. With a 95-67 record, the team became the 23rd in franchise history, and first since 1987, to reach the 90-win mark. The Cardinals packed a powerful punch in the season's early stages, smacking home runs at a record rate. Twenty-one different players homered for the Redbirds as they posted a team-record 235 homers on the year. Despite bouts with back and leg injuries, Mark McGwire began the season strong and was hitting .303 with 30 home runs by the All-Star break. A severe case of tendinitis in his right knee caused McGwire to remove himself from the game on July 6 and he never fully recovered the rest of the season. He finished the year with 554 career home runs, ranking seventh on baseball's all-time home run list. Edmonds took over as the team's offensive leader, batting .295 with 42 homers and 108 RBIs while also drawing strong MVP consideration. He also turned heads with his spectacular defensive play, earning his third Rawlings Gold Glove award. A spark plug at the top of the lineup, Viña was everything Jocketty and Manager Tony La Russa hoped he would be, despite a couple of trips to the disabled list. While his .300 batting average led the team, Viña was hit by pitch a Major League-leading 28 times, the most by a Cardinal since 1910, when Steve Evans was hit a franchise-record 31 times. A trading deadline deal brought Will "The Thrill" Clark to St. Louis, and Clark, who announced his retirement following the season, sparked an offense that was sagging. He finished the season batting .345 with 12 homers and 42 RBIs in 51 games as a Redbird. Starting pitching was one of the strengths of the club as the Cardinals used only five starters through their first 122 games (August 19). Kile led the team with 20 wins, finishing second in the N.L. in victories while becoming the Cardinals first 20-game winner since 1985. Lefthanded rookie sensation Rick Ankiel finished second in Rookie of the Year balloting with an 11-7 record and a 3.50 ERA that was eighth among all National League pitchers. Ankiel struck out a team-high 194 batters, breaking Dizzy Dean's Cardinals rookie record of 191 set in 1932. His strikeouts per nine innings ratio of 10.0 was second only to Arizona's Randy Johnson and his .219 opponents batting average was third in the league. Garrett Stephenson began the season with an eight-game winning streak and finished with a career-high 16 wins. Hentgen posted 15 wins while Andy Benes contributed 12. Catcher Mike Matheny, another off-season acquisition, was a controlling factor in the success of the pitching staff. He established career highs in nearly every offensive category, but it was his defense that was most noticeable. Matheny threw out a remarkable 51% (46-for-90) of opposing base stealers which ranked first in the Majors and helped earn him his first Rawlings Gold Glove award. His season came to an unfortunate and abrupt end on September 29, when he severed two flexor tendons and a nerve in his right ring finger while accidentally cutting himself on a knife. He underwent surgery and missed the remainder of the season and all of the postseason. Edmonds, McGwire and Kile were each named to the N.L. All-Star team, but due to his injury, McGwire could not appear and shortstop Edgar Renteria was named as his replacement. Renteria had one of the best all-around seasons ever by a Cardinals shortstop, setting career highs in home runs (16 - the most ever by a Cardinals' shortstop), RBIs (76) and runs scored (94) and he proved to be one of the most consistent players for the club during the postseason. His .423 slugging percentage earned him the N.L. Silver Slugger at shortstop. For the 17th time, and the second time in five years under La Russa's helm, the Cardinals advanced to the postseason. St. Louis first met up with the Atlanta Braves in the Division Series, a team that had won its division nine out of the past 10 seasons. The Cards proved up to the task and quickly dispatched of the Braves, sweeping them in three games. The Cardinals moved on to face the New York Mets, a team that had tormented them all season. Aside from Andy Benes' strong Game 3 outing at New York, the Mets handled the short-handed Cardinals with ease by winning the best-of-seven series in just five games. The Cardinals were without the services of McGwire, Matheny and Stephenson during the N.L.Championship Series. Following the season, Jocketty was cited as Executive of the Year by both Baseball America and The Sporting News for his keen acquisitions. He helped the Cardinals become the first club in baseball history to acquire a 20-game winner (Kile) and 40-homer player (Edmonds) in the same off-season. For the third-straight year the Cardinals set a new attendance record as 3.3 million fans visited Busch Stadium, selling out a record 37 games.

2001 The Cardinals, having posted 17-8 and 13-14 records the first two months of the 2000 season, juxtaposed that early-season pattern and sat in second place at the 2001 season's one-third mark. This time they went 12-12 in April, dropping into fifth place, before winning 10 consecutive games May 7-17 and vaulting briefly into first. A 1-8 road trip in early June was the primary cause of that month's 11-16 record, and by the All-Star break, the Cardinals were 43-43 and eight games behind division-leading Houston. That was still their situation, but with a 57-55 record, as they opened play August 9, before going on an 11-game win streak that triggered the club's postseason drive. The pair of double-figure win streaks were the first for a Cardinal ballclub in the same season since 1941. And the Cardinals' fans continued showing their support, as 3,113,091 paid their way into Busch Stadium, marking the fourth consecutive season, and sixth in club history, of three-million-plus attendance. For all of the stars who made the 2001 Cardinal season what it was, perhaps most prominent was the newest, Albert Pujols. Pujols made the opening-day roster, the result of Bobby Bonilla suffering a strained left hamstring March 24 that forced the veteran to the disabled list, and the 21-year-old Pujols made the most of his opportunity. Pujols, primarily been a third baseman who had appeared in 133 games with three minor-league clubs as a first-year professional in 2000, hit a National League-record eight April home runs and never looked back. Pujols was the first Cardinal rookie selected for the All-Star Game since left-handed pitcher Luis Arroyo in 1955 and the first to play since third baseman Eddie Kazak in 1949. He went on to play in 161 games, drew 154 starts at four different positions, and batted .329 with a Cardinal rookie-record 37 home runs and an NL rookie-record 130 runs batted in. His club Triple Crown was the first by a Cardinal since Ted Simmons in 1973 and the first by a Cardinal rookie since Rogers Hornsby in 1916. He broke three NL rookie batting records, set or tied seven club rookie marks and earned unanimous selection as NL Rookie of the Year. Finishing among the league leaders in no fewer than 10 offensive categories, he became the first Cardinal rookie chosen to the Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger team, as well as finishing fourth in voting for the Most Valuable Player award. Mark McGwire hit 29 home runs in 299 at-bats and played in 97 games in his final major-league season. The first baseman hit the 583rd home run of his career, and 220th as a Cardinal, October 4 at Milwaukee, three days after his 39th birthday, and while continuing to have difficulties with his right knee. Centerfielder Jim Edmonds, who finished fifth in the league with 12 assists and continued adding to his collection of spectacular catches, won his fourth Rawlings Gold Glove Award in five seasons. Edmonds kept up his end at the plate, too, hitting .304 with 30 homers and 110 RBI, including a .373 average with 14 homers and 69 RBI in his last 44 games. Second baseman Fernando Vina, who committed just nine errors in 151 games and whose .987 fielding percentage was good enough for a second straight NL fielding crown, won his first Gold Glove. The Cardinal leadoff hitter, Vina finished seventh in the league with 191 hits, continued taking 'em for the team by being hit by a pitch 22 times, second-most in the league, and struck out just once per 19.7 plate appearances, also second in the NL. The fourth Cardinal with a .300-plus qualifying average, Placido Polanco, hit .307 and led the club with 21 three-hit games. His 20-game hitting streak, July 21 to August 11, was club's longest, and the league's third-longest, of 2001. J.D. Drew suffered a broken finger when he was hit by a pitch June 17, but still managed to finish the season batting .323 with 27 homers and 73 RBI. Matt Morris, back in the starting rotation two years after elbow surgery, became the Cardinals' first 22-game winner since Bob Gibson recorded 23 victories in 1970, in addition to tying Arizona's Curt Schilling for the major-league lead in wins. Morris netted his first All-Star Game selection and was named NL Comeback Player of the Year. The veteran righthander also tallied a record 15 Busch Stadium victories, surpassing John Tudor's 1984 total of 14. Darryl Kile added 16 victories and he and Morris ran 5-6 in the league ERA race, 3.09-3.16, one of five categories in which they placed in the top 10 together. Lefthander reliever Steve Kline made a club-record 89 appearances and posted a 1.80 ERA, second-best among NL relievers. Kline was one of four Cardinal relievers to appear in 60-plus games, the others being Dave Veres (71), Mike Timlin (67) and Gene Stechschulte (67). Stechschulte even figured in the mix offensively, hitting the first pitch ever delivered to him as major-league batsman for a pinch-hit home run, April 17 against Armando Reynoso of Arizona. He became the fifth Cardinal ever, but the third in less than 12 months, to homer in his first major-league at-bat. In addition to becoming the 16th player to hit a career first-pitch homer, he was also the 13th big-leaguer to pinch-homer in his first at bat. Lefthander Bud Smith made his big-league debut June 10 and won his first start June 17 against the White Sox. Smith and Woody Williams, and August 2 acquisition from the Padres for Ray Lankford, combined to win all seven of their September outings. In the first of these starts, September 3 at San Diego, Smith walked four but recorded seven strikeouts and posted the ninth no-hit game in club history. Two nights later, Williams tossed a two-hit shutout to complete a three-game sweep of the Padres, which triggered an 18-3 run bringing the Cardinals into a tie for first place. Williams went 7-1 in 11 Cardinal starts and was named the NL Pitcher of the Month for September. The Cardinals held opponents to two or fewer runs 62 times, most in the league, and finished third in the NL with a 3.93 ERA. The Redbird staff recorded a 2.99 ERA and yielded a .217 batting average from September 1 to the end of the season. The club went 17-5 in September, then, with a 5-1 win at Milwaukee October 2, the club's 34th win in 45 games, tied the Astros for the Central Division lead. The Cardinals finished 93-69 and co-owners of the first shared championship in major-league history, although having lost the season series to the Astros, the Cardinals assumed the position of wild-card qualifier to the National League postseason field. Williams and Smith followed up their September efforts and claimed victories in the second and fourth games, respectively, of the National League Division Series against the Arizona Diamondbacks. Following the three-hour, 36-minute rain delay of the start of Game Four at Busch Stadium, Polanco became the first player in 95 years to lay down three sacrifice bunts in a major-league postseason game, matching the efforts of the Cubs' Joe Tinker in the 1906 World Series. Morris followed up his outstanding season by holding the Arizona ballclub to two runs over 15 innings in two starts. However, he lost 1-0 in the series opener and then, after Drew's game-tying home run in the eighth inning of the deciding fifth game, watched the Diamondbacks score a run in the ninth for a 2-1 win.

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS RETIRED NUMBERS

In the 110-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals, nine individuals have enjoyed such distinguished careers on the field, in the dugout or from the owners box that their uniform numbers have been retired by the organization. Only the New York Yankees (14) and Brooklyn/Los Angeles Dodgers (10) have retired more numbers, while the New York/San Francisco Giants also have retired nine. The nine honored Redbirds are recognized on pennants located in the upper deck of right-center field at Busch Stadium.

The Cardinals also honor Jackie Robinson, whose uniform No. 42 was retired throughout Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of his breaking the big-league color barrier. Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956. He was the National League Rookie of the Year in 1947, the Most Valuable Player in 1949 and a five-time All-Star. Robinson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1962.

OZZIE SMITH

FULL NAME: Osborne Earl Smith
HEIGHT: 5-10 WEIGHT: 180 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: 12/26/54 at Mobile, Alabama.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

The newest member of the National Baseball Hall of Fame, Ozzie Smith is widely regarded as the finest fielding shortstop of all time. But after being labeled as a good-field, no-hit performer early in his career, he developed into a bona fide offensive threat as well.

The Cardinals acquired Smith from the San Diego Padres in exchange for shortstop Garry Templeton on February 11, 1982. It proved to be one of the greatest trades in franchise history. Smith was a key element in St. Louis' success of the 1980s, and he became one of the city's most popular citizens.

A lifetime .231 batter when he arrived in St. Louis, Smith promptly hit .248 for the 1982 season as the Cardinals won the World Series over the Milwaukee Brewers. In 1985, Smith batted at a .276 clip with a career high of six home runs and 54 RBI. He subsequently stunned the baseball world with a game-winning homer in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game 5 of the National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers. The blast - on a 1-2 pitch from reliever Tom Niedenfuer - was Smith's first as a left-handed batter in 3,009 at-bats and prompted Cardinals' broadcaster Jack Buck to exclaim, "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy!" Smith put together his finest season at the plate in 1987, with career highs of a .303 average and 75 RBI, as the Cardinals captured their third N.L. pennant in six seasons. He finished as runner-up for the Most Valuable Player Award to Andre Dawson of the Chicago Cubs.

Throughout his offensive progression, Smith seemingly made every play defensively, both the routine and the spectacular. "The Wizard" won 13 consecutive Gold Gloves between 1980 and 1992, setting a major league record with an all-time low of eight errors in 1991. Smith's most eye-popping play came Aug. 5, 1986, against the Philadelphia Phillies at Busch Stadium. He took off on a short fly ball to left field hit by Von Hayes and, with his back to the plate, flew parallel to the ground and completely stretched out to make the catch. Smith is baseball's career leader in assists (8,375), chances accepted (12,624) and double plays (1,590) by a shortstop. He led the N.L. in fielding percentage eight times and had a career .978 mark, fifth in baseball annals.

Smith was selected to 15 All-Star Games, and when he retired following the 1996 season, he had received more votes in fan balloting for the Mid-Summer Classic than any other player in N.L. history (27,597,904). On St. Louis' career lists, Smith ranks second in walks (876); third in games (1,990), at-bats (7,160) and stolen bases (433); sixth in runs (991) and hits (1,944); and eighth in doubles (338).

Since the conclusion of his playing days, Smith has done some television work for CNN and as host for "This Week In Baseball." He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year on the ballot, receiving nearly 92 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America. He will enter the Hall in Cooperstown, N.Y., as this year's lone inductee on July 28.

RED SCHOENDIENST 2

SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Albert Fred (Red) Schoendienst
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: 2/2/23 at Germantown, Illinois.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

The name Albert "Red" Schoendienst is synonymous with Cardinals' baseball. After all, he wore the uniform for some 45 seasons as a player, coach and manager and still is involved with the organization as special assistant to the general manager.

It all started in 1945, when Schoendienst joined the club to fill in for left fielder Stan Musial, who was serving in the U.S. Army. Schoendienst batted .278 with 47 RBI and a National League-leading 26 stolen bases. The following year, Musial returned to the Cardinals, and Schoendienst moved to third base and then shortstop before settling in at second base. St. Louis won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox as Schoendienst began to develop into one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time.

In 1953, Schoendienst put together his finest season. He established career highs of a .342 batting average - second in the league to Carl Furrillo of the Brooklyn Dodgers at .344 - with 15 home runs and 79 RBI. On June 14, 1956, Schoendienst was involved in a surprising trade when he was sent to the New York Giants along with outfielder Jackie Brandt, pitcher Dick Littlefield, catcher Bill Sarni and shortstop Bobby Stephenson in exchange for shortstop Alvin Dark, catcher Ray Katt, pitcher Don Liddle and outfielder Whitey Lockman.

The following year, Schoendienst was traded to the Milwaukee Braves, who won the 1957 World Series and the 1958 N.L. pennant. He subsequently returned to St. Louis in 1961. On the Cardinals' career lists, Schoendienst ranks fourth in at-bats (6,841) and pinch hits (53); fifth in games (1,795), runs (1,025) and hits (1,980); sixth in doubles (352); and seventh in total bases (2,657). He led the N.L. with 200 hits in 1957 and seven times he either led or tied for the league lead in fielding percentage.

Schoendienst served as a coach on the 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory in 1967 over the Red Sox and another N.L. pennant in 1968 en route to a 12-year tenure as skipper, the longest in franchise history.

A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Mid-Summer Classic off Ted Gray of the Detroit Tigers. It marked the switch-hitter's first career homer batting right-handed. Schoendienst later managed the Senior Circuit to victories in 1968 and 1969. After a stint as coach with the Oakland Athletics in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. Schoendienst was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1989 by the Veterans Committee.

OUTFIELDER/FIRST BASEMAN

BORN: 11/21/20 at Donora, Pennsylvania.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1941-44, 1946-63.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1963.

Simply stated, Stan Musial is "The Man." Not only is he the greatest player in Cardinals' history, he also is the most popular.

Musial played his entire 22-year career as an outfielder and first baseman in St. Louis. He is the franchise's career leader in virtually every batting category: games (3,026), at-bats (10,972), runs (1,949), hits (3,630), doubles (725), triples (177), home runs (475), RBI (1,951), walks (1,599) and total bases (6,134). His .331 average is fourth behind Rogers Hornsby (.359), Johnny Mize (.336) and Joe Medwick (.335). And, despite being an everyday player most of his career, Musial ranks seventh with 35 pinch-hits.

After initially joining the Cardinals late in 1941, Musial arrived for good the following season. He immediately began a stretch of 16 straight years in which he batted .300 or better. In 1943, Musial led the National League with a .357 average, 220 hits, 48 doubles and 20 triples and earned the first of his three Most Valuable Player awards. Musial also was named MVP in 1946 (led league with .365 average, 124 runs, 228 hits, 50 doubles and 20 triples) and 1948 (topped N.L. with .376 average, 135 runs, 230 hits, 46 doubles, 18 triples and 131 RBI). All told, the sweet-swinging left-handed batter paced the Senior Circuit in batting seven times.

A member of three World Championship teams (1942, 1944 and 1946), Musial was chosen to play in 24 All-Star Games (tied for the most in major league history with Hank Aaron and Willie Mays). His six home runs are the most in Mid-Summer Classic annals. He won the 1955 game with a 12th-inning homer off Frank Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox at County Stadium in Milwaukee.

On May 13, 1958, Musial collected the 3,000th hit of his career with a pinch double off Moe Drabowsky of the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field. Musial finished his career with 3,630 hits. At the time of his retirement, he held major league records for extra-base hits and total bases and N.L. marks for runs, hits, doubles and RBI. He has the fourth-most hits in baseball history - behind Pete Rose (4,256), Ty Cobb (4,190) and Hank Aaron (3,771).

Musial was the first player in Cardinals' history to have his uniform number retired, and he was a first-ballot Hall of Fame selection in 1969, being named on 93 percent of the ballots. Musial was a long-time senior vice-president with the organization and served as general manager in 1967, when the Cardinals won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox. More than anything else, the personable Musial has been a great emissary for all that is good about the game of baseball. A bronze statue of Musial stands outside Busch Stadium with the following words: "Here stands baseball's perfect warrior. Here stands baseball's perfect knight."

ENOS SLAUGHTER

OUTFIELDER

FULL NAME: Enos Bradsher Slaughter

HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 190 BATS: Left THROWS: Right

BORN: 4/27/16 at Roxboro, North Carolina.

NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

He didn't have the nickname, but Enos Slaughter was a genuine "Charlie Hustle." Throughout his career, he was known for his all-out style of play.

Slaughter dashed into baseball immortality in Game 7 of the 1946 World Series against the Boston Red Sox. With the scored tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Slaughter led off with a single. He remained there as the next two batters were retired and then took off to steal second base with left fielder Harry Walker at the plate. Walker stroked a double into center field, and Boston's Leon Culberson threw the ball to shortstop Johnny Pesky. While Pesky hesitated on the relay, Slaughter kept on running, ignoring third base coach Mike Gonzalez's stop sign and scoring what proved to be the series-deciding run.

Long before his "Mad Dash," Slaughter was a bona fide all-star. He broke into the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1938 and the next year led the National League with 52 doubles while batting .320. It was the first of five straight seasons in which Slaughter batted at a .300 clip. In 1942, he had a .318 average - second in the N.L. to Ernie Lombardi of the Boston Braves at .330 - and league-leading totals of 188 hits and 17 triples. St. Louis' outfield cast of Slaughter in right, Terry Moore in center and Stan Musial in left is regarded as the best in franchise history, and helped lead the Redbirds to the 1942 World Championship over the New York Yankees.

After a three-year stint in the service, Slaughter returned to the Cardinals in 1946. All he did is top the league with 130 RBI to go with a .300 average and 18 home runs. In 1950 and 1952, Slaughter drove in 101 runs while hitting fewer than 15 home runs. No other player in major league history has accomplished that feat twice.

On April 11, 1954, Slaughter was traded to the Yankees for outfielder Bill Virdon, pitcher Mel Wright and minor league outfielder Emil Tellinger. Upon being told of the deal, Slaughter sat in front of his locker and cried. On St. Louis' career lists, he ranks second in RBI (1,148); third in triples (135) and walks (839); fourth in games (1,820), runs (1,071), hits (2,064) and total bases (3,138); fifth in at-bats (6,775) and doubles (366); and 10th in home runs (146). He batted .300 in eight of his 13 seasons with the Cardinals.

Slaughter subsequently played for the Kansas City Athletics (1955-56) before returning to the Yankees (1956-59) and finishing his career with the Milwaukee Braves (1959). The Veterans Committee elected the 10-time All-Star, who was nicknamed "Country," into the Hall of Fame in 1985.

KEN BOYER

THIRD BASEMAN/MANAGER

14

FULL NAME: Kenton Lloyd Boyer

HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 200 BATTED: Right THREW: Right

BORN: 5/20/31 at Liberty, Missouri. DIED: 9/7/82 at St. Louis, Missouri.

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1955-65, 1971-72, 1978-80.

NUMBER RETIRED: 1984.

HISTORY

Only one player in Cardinals' history has hit for the cycle on two occasions. It's Ken Boyer, who accomplished the feat Sept. 14, 1961, against the Chicago Cubs and June 16, 1964, against the Houston Colt .45s.

Boyer was a solid all-around third baseman. He hit for average and power and earned five Gold Glove awards for his fielding prowess. From 1958 to 1963, he averaged 26 home runs and 98 RBI to go with a .304 batting average. Then in 1964, Boyer was named the National League Most Valuable Player after batting .295 with 24 homers and a league-leading 119 RBI. In the World Series against the New York Yankees, Boyer clubbed a grand slam in Game 4 to give the Cardinals a 4-3 victory, and he contributed three hits and three runs to help St. Louis win the seventh and deciding game by the score of 7-5.

An N.L. All-Star in 1956 and from 1959 to 1964, Boyer hit a two-run homer in the second 1960 game at Yankee Stadium and a solo blast in the 1964 contest at Shea Stadium. He was a .348 batter (8-for-23) in the Mid-Summer Classic.

"The Captain" was traded to the New York Mets on Oct. 20, 1965, in exchange for pitcher Al Jackson and third baseman Charley Smith. On the Cardinals' career lists, Boyer ranks second in home runs (255); fifth in RBI (1,001) and total bases (3,011); sixth in at-bats (6,334); and seventh in games

(1,667), runs (988), hits (1,855) and walks (631). His seven grand slams are tied for the second most in club history behind Stan Musial's nine.

Being a native Missourian, Boyer was always a Cardinal at heart. He returned to the organization as a minor league manager in 1970 and again from 1973 to 1976 and served as a major league coach in 1971 and 1972. He replaced Vern Rapp as manager of the big league club April 29, 1978, and piloted the Cardinals to an 86-76 record and third-place finish in the N.L. East Division the following year. But in 1980, with expectations high, the Cardinals never got untracked, and Boyer was dismissed June 8 after a 6-4 loss in the first game of a double-header against the Montreal Expos dropped their record to 18-33.

Boyer was diagnosed with lung cancer in the early 1980s, and the disease ultimately took his life in 1982 at just 51 years of age.

DIZZY DEAN

17

FULL NAME: Jay Hanna (Dizzy) Dean
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 182 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 1/16/10 at Lucas, Arkansas. DIED: 7/17/74 at Reno, Nevada.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1930, 1932-37.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1974.

Dizzy Dean was the prototypical member of the "Gas House Gang." The right-handed pitcher was one of baseball's zaniest characters. He also was a warrior and a winner.

After a cup of coffee with the Cardinals in 1930, Dean became a mainstay two years later. He put together his best season in 1934, going 30-7 with a 2.66 ERA and 195 strikeouts. Dean led the National League in wins and strikeouts and ranked second in ERA en route to being named the Most Valuable Player. He is the only pitcher in Cardinals' history to win 30 games and the last N.L. hurler to accomplish the feat. St. Louis won the World Series that year over the Detroit Tigers four games to three, with Dean and his brother, Paul, accounting for all four victories. Dizzy fired a six-hit shutout to win Game 7 by the score of 11-0.

Dean, who led the league with 28 wins in 1935, was selected to four consecutive All-Star Games from 1934 to 1937. He was the winning pitcher in 1936 and the loser in 1937. But Dean lost more than the game in 1937. A line drive off the bat of Cleveland Indians' outfielder Earl Averill in the third inning broke one of Dean's toes. Dean refused to take time off to let the injury heal, and he began utilizing an unnatural pitching delivery that led to an arm injury from which he never fully recovered.

On April 16, 1938, the Cardinals traded Dean to the Chicago Cubs in exchange for pitchers Clyde Shoun and Curt Davis, outfielder Tuck Stainback and $185,000. On St. Louis' career lists, Dean ranks second in strikeouts (1,087); third in winning percentage (.641); sixth in wins (134), complete games (141) and shutouts (23); and ninth in innings pitched (1,736).

Dean was known for his fun-loving lifestyle and story telling as much as his success. In a double-header against the Brooklyn Dodgers at Sportsman's Park on Sept. 21, 1934, Dizzy authored a three-hit shutout in the opener and Paul followed with a no-hitter. "Gee whiz," Dizzy said afterwards. "If I'd a known Paul was gonna do it, I'd a thrown one, too."

Following his playing days, Dean was a colorful broadcaster who became an ambassador for baseball. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1953.

LOU BROCK

20

FULL NAME: Louis Clark Brock
BORN: 6/18/39 at El Dorado, Arkansas.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1964-79.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1979.

If it's been said once, it's been said a million times. The Cardinals' acquisition of outfielder Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs on June 15, 1964, ranks as perhaps the greatest steal in baseball history. St. Louis traded pitchers Ernie Broglio and Bobby Shantz and outfielder Doug Clemens in exchange for Brock and pitchers Jack Spring and Paul Toth.

Over the course of his career with the Cardinals, Brock established himself as the most prolific base stealer in baseball history to that time. His 938 stolen bases stood as the major league record until Rickey Henderson bettered the mark in 1991. Brock's total remains the National League standard, and he holds the major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals. Brock led the N.L. in thefts on eight occasions (1966 to 1969 and 1971 to 1974). He set the season record with 118 in 1974, bettering the mark of 104 by Maury Wills during the 1962 campaign. In 1978, the N.L. announced that its annual stolen base leader would receive the Lou Brock Award, making Brock the first active player to have an award named after him.

But Brock was more than a base burglar. He was a career .293 batter with 3,023 hits. Seven times he batted at a .300 or better clip. In 1967, Brock slugged 21 home runs and had 76 RBI from the leadoff spot. He also had 52 stolen bases to become the first player in baseball history with 20 homers and 50 steals. The following year, Brock topped the N.L. in doubles (46), triples (14) and stolen bases (62), the first player in the Senior Circuit to do so since Honus Wagner of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1908. Brock joined the 3,000-hit club Aug. 13, 1979, with a fourth-inning single off Dennis Lamp of the Chicago Cubs at Busch Stadium.

Brock paid immediate dividends in St. Louis, batting .348 for the balance of the 1964 season and propelling the Cardinals from eighth place in the N.L. to a World Championship over the New York Yankees. The Cardinals won the World Series again in 1967 over the Boston Red Sox and were N.L. champions in 1968. Brock was at his best in postseason play. His .391 career batting average (34-for-87) is a World Series record, while his 14 stolen bases are tied for the most all time with Eddie Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox.

On the Cardinals' career lists, Brock ranks first in stolen bases (888 - Vince Coleman is second with 549); second in games (2,289), at-bats (9,125), runs (1,427), hits (2,713), doubles (434) and total bases (3,776); fourth in triples (121); fifth in walks (681); and eighth in RBI (814). He was a six-time N.L. All-Star.

Brock has remained active in baseball since retiring as a player following the 1979 season. He worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984; was a baserunning consultant for the Minnesota Twins in 1987, Los Angeles Dodgers in 1988 and Montreal Expos in 1993; and has served as a special instructor for the Cardinals (baserunning and outfield play) since 1995. He was a first-ballot Hall of Fame inductee in 1985.

BOB GIBSON PITCHER

45

FULL NAME: Robert Gibson
HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 195 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: 11/9/35 at Omaha, Nebraska.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1975.

Bob Gibson ranks as the greatest pitcher in Cardinals' history. A glance at the record book supports the claim. On the franchise's career lists, the right-hander is first in wins (251), complete games (255), shutouts (56), innings pitched (3,884.1) and strikeouts (3,117). He is second in games pitched (528) and tied for ninth in ERA (2.91).

An outstanding athlete, Gibson played with the Harlem Globetrotters before arriving in St. Louis to stay in 1961. Three years later, he posted a 19-12 record with a 3.01 ERA in helping the Cardinals win the National League pennant. After losing Game 2 of the World Series to the New York Yankees, Gibson posted complete-game victories in Game 5 (5-2 in 10 innings) and Game 7 (7-5) and earned Series Most Valuable Player honors.

Gibson was on his way to another banner season in 1967 when a line drive off the bat of Pittsburgh Pirates' outfielder Roberto Clemente broke Gibson's right leg July 15. He was sidelined 52 days but returned to pitch the N.L. pennant clincher against the Philadelphia Phillies on Sept. 18 and then go 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA, three complete games and 26 strikeouts in the Cardinals' World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox.

The postseason dominance was an indicator of things to come. In 1968, Gibson authored the greatest season by a pitcher in modern history. His 1.12 ERA established an all-time record for 300 or more innings. Gibson posted a 22-9 record with league-leading totals of 13 shutouts and 268 strikeouts. During one stretch, he surrendered two earned runs over 95 innings. Gibson was named the N.L. Cy Young Award winner and MVP. For an encore, Gibson set a record with 17 strikeouts in Game 1 of the World Series against the Detroit Tigers (a 4-0 victory). He pitched two more complete games (winning Game 4 by the score of 10-1 before losing Game 7 by a 4-1 margin) to run his streak to a record eight straight complete-game starts in Series play. Gibson, the series MVP, totaled 35 strikeouts in the three games to establish a Fall Classic standard.

Gibson won his second Cy Young Award in 1970 on the strength of a 23-7 record and 3.12 ERA. He fired a no-hitter against Pittsburgh on Aug. 14, 1971, winning 11-0 at Three Rivers Stadium, and became the second pitcher in baseball history to record 3,000 career strikeouts July 17, 1974 (following Walter Johnson of the Washington Senators).

Accompanying his blazing fastball and pinpoint control was an intense demeanor. Gibson was a complete pitcher, clouting 24 home runs and winning nine Gold Gloves. The nine-time N.L. All-Star was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981, his first year of eligibility. "Gibby" served as pitching coach for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84) and bullpen coach for St. Louis (1995). He also has done some broadcasting and has been a special instructor for the Cardinals since 1996.

PROMINENT CARDINALS WHO WORE NO. 45

- Von McDaniel, 1957-58

AUGUST A. BUSCH JR. 85

PRESIDENT

BORN: 3/28/1899. DIED: 9/29/89.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1953-89.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984.

August A. Busch Jr.'s reign as president of the Cardinals was marked by success on and off the field. Between 1953 and 1989, the Cardinals won three World Championships (1964, 1967 and 1982) and three additional National League pennants (1968, 1985 and 1987). They also forged the reputation of having the classiest organization in Major League Baseball.

Busch purchased the franchise from Fred Saigh on Feb. 20, 1953. Busch was president of Anheuser-Busch brewery, which benefited from the acquisition of the ball club. Although he didn't devote a tremendous amount of time to baseball-related matters early on, by the 1960s, Busch had grown tired of the Cardinals routinely finishing no higher than the middle of the pack in the N.L.

After winning the 1964 World Series over the New York Yankees, Busch was instrumental in the building of "new" Busch Stadium. The $26 million ballpark opened May 12, 1966, with a 4-3 victory over the Atlanta Braves in 12 innings and became the foundation of a rejuvenated downtown. In 1967, the Cardinals surpassed 2,000,000 in home attendance for the first time in franchise history.

Busch retired as leader of the brewery in 1975, handing over control to his son, August III. The Cardinals failed to win during the decade of the 1970s, leaving Busch anxious to return to prominence. He made arguably his best baseball decision June 9, 1980, when he hired Whitey Herzog as manager. Busch and Herzog enjoyed a sterling relationship that played a major role in the Cardinals' renewed success. Home attendance soared, with the club drawing 3,000,000-plus fans in both 1987 and 1989.

Throughout his ownership of the Cardinals, "Gussie" was one of the City of St. Louis' most popular citizens. He was a regular at home games, and on special occasions would ride around the stadium atop a Budweiser wagon pulled by a team of signature Anheuser-Busch Clydesdales.

The Cardinals retired the number 85 in Busch's honor in conjunction with his 85th birthday in 1984. He died Sept. 29, 1989, at the age of 90. August III subsequently served as chief executive until Anheuser-Busch sold the club to the current ownership group March 21, 1996.

BUSCH STADIUM 1966 — 2002

In the mid-1950s, several years after he persuaded the board of directors of Anheuser-Busch to purchase the St. Louis Cardinals, August A. Busch Jr. decided that if the team was to prosper and attract the fans necessary to support a major league franchise, it would have to move to a new stadium.

Mr. Busch took his idea for a new stadium in downtown St. Louis to city officials and civic leaders. Their interest in a major redevelopment of the downtown area and their realization that a new stadium could serve as the focal point paved the way for the laying of groundwork for the project.

In 1964, ground was broken, and on May 12, 1966, Busch Stadium officially opened as the new home of the St. Louis Cardinals. In a 12-inning inaugural, the Cardinals defeated the Atlanta Braves, 4-3.

Looking back over the stadium's 35-year past, it is clear that Mr. Busch and others involved in the project accurately anticipated that the new stadium would spur a rebirth of downtown St. Louis. With Busch Stadium as the focal point, the redevelopment of the downtown area has been marked by the addition of new office buildings, hotels, shopping complexes, parking garages and other facilities, including the International Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum.

Through the 2001 season, more than 77 million people have attended 2,780 games at Busch Stadium.

Recent improvements and additions include the installation in 1997 of a hand-operated scoreboard flanked by flag decks commemorating the club's World Series championships and retired numbers; the return in 1996 to a natural-grass playing surface, which replaced the artificial turf that had been in place since 1970; the opening in 1996 of the Family Pavilion, featuring a variety of games and attractions for families and children, and Homer's Landing, a picnic area located above the bullpen in left-center field; and the return of a more traditional "ballpark green" color scheme for the outfield fence and stadium trim.

Other improvements include the installation in 1993 of a state-of-the-art sound system and a new large-screen video display, a Diamond Vision MARK III High Contrast system by Mitsubishi Electronics. Prior to the 1995 season, a Plaza of Champions monument display honoring the Cardinals' World Championship teams was erected near the Stan Musial statue. In 1998, the club dedicated the first in a series of statues that form an outdoor promenade between Gates 6 and 7 to honor the players who helped forge the Cardinals' championship tradition. Thus far, the club has unveiled statues honoring Bob Gibson, Stan Musial and Jack Buck, in 1998; Lou Brock, Red Schoendienst and Enos Slaughter, in 1999; Dizzy Dean and Rogers Hornsby, in 2000; and George Sisler (St. Louis Browns) in 2001. A statue for Negro League legend James "Cool Papa" Bell is planned for 2002. The statues were created by Missouri sculptor Harry C. Weber.

Busch Stadium's basic structure is concrete. The stadium is basically a two-deck facility with about half its seats in each deck. The seats completely surround the field without posts or columns to obstruct fans' views. The nearly circular structure has an outside diameter of more than 800 feet, covers more than 12 acres and is 130-feet tall, measured from the playing field to the top of the stadium.

The playing field at Busch Stadium is 10 to 30 feet lower than street level. Spectators move from the entrance level either up or down to seating areas. There are eight major entrances.

Busch Stadium capacity is 49,814.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:

Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:

Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:

40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:

A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs, and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:

Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:

Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, then divide the number by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE:

Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

DETERMINING ON-BASE AVERAGE:

Add the total of hits, walks and hit-by-pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING AVERAGE:

Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

TRADING REGULATIONS:

Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:

1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after 3 years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring 3 years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":

A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:

Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES HITTING STREAK:

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES PLAYING STREAK:

A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

REGULATION GAME:

A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

DISABLED LISTS:

15-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) calendar days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

FARM AND SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

JOHN MOZELIAK
DIRECTOR OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

John Mozeliak begins his second year as Director of Baseball Operations which includes assisting Senior Vice President/General Manager Walt Jocketty with the day-to-day Major League operations of the club. Mozeliak also coordinates the efforts of both the scouting and player development staffs. He served as the Cardinals' scouting director for two years after being appointed to the job in November 1998. Mozeliak joined the organization following the 1995 season, and served as an assistant in scouting operations in 1996 and 1997, and as the assistant scouting director in 1998.

Mozeliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies, where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations. Mozeliak, 33, is a graduate of the University of Colorado and a member of the Missouri Scouts Association. He lives in St. Louis with his wife, Julie, and daughter, Allyson More (7/22/99).

BRUCE MANNO
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Bruce Manno begins his first season as the Cardinals' Director of Player Development. Manno was appointed to his post on November 1, 2001, taking the place of Mike Jorgensen who was promoted to Special Assistant to the General Manager in September.

Manno, 48, most recently served as the Assistant to the General Manager for the Baltimore Orioles in 1999. He was a long-time member of the Milwaukee Brewers Scouting and Player Development department from 1979 to 1994. Manno joined the Brewers in 1979 and was named Farm Director in 1982. He was appointed as the Brewers Assistant General Manager in 1987 and held that post through 1994. Under Manno's direction, Milwaukee's farm system captured six "Organization of the Year" awards, three each from Baseball America (1985, 1986 and 1987) and Topps (1987, 1989 and 1991).

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Manno graduated from Benedictine High School in 1971 and majored in journalism at Cleveland's Cuyahoga Community College. He began his professional baseball career in 1977 as the Assistant General Manager at Utica, NY, in the New York-Penn League. Manno and his wife, Claudia, have two children, Nick (21) and Amanda (18).

SCOTT SMULCZENSKI
DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

Scott Smulczenski is in his 20th season with the Cardinals after joining the organization in 1982 as an intern in the marketing department. Smulczenski worked in marketing and office administration in a part-time capacity for three years before being hired full-time in January, 1987. He is in his 16th season in his current role.

As director of minor league operations Smulczenski assists the Cardinals' six minor league affiliates with their travel and equipment needs. He also serves as support and main contact for the team's minor league players.

Smulczenski graduated from Choctawhatchee High School, in Fort Walton Beach, Fla. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Texas in 1983. A diehard Pittsburgh Steelers fan, Smulczenski enjoys traveling in his spare time. He and his wife Kelly reside in Warson Woods, Mo., with their two daughters, Danielle (9) and Hanna (7).

MARTY MAIER
DIRECTOR OF AMATEUR SCOUTING

Marty Maier was appointed to direct the team's amateur scouting operations in January of 2001 and begins his second year as the team's chief evaluator of amateur talent. Part of his duties include overseeing the team's selections in the June amateur draft.

Maier, working his 23rd year in professional baseball, first joined the the Cardinals' scouting staff on Nov. 1, 1979. He was named assistant scouting director in 1987 and became scouting director in October 1993. Maier has had a hand in signing such players as Danny Cox, Vince Coleman, Luis Alicea, Matt Morris, Rick Ankiel, Adam Kennedy, Placido Polanco, Gene Stechschulte and Kerry Robinson. From 1998 through 2000, Maier was a special assistant to the General Manager on the Los Angeles Dodgers' staff.

Originally from Hollywood, Fla., Maier graduated in 1970 from South Broward High School, where he played baseball and football. He received his associate's degree from Broward Community College in 1972 and a bachelor's degree from Florida State University in 1974. A minor league infielder, Maier was signed by the Kansas City Royals and, later, by the New York Yankees. Maier and his wife, Diane, reside in St. Louis, Mo., and have three sons: Zack, 11; Jacob, 6; and Max, 2.

JOHN VUCH
MANAGER OF BASEBALL INFORMATION, ASSISTANT TO PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

John Vuch is in his 15th season in the player development department and his 24th overall season with the Cardinals. Vuch began working for the Cardinals as a "runner" in 1979. He also worked in the Sales Department from 1985 to 1987.

In his current role, Vuch is responsible for preparing statistical analysis for use in salary arbitration and contract negotiations. He assists with the daily operations of the Player Development Department and helps coordinate the Scouting Department's preparation for the June draft. Vuch currently serves on Major League Baseball's Player Information Application Development Committee. He also serves as the official MLB statistician for all Cardinals home games and is responsible for estimating the distance of all home runs hit at Busch Stadium.

A St. Louis native, Vuch graduated from the University of Missouri-St. Louis with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. Vuch and his wife Maria reside in south St. Louis County with their children Jack (7), Hayley (4) and Anna (1).

FRED McALISTER
SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT SCOUT

Fred McAlister became a Cardinals special assignment scout following the 1993 season after serving as scouting director since 1980. As special assignment scout, he reports directly to Senior Vice President/General Manager Walt Jocketty.

McAlister has been part of the Cardinals' organization since 1945, when he signed as a player out of high school. He played in the Cardinals' farm system from 1945 to 1960, serving as a player/coach or player/manager at various times.

During his tenure as scouting director, McAlister's first-round picks reached the majors in 12 of his 13 drafts, including a streak of picks from 1981 to 1987. McAlister's drafts produced more than 70 players who suited up for the Cardinals, as well as 17 players who reached the majors with other organizations. He also was the Cardinals' assistant farm director from 1967 to '69 and then served as a scouting supervisor and special assignment scout from 1969 to 1979.

MARTEESE ROBINSON
DIRECTOR OF PROFESSIONAL SCOUTING

Robinson is in his second year with the Cardinals as Director of Professional Scouting and provides oversight for the team's professional scouting staff, including the team's advance scouting efforts. Robinson joined the scouting ranks in 1999 as scouting supervisor with the Toronto Blue Jays and was promoted to scouting coordinator in 2000.

Robinson, 35, was selected by the Oakland Athletics in the sixth round of the June 1987 draft. He played four seasons before retiring at the beginning of 1991. From 1992 to 1998 Robinson was a police officer in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Robinson was born in Newark, NJ, and graduated from Seton Hall Preparatory High School in 1984. He attended Seton Hall University from 1984 to1987 and led the nation in hitting in '87 with a .529 batting average, earning co-College Player of the Year honors with Robin Ventura. His college career is chronicled in a newly released book, "The Hit Men and the Kid Who Batted Ninth" by David Siroty. Robinson and his wife, Charlene, reside in St. Louis, Mo., with their children, Bria (9), Marteese, Jr. (3) and Jada (1).

JEFF SCOTT
DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING AND OPERATIONS

Jeff Scott was appointed to this position in January of 2001 after serving as director of player procurement since November 1998. He was a special assignment scout with the club from 1996 to 1998. In this position, Scott focuses his attention on upgrading and reorganizing the area of scouting and operations in international player development.

Before joining the Cardinals, Scott was scouting director for the Detroit Tigers from 1994 to 1996, for Cleveland in 1988 and for the Seattle Mariners in 1984 and 1985. He also was the Indians' director of scouting and player development in 1986 and 1987, the Mariners' assistant scouting director in 1982 and 1983, and a scout with Colorado in 1996. Major Leaguers scouted and signed by Scott include Edgar Martinez, Albert Belle, Omar Vizquel, Charles Nagy, Greg Swindell, Jeff Shaw and Bill Swift.

A former pitcher, Scott was drafted by the Texas Rangers in the third round of the 1972 amateur draft. He pitched for four years in the Rangers' system, reaching the Double-A level before injuries cut short his career. He then worked as a pitching coach for four years with the Rangers' Class-A Asheville club and managed Seattle's short-season Bellingham affiliate from 1979 to 1983. Scott, 47, has three children: Jennifer, Sarah and Ryan.

GEORGE KISSELL
SENIOR FIELD COORDINATOR FOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

As senior field coordinator for player development, George Kissell coordinates each of the Cardinals' minor league affiliates and reports to Director of Player Development Bruce Manno. Because of his expertise in fundamentals of the game, Kissell handles many of the instructional duties for the minor leagues during spring training and extended spring training.

Kissell spent 10 years in the minor leagues as an infielder and has served the Cardinals in several capacities since joining the organization in 1940. From 1946 to 1968, he worked as a manager, coach, scout and minor league instructor. Kissell was a Cardinals' coach from 1969 to 1975 and a special field assistant to General Manager Bing Devine in 1976.

Kissell, a Watertown, N.Y., native, graduated with a master's degree from Ithaca (N.Y.) College. In 1999, he was honored with a plaque that hangs outside Busch Stadium in recognition of his many years of service with the club, most of them as a teacher. He and his wife, Ginny, reside in St. Petersburg. The couple have a son, Dick, and a daughter, Kay.

BOB HUMPHREYS
MINOR LEAGUE FIELD COORDINATOR

Humphreys begins his first year as the Cardinals minor league field coordinator. A member of the Cardinals 1964 World Series team, Humphreys was a relief pitcher for the Cardinals for two seasons (1963-64).

Humphreys spent nine years in the big leagues with five different clubs. He signed with the Detroit Tigers in 1958 and made his Major League debut with Detroit in 1962. After playing the next two seasons with the Cardinals, Humphreys went on to play with the Chicago Cubs and Washington Senators before finishing his career with Milwaukee in 1971.

Humphreys coached at Virginia Tech for five years before returning to the Major League scene as the minor league pitching coordinator for Toronto, a post he held for five seasons. He then served as Milwaukee's coordinator of pitching and player development for 14 years before rejoining the coaching ranks for two years at Hamden Sydney College.

Humphreys resides in Bedford, Va. with his wife, Genny.

MARK RIGGINS
MINOR LEAGUE PITCHING COORDINATOR

Riggins is entering his seventh season as the organization's minor league pitching coordinator and his 19th year in the system overall. In 1995, he served as the Cardinals' pitching coach under Joe Torre and Mike Jorgensen and was the pitching coach at Louisville from 1990 to 1994.

Riggins, 45, began his coaching career in 1984 with Johnson City, moved to St. Petersburg in 1985, Arkansas in 1986, Springfield in 1987 and back to St. Petersburg in 1988. He spent the 1989 season as the Cardinals' roving minor league pitching instructor before joining the Louisville staff in 1990.

Riggins pitched in the Cardinals' system for five seasons with Gastonia, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. He also played on loan for Baltimore's Charlotte club for part of 1983.

Riggins is a graduate of Loogootee High School in Indiana and earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural business in 1979 from Murray State University, where he was a three-year all-conference pitcher. He makes his off-season home in Murray, Ky., with his wife, Tammie, and daughter, Chelsea Lee.

BILL CAMPBELL
ASSISTANT MINOR LEAGUE PITCHING COORDINATOR

Campbell begins his second year in his current position and will also serve in 2002 as the pitching coach for the club's Class-A New Jersey affiliate. In 2000, he was the Cardinals' pitching coach at Class-AAA Memphis.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Campbell spent eight seasons with Milwaukee. He was the Brewers big-league pitching coach in 1999 and spent the previous seven seasons as an instructor in Milwaukee's minor leagues. He worked as the minor league pitching coordinator for the Brewers in 1997-98, as a pitching coach at the Class-A level in 1996 and as a Triple-A pitching coach from 1992-95.

The 53-year-old Campbell pitched in 15 big-league campaigns, including the 1985 season as a member of the Cardinals. He appeared in three games in both the NLCS and World Series. Campbell tied an American League record for most games won as a relief pitcher, posting a 17-5 record. Campbell appeared in the 1977 All-Star Game as a member of the Boston Red Sox, saving a league-leading 31 games that year with a 13-9 record.

Campbell resides in Palatine, Ill., with his wife, Linda, their two daughters, Emily and Marnie, and son, Joseph.

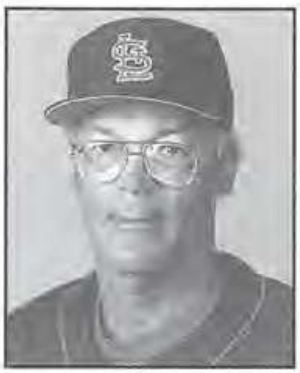
GENE TENACE
MINOR LEAGUE HITTING COORDINATOR

Tenace begins his first year with the Cardinals organization as the minor league hitting coordinator. From 1999 through last season, he worked with the Boston Red Sox in a variety of roles within their minor league system.

Tenace, 55, began his coaching career in 1984 as minor league hitting instructor for the Milwaukee Brewers. He also spent time with Houston and the New York Yankees before joining the Toronto Blue Jays in 1989 as their minor league hitting instructor. Tenace was appointed as the Blue Jays Major League hitting coach in 1990. During 1991, he assumed managerial duties on August 21, when Cito Gaston was hospitalized for back problems, going 19-14 in his absence. Tenace became Toronto's bench coach in 1992 until he took over as bullpen coach in 1996 through 1997.

The 15-year Major League veteran signed with the Kansas City Athletics as their 11th pick in June of 1965. He made his Major League debut in 1969 with Oakland and played in five League Championship Series (1971-75, OAK) and four World Series (1972-74, OAK; 1982, STL). Tenace earned World Series MVP honors in 1972 after hitting four home runs during the Series.

Tenace is a graduate of Valley Local High School in Lucasville, Ohio. He and his wife, Linda, have three grown daughters, Stacy, Merinda and Gina and reside in Redmond, Ore.



DAVE RICKETTS
MINOR LEAGUE CATCHING INSTRUCTOR

Ricketts is entering his 29th year as an instructor with the St. Louis organization and begins his sixth year in his current position. Ricketts originally signed with the Cardinals in 1957. He was a backup catcher and pinch-hitter with the Cardinals from 1967 to 1969 and appeared in the 1967 and 1968 World Series. His last season as a player was 1970 with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Ricketts, 66, began his coaching career with Pittsburgh as their bullpen coach from 1971 to 1973. He joined the Cardinals as a Major League coach in 1974 and in 1976 was named manager at Sarasota, where he guided the team to a third-place finish. He managed at Rookie Johnson City in 1977 before returning to the majors as a coach form 1978 to 1991. In 1995, Ricketts was the pitching coach at Savannah before becoming the minor league catching instructor in 1996.

Ricketts was born in Pottstown, Pa. He earned a bachelor's of arts degree from Duquesne University, where he starred in basketball along with his brother, Dick, a former Cardinals pitcher. Ricketts lives in St. Louis with his wife Barbara. The couple have one daughter, Candy.

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS AND COACHES

GAYLEN PITTS
MANAGER - MEMPHIS

Gaylen Pitts is entering his 22nd season in the organization and his sixth successive year as manager of the Cardinals' Class-AAA affiliate. He begins his fifth season at the helm of the Memphis Redbirds following the move of the organization's Triple-A outpost to Tennessee in 1998. Pitts managed the Redbirds in their final season at Louisville in 1997 and also served as Louisville's manager in 1990 and coach in 1983 and 1984. Pitts returned to the farm system in 1996 as Minor League Field Coordinator after serving the previous five seasons as a coach at the major league level. He was the Cardinals' bullpen coach from 1991 to 1994 and third-base coach in 1995.

Pitts has managed Cardinals farm teams at Arkansas (1981-82, '89), Savannah (1985), Springfield (1986-87) and Johnson City (1988). He managed the Oakland A's Modesto club in 1978-79. Pitts was named Texas League Manager of the Year in 1989, when he led Arkansas to the league championship. He also guided Springfield to back-to-back division titles in 1986 and 1987.

Pitts signed with the Cardinals in 1964 out of Mountain Home High School in Arkansas, where he lettered in baseball and football. He was an infielder in the Cardinals' system until 1971. Pitts played 28 games at the major league level with Oakland in 1974-75. Pitts, 55, resides in Mountain Home, Ark., with his wife Julia and son, Travis Ray (8-8-87). In his spare time, he enjoys trout fishing, snow- and water-skiing, and racquetball.

TOMMY GREGG
HITTING COACH - MEMPHIS

Gregg joins the Cardinals organization as hitting coach for triple-A Memphis after spending three years working with the Atlanta Braves in their minor league system. In 2001, Gregg coached for the Braves' Myrtle Beach club (A) after two seasons with the Braves Single-A affiliate in Macon. During Gregg's first season coaching for the Braves, Macon produced five position players on the South Atlantic League All-Star team.

The former utility man played nine major league seasons with the Pittsburgh Pirates (1987-88), Atlanta Braves (1988-1992, 1997), Cincinnati Reds (1993) and Florida Marlins (1995). He saw postseason action with the Braves in 1991 and 1997. Gregg led the National League with 18 pinch-hits in 1990.

Gregg was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 7th round of the June 1985 draft out of Wake Forest University. He was an All-ACC performer in baseball at Wake Forest and also was a wide receiver and kick returner on the football team. Gregg, 38, and his wife, Tonya, reside in Suwanee, GA.

DYAR MILLER
PITCHING COACH - MEMPHIS

Miller is in his second year as pitching coach for the Cardinals triple-A club after serving as a roving pitching instructor for the organization from 1997 to 2000. His most recent stint as coach in the Cardinals farm system came during the 1995-96 seasons when he was the pitching coach at triple-A Louisville. Miller previously coached in the Cardinals system at Arkansas (1985) and Louisville (1986). He was bullpen coach for the Chicago White Sox in 1987 and pitching and bullpen coach for the Sox in 1988. He coached in the Detroit system (1989-90) before serving as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians organization from 1991 to 1994.

The 55-year-old former pitcher was originally signed by Philadelphia. He spent seven years in the majors, pitching for Baltimore (1975-77), California (1977-79), Toronto (1979) and the New York Mets (1980-81).

Miller was born in Batesville, Ind. and graduated from New Point High School, where he participated in baseball, basketball and track. He earned a B.S. degree in 1968 from Utah State, where he played baseball and basketball. Miller and his wife, Bertha, have four children: Scott, Matthew, Christopher and Sara Mae. They reside in Indianapolis.

MARK DeJOHN
MANAGER - NEW HAVEN

DeJohn, 48, begins his first season as manager for the team's Double-A club after coaching at the Major League level since 1996. He served as the organization's minor league field coordinator for three seasons and managed in the Cardinals' farm system from 1986-1991. He also managed and coached in the Detroit Tigers' and Kansas City Royals' minor league organizations.

DeJohn was drafted by the New York Mets in 1971 and played in their system through the 1977 season. He signed with the Detroit Tigers in 1978 and reached the major leagues with the Tigers in 1982.

DeJohn made the transition from player to coach the next year, serving as a minor league instructor for the Tigers. He then coached at Kansas City's Eugene affiliate in 1985, but returned to Detroit midway through the season to manage the Tigers' Birmingham club.

DeJohn joined the Cardinals' organization in 1986, managing the Savannah Cardinals to a 75-60 record. He spent two seasons in Savannah before taking the helm of the Midwest League's Springfield Cardinals in 1988. The next year, he was named manager of Johnson City, where he spent two seasons. DeJohn managed Detroit's Class AA London affiliate in 1992 before returning to the Cardinals' organization in 1993.

DeJohn attended Woodrow Wilson High School in Middletown, Conn. He has two children, Timothy and Stephanie.

STEVE BALBONI
HITTING COACH - NEW HAVEN

Balboni joins the Cardinals for his first season as coach for the club's Double-A affiliate. He coached last season with the Montreal Expos Single-A team and spent 1998 to 2000 as a coach in the Kansas City Royals organization.

Balboni, 45, played parts of 11 seasons in the majors as a first baseman and designated hitter with the New York Yankees, Kansas City, Seattle and Texas. He had his best season playing firstbase as a member of the 1985 World Champion Kansas City team, batting .243 with 36 homers and 88 RBI during the regular season and hitting .320 during World Series action against the Cardinals.

Balboni resides in Murray Hill, N.J., with his wife, Eve, and their three sons, Daniel, Matthew and Michael.

BLAISE ILSLEY
PITCHING COACH - NEW HAVEN

Ilsley joins the Cardinals for his first year as the pitching coach for New Haven (AA). Ilsley comes to the Cardinals from the Baltimore Orioles' organization, after serving as the pitching coach for the Bluefield Orioles in the Rookie Appalachian League during the 2001 campaign.

Ilsley began his coaching career in 1999 with Winnipeg of the independent Northern League and moved on to coach at Sioux Falls in 2000. He concluded his playing career in 1998 after spending 14 seasons playing in the minor leagues with Houston, St. Louis, Chicago Cubs, Philadelphia, Cleveland and Montreal. He appeared in 10 games in the Major Leagues with the Chicago Cubs in 1994, making his Major League debut on April 4 of that year.

A fourth round draft pick of the Houston Astros in 1985, Ilsley was named to the Topps Rookie League All-Star team that year after leading the New York-Penn League with 116 strikeouts in 90 innings for Class-A Auburn. He is a 1982 graduate of Alpena High School (Mich.) and attended Indiana State University. Ilsley resides in Alpena, Mich., with his wife, Jo Anne.

JOE CUNNINGHAM MANAGER - POTOMAC

Cunningham, a manager in eight of his 13 seasons as an instructor in the Cardinals' system, begins his fifth consecutive season at the helm of the organization's Carolina League entry.

In 1993, his second year as a skipper, Cunningham was named the Appalachian League's Manager of the Year for guiding Johnson City to a 37-31 mark, falling just half a game short of a playoff berth. He made his managerial debut at Chandler in 1992, managed Madison in 1994 and skippered the Peoria club in 1997. Cunningham served as a roving minor league instructor in 1996 after coaching at Louisville in 1995. He also coached at Johnson City in 1990 and 1991, and Hamilton in 1989.

The 39-year-old Cunningham is the son of former Cardinals' All-Star outfielder and longtime front office employee Joe Cunningham Jr. He played in the Cardinals' organization from 1984 to 1988 with Johnson City, Savannah, St. Petersburg and Springfield.

Cunningham was born on January 16, 1963, in St. Louis, where he graduated from Parkway Central High School in 1981. He attended Gulf Coast Community College in Panama City, Fla. Off the field, Cunningham enjoys hunting and fishing. His wife's name is Desilee.

TODD STEVERSON
HITTING COACH - POTOMAC

In his fourth year with the Cardinals organization, Steverson begins his second consecutive season at Class-A Potomac. He began his time in the Cardinals system in 1999 coaching at Potomac and spent 2000 as a coach in Peoria. Steverson wrapped up his playing career in 1998 as an outfielder with the Cardinals Triple-A Memphis club, capping a seven-year career that included big-league appearances with Detroit in 1995 and San Diego in 1996.

Steverson, 30, originally was drafted out of Culver City (Calif.) High School by the Cardinals in the sixth round of the June 1989 amateur draft but elected instead to attend Arizona State University. Three years later, he was a first-round pick (25th overall) by Toronto.

Steverson, a cousin of former major leaguer Ron LeFlore, resides in Phoenix, Ariz.

SID MONGE
PITCHING COACH - POTOMAC

In his third year with the Cardinals, Monge will serve as the pitching coach at Potomac for the first time. He coached at Johnson City in 2001 and Peoria in 2000. The former big-league lefthander spent three seasons in the Padres' minor league chain, working as pitching coach for their rookie club in Peoria, Ariz. in 1998-99 and as pitching coach for Triple-A Las Vegas in 1997. Before joining the Padres, Monge worked five seasons as a pitching coach in Detroit's farm system.

Monge was 49-40 with a 3.53 ERA in a career that spanned 10 seasons. He played with the Angels (1975-77), Indians (1977-1981), Phillies (1982-1983), Padres (1983-84) and Tigers (1984). Monge was a member of the American League All-Star team in 1979, when he posted career bests with 76 appearances, 12 victories, 108 strikeouts and a 2.40 ERA.

Monge, 51, and his wife, Carol, have three children, Michael, Amanda and John.

DANNY SHEAFFER MANAGER - PEORIA

Former Cardinals catcher Danny Sheaffer begins his first season as the skipper of the Peoria club after spending last season managing at New Haven. Sheaffer spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons managing the Chicago Cubs single-A affiliate in Eugene, Ore.

Sheaffer, 40, began his major league career when he was briefly called up in 1987 while playing with the Boston Red Sox and in 1989 with Cleveland. The next time he would experience a taste of big-league action was in 1993 when he spent the entire 1993 and 1994 seasons with the Colorado Rockies. In 1995, Sheaffer made his way to St. Louis and spent the next three years as a Cardinal. He played for the Cardinals Triple-A Memphis club in 1998 and retired from baseball during the Cubs' spring training camp in 1999. His best season came in 1993 with Colorado, hitting .278 in 82 games and throwing out 15 of 51 (29%) runners attempting to steal.

Sheaffer, born August 2, 1961, graduated in 1979 from Redland High School in Lewisberry, Pa., where he was the school MVP and earned all-state honors in baseball. He played baseball while attending Harrisburg (PA) Junior College and Clemson University and appeared in the 1980 College World Series with Clemson. He and his wife LaDonna have two sons, Daniel (7-17-90) and David (5-9-95) and reside in Mt. Airy, NC. Sheaffer is an avid follower of NASCAR Racing.

TONY DIGGS
HITTING COACH - PEORIA

Diggs rejoins the Cardinals as the hitting coach for Peoria after spending the last two seasons coaching in the Australian Baseball League. Diggs previously coached at Peoria during the 1998 and 1999 seasons.

The 35-year-old former infielder-outfielder played in the Cardinals' system from 1994 to 1996 after being acquired from the Milwaukee system for Ozzie Canseco. He first reached the Triple-A level with the Brewers at the end of the 1993 season after batting a career-best .295 at Class-A Stockton to start the year. With the Cardinals, Diggs played at Arkansas in 1994 and 1995 and with Louisville in 1995 and 1996.

Diggs resides in El Paso, Tex., with his wife, Kim, and their four children: Amber, A.J., Aaron and Andrew.

GARY BUCKELS
PITCHING COACH - PEORIA

Buckels, 36, enters his sixth season on the Cardinals' minor league staff and moves back to his post as a coach in Peoria. Buckels spent the past three years at New Jersey after coaching at Peoria in 1997 and 1998.

Buckels playing career spanned eight seasons, starting in the California Angels' organization in 1987. He made his Major League debut on July 23, 1994, with St. Louis and appeared in 10 games, going 0-1 with a 2.25 ERA. That same season, Buckels was named to the Triple-A All-Star team while pitching for Louisville.

Buckels was born in La Mirada, Calif., and attended Cal State-Fullerton. He resides in Orange, Calif., with his wife, Gina, and daughters, Megan, Tarah and Courtney.

TOMMY SHIELDS
MANAGER - NEW JERSEY

Shields begins his first year as a manager for St. Louis after spending 1999 through 2001 as a scouting supervisor. Prior to joining the Cardinals, Shields was a manager and coach in the Baltimore Orioles farm system from 1994 to 1998. He began his coaching career with Baltimore's rookie club in1994 and managed for three different Orioles minor league teams between 1995 and 1997.

Shields, 37, was drafted out of Notre Dame by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 15th round of the 1986 June free agent draft. He played in the Pirates' minor league system until he was traded to Baltimore after the 1990 season. He reached the Major Leagues with Baltimore in 1992 and played for the Chicago Cubs in 1993.

Currently, Shields makes his home in Lititz, Pennsylvania with his wife, Melonnie, and four children; Kelsey (9), Derrick (8), Samantha (3) and Connor (1).

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS AND COACHES

RON "POP" WARNER
COACH - NEW JERSEY

Warner will begin his first year as a coach at Class-A New Jersey after making his coaching debut last season at Double-A New Haven.

Warner spent 2000 as a batting practice pitcher for the Major League club after playing in the Redbirds farm system for nine years. He was originally drafted by the Cardinals in the 17th round in 1991 as a shortstop out of the University of Wyoming. In 1999, he hit .290 with 11 home runs and 33 RBI for Memphis while playing several positions.

Warner, 33, resides in St. Charles, Mo., with his wife, Laura.

BRIAN RUPP
MANAGER - JOHNSON CITY

Rupp will manage at Johnson City in 2002 after managing the team's New Jersey affiliate last season. Rupp coached at double-A Arkansas during the 2000 season after managing the Peoria Chiefs in 1999.

A native St. Louisan, Rupp played in the Cardinals' farm system from 1992 through '98. He was drafted in the 43rd round of the June 1992 amateur draft and compiled a career .295 batting average, highlighted by a South Atlantic League batting title in 1993, when he hit .320 with 81 RBIs at Savannah. Rupp also earned the 1992 batting crown in the Arizona League, where he hit .386 while leading the league in hits and RBIs.

Rupp, 29, was drafted as a shortstop from the University of Missouri-St. Louis but eventually found playing time at first base, third base and the outfield. A graduate of McCluer North High School, Rupp resides in Florissant, Mo., with his wife, Stacie.

TOM KIDWELL
HITTING COACH - JOHNSON CITY

Kidwell will begin his second year as a coach at rookie level Johnson City. The former infielder was drafted by the Cardinals in the 33rd round of the June 1998 free-agent draft and spent three seasons in the minor league system playing second and third base.

Kidwell, 25, attended Yale University where he was the captain of the team and First Team all-Ivy League in 1998. In his first at-bat as a collegian, Kidwell hit a two-run home run. He was born in Watertown, N.Y., and graduated from St. Petersburg High School in St. Petersburg, Fla., where he resides.

DEREK LILLIQUIST
PITCHING COACH - JOHNSON CITY

In his first season with the Cardinals, Lilliquist will serve as pitching coach at rookie level Johnson City. The former lefthanded starter-turned-reliever spent five-plus years in the Major Leagues, recording 25 victories. In 1992 while with Cleveland, Lilliquist made 71 appearances, going 5-3 with a 1.75 ERA. The next season with Cleveland, he earned 10 saves while recording a 2.25 ERA.

Lilliquist was drafted in 1987 by the Atlanta Braves in the first round (sixth pick overall) of the June free agent draft. He spent time in the Major Leagues with Atlanta, San Diego, Cleveland, Boston and Cincinnati, ending his professional career in 1997. Since that time he has served as the high school baseball coach at Vero Beach (Fla.) High School.

Lilliquist, 36, graduated from Sarasota (Fla.) High School and had an outstanding collegiate career at the University of Georgia where he compiled a 31-12 record with a 3.30 ERA in three years. In 1987 he led Georgia to the SEC title and a first-ever trip to the NCAA College World Series after being named College Pitcher of the Year by Baseball America. He resides in Vero Beach with his wife, Julie, and children Derek (8) and Alexandra (6).

CREDENTIALS — Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies. Season credentials will be issued only to those agencies that cover the Cardinals on a daily basis. Credentials must be worn in a visible manner at all times. All requests for credentials should be made in writing to the Cardinals Media Relations Office. Deadlines for credentials are as follows: Season – March 15; Daily – two working days prior to the game requested. All agencies must have a letter on file to have credentials issued. Credentials are issued to working members of the press only. No spouses, guests or children of press members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable. Credentialed media also are prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations will result in immediate revocation of the credential. All game credentials will be available at the press gate, between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. After 5 p.m., credentials are available at the Press Will Call window (located next to the press gate). Photo identification is required.

ADMISSION — The media entrance is through the press gate, located between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium. The press gate opens four hours before game time.

PRESS BOX — Take the elevators to Level 5. All persons entering the press box must sign in. The press box and broadcast booths are located on Level 5. The press box is for working members of the media only.

MEDIA DINING — Located inside the press box. It is open for meal service 1-1/2 hours prior to game time to accredited members of the media. The room is open for approximately 90 minutes after the game for beverage service. There is a $7 charge for meals.

CLUBHOUSES — Both the Cardinals' and visitors' clubhouses are located on Level 1. Access the clubhouses by taking the elevator to Level 1. All working media with clubhouse credentials will be admitted 3-1/2 hours prior to game time until one hour before first pitch. After the game, media who were issued clubhouse credentials will be admitted no longer than ten minutes following the game's conclusion. At times, certain restrictions may be imposed for meetings, cooling-off periods, etc.

FIELD — No person is allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges (i.e., photo pass). All non-uniformed personnel must leave the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch.

PRESS NOTES — Game notes and statistics are available in the press box two hours prior to game time. Play-by-play sheets and box scores will be available after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES — Media guides are available by request in the press box from club media relations representatives.

TELEPHONES — Five credit-card-only telephones are available for media use in the main press area. Two pay phones are also available in the press box.

TICKETS — All requests for media complimentary tickets must be made to the Cardinals Media Relations Office at least 48 hours before the start of the requested game. Tickets can be picked up at the Press Will Call windows between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium 90 minutes prior to the game. Photo identification is required.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING — 2002

RADIO

KMOX Radio, St. Louis, is the flagship station for a network of more than 100 stations covering 11 states. It will broadcast all 2002 games with commentary by Jack Buck, Mike Shannon and Joel Meyers.

TELEVISION

WB-11, St. Louis, will televise 45 regular-season games locally and to a network of approximately 20 stations reaching seven states. Fox Sports Net, a regional cable network, will televise 64 games. Commentary will be provided by Al Hrabosky and Dan McLaughlin.

JACK BUCK

Jack Buck has kept baseball fans spellbound with his diction and quick wit since he joined the Cardinals' broadcasting team in 1954. Buck was paid the ultimate compliment for his skills in 1987, when he was inducted into the broadcasters wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame as the Ford C. Frick Award recipient. He was inducted into the Broadcasters' Hall of Fame in 1990 and into the Radio Hall of Fame in 1995. He is also a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame.

A native of Holyoke, Mass., Buck received a bachelor's of arts degree from Ohio State. He got his start in baseball as the play-by-play announcer for St. Louis' minor league clubs at Columbus and Rochester. Now KMOX Radio's sports director, Buck has at one time or another broadcast almost every type of sports event imaginable. He received widespread acclaim as the former voice of the National Football League, and he had the distinction of handling the first telecast of the old American Football League.

His autobiography, "Jack Buck: That's a Winner," was published in 1997. In 1998, the Cardinals honored the legendary broadcaster by unveiling a bronze sculpture of Buck behind the microphone, outside Busch Stadium's main ticket lobby. Buck received a lifetime achievement Emmy in April of 2000 and was also honored by the Missouri Athletic Club as St. Louis' "Citizen of the Year" in 2000. He will call all Cardinals home games on KMOX radio.

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon enters his 31st season in the Cardinals' radio booth. His many years as a player in the organization and in the front office give Shannon a unique insight that comes to the fore in his commentary, which is only heightened by his zeal for the game. In 1999, Shannon was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his popularity and performance on the air and, as a player, on the field.

The 62-year-old St. Louis native broke into the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1962 and went on to star for the Redbirds' World Series championship teams in 1964 and 1967, and their N.L. pennant winner in 1968. His career was cut short in 1970 by nephritis, a rare kidney disease. The former outfielder-third baseman joined the Cardinals' front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales. Shannon will broadcast all Cardinals games on KMOX radio.

JOE BUCK

This season Joe Buck will handle play-by-play duties on home games telecast by Fox Sports Net. He also continues his duties as Fox Sports' lead baseball announcer for national telecasts.

Buck, 32, joined the Cardinals' radio team in 1991 after spending two seasons as the play-by-play voice of the Louisville Redbirds. He was part of the radio broadcasts through 2001. He also has handled the play-by-play on Cardinals television broadcasts for both KPLR-TV and Prime, and has called the World Series for Fox four times (1996, 1998, 2000, 2001). Buck was honored in 2000 as the outstanding play-by-play announcer with a sports Emmy.

A graduate of Country Day High School in St. Louis, Buck studied communications and English at Indiana University. He married the former Ann Archambault in January 1993. They have two daughters, Natalie and Trudy.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky has made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals' 1970s bullpen, to one of the town's favorite broadcasters. His commentary and sharp wit are a staple of Cardinals home and road telecasts on WB11 and Fox Sports Net.

During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station. He has been a commentator on telecasts by Fox Sports Midwest, WB11, Prime and Sportstime cable, and hosts a local radio show on all-sports station KFNS. Away from the booth, Hrabosky is an active supporter of the MLB Players Alumni association.

DAN McLAUGHLIN

Dan McLaughlin enters his fourth season with St. Louis as the play-by-play voice for Cardinals telecasts. He will cover all games aired on WB11 and road Fox Sports Net broadcasts. Before joining the Cardinals, McLaughlin did baseball play-by-play at the collegiate level. A 1996 graduate of Lindenwood College, he began his professional broadcasting career in 1996 as a sports talk show host at KMOX Radio, where he still serves as an occasional host.

During the baseball offseason, McLaughlin, 28, has worked for four years as a regular on St. Louis Blues telecasts on Fox Sports Net and WB11. He's also been a pregame, intermission and postgame analyst for Blues radio broadcasts, and a television host and analyst for the Missouri Valley Conference basketball tournament.

JOEL MEYERS

Joel Meyers is a new addition to the Cardinals radio broadcast team for 2002. Meyers, 47, will primarily work Cardinals road games and will handle other special assignments on behalf of the Cardinals and KMOX throughout the season.

Meyers just completed his third season as the play-by-play announcer for the San Antonio Spurs on Fox Sports Net. Additionally he provides play-by-play on Fox for Major League Baseball, Big 12 Conference football and the PGA Golf Tour.

Since 1984, Meyers has covered the NFL, college basketball and Major League Baseball for CBS Radio/Westwood One and called the 1992 and 1996 Olympic Dream Team basketball games for CBS/Westwood One. From 1992 to 1999, Meyers provided play-by-play for Major League Baseball as well as basketball, football, golf and tennis for ESPN. Prior to joining ESPN he worked with NBC as a play-by-play announcer for the NFL, NBA, college basketball and golf. He has also worked with the St. Louis Steamers Soccer team and the UCLA Bruins.

Meyers, who attended Ladue High School in St. Louis and the University of Missouri Columbia, served as the Busch Stadium Public Address announcer during the 1981 and 1982 baseball seasons.
